LAFAYETTE.

Dec. 18, 1883. Again the people of Lafayette were called Again the people of Lafayette were called upon to lay one of their number beneath the sod. At about 6 o'clock p. m. Dec. 15th, Mrs. Francis Larkins died suddenly, of rheumatism of the heart. The lady had been ailing for some time with bleeding of the lungs, and was preparing to go to California, for her health, but was suddenly taken by a quicker, though more fatal messenger of death.—Deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Radder, of this place, and very highly estgemed. She this place, and very highly esteemed. She was a widow, and leaves one child, a little boy, four or five years old. She died in her Grandma Nelson is very sick. I did not learn the nature of her disease, but suppose old age has something to do with it, she being over eighty.

T. B. Nelson, of this place, has found a goal mine somewhere near North Yamhill.— The croppings brought in and tested show a good prospect.

Several persons down from Amity, last week. They all told about the shooting of the Porter boy by young Smith, and all tell substantially the same story, to wit: That Mr. Porter's son, about 12 or 13 years old, and Gabe Walling's boy, about the same age, were in the livery stable doing something when Grant Smith, a young man 17 or 18 years of age, entered and going to the desk took out a revolver, which he pointed at young Porter, saying "see me shoot the button off that fellow's coat." Porter started to get out of the way, and the other boy, Walling, told Smith to "look out, the pistol is loaded." Smith paid no heed to the warning but snapped the pistol one or more times, when it went off, the ball striking Porter.—Of course Smith did not intend to kill any one, but the act looks like a piece of thoughtone, but the act looks like a piece of thought-less bravado, brought on perhaps, by an overdose of "Frank and Jesse James," the "Cow Boys of Texas," or some such reading

The shooting gallery still goes on and makes lots of fun for the boys. Mrs. Charley Tamage won a 50-cent prize by ringing the belt with a dead center shot.

Thursday sight is the ladies night at the Thursday aight is the ladies night at the gallery and each lady is entitled to 50 cents the first time she rings the bell fairly. Mrs. Dr. Calbreath is said to be the best average shot among the ladies. As shooting is a very necessary part of American citizenship, the ladies will probably go with a rush for the shooting galleries to prepare themselves for that exalted condition. Well, go in ladies: it's only 2½ cents per shot, first shot free; but be sure to take your smelling bottle, and some one to gatch you in his arms when you one to gatch you in his arms when you Say Al, what in thunder did you give a fellow away for? I was getting along so nicely with a dozen or two of the ladies, and now you spoiled it all by "letting the cat out of the bag," and just as leap-year is coming in too; too bad, too bad.

"Business is very dull," "Money is very scarce," and "Times are very hard," are the current watchwords of the season.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Dec. 17, 1883.

Fine weather we are having, and the farmers are taking advantage of it.

Harry Hembree was in town Sunday. He expects soon to go to California for his

Dr. Bickford and family leave Tuesday, the 18th, for Los Angelos, Cal. We are very sorry to hear of his departure and regret losing Miss Nona, who will be greatly missed, as she was Organist in the school.

Hon. W. J. McConnell has returned from east of the mountains; we are sorry to hea he is quite sick.

F. Barnekoff and wife jeft on this morning's train for Portland to meet Miss Hulda Anderson, his neice, who has just arrived from Sweeden.

Our stores are well stocked with a fine as sortment of fancy Christmas goods.

We were glad to see Grandma Moore able to be out at church, last Sunday.

The school entertainment was a succe and everyone was well pleased. The net proceeds amounted to $25.

We are sorry to hear this morning of the sickness of John Edwards' little child. ODESSA.

can be people in this section are better acquainted with the parties and the facts in reference to the killing of Wapato Dave than any where else and they believe that Those so purchasing will do so at their own rish.

The Gibert is innocent of the killing, and candorse the action of the District Attorney.

Dr. C. B. Smith and wife, of East Portland were up last week visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chapman.

Ezra, son of Geo. Graves, has been quite ick, but is better now.

The Literary society started out bravely, but the revival meeting—that was not a re-vival meeting, killed it dead.

The people are not purchasing half the amount of goods at the stores that they did last year, and are economizing in many ways to tide over the hard times. When we really try there are many things we suppose absolutely necessary to our happiness can be dispenced with. We will have to come to the cash system sooner or later and the sooner the better. Now is a good time for every one to resolve to pay off his old debts as fast as possible and contract for no new ones.

Doctor Daniel W. Cox, died on Thursday, Dec. 13th, 1883, after a short illness with heart disease, at his residence in the town of Sheridan. He was born in Illinois in 1836, and emigrated with his parents to Oregon in 1847, where he has lived ever since. He leaves a wife, five children, three brothers, and an aged mother to mourn their loss. As a Physician, he stood at the head of his profession and for many years has had an extensive practice in this section and leaves his family in good circumstances. He was a modest unassuming, benevolent, kind hearted good man and universally beloved by all who knew him. The family has the sympathy of the whole community. He was buried by the Masonic Fraternity, on Sanday, in their Cemetery, back of town. The funeral was attended by a large crowd of sincere mourners. We find it very difficult to write the truth about Dr.Cox without seeming to exaggerate his good qualities; but those who knew him best will acknowledge that he possessed, by nature and education in an emment degree, all those qualities that go to make up a good and usefull man. Doctor Daniel W. Cox, died on Thursday all those qualities that go to make up a good and usefull man,

We had a good time Saturday at the Agricultural Meeting. The subject, "A Model Fruit Farm," was well discussed and many new thoughts and ideas were brought out.— The subject, "The Horse and his Diseases," was postponed until next meeting, Jan. 12th, 1884.
