OUR PEER-REID.

Thanks to kind friends who remembered us Christmas.

Custer Post Band Ball, at Mohawk Hall, to-morrow night.

Hon. W. D. Fenton, of Lafayette, called one day last week.

It appears to us that McMinnville should have a Board of Trade.

The A. O. U. W. Lodge, of Sheridan gave a ball to-morrow night.

D. B. Gaunt has been down from his W. T. home, the past week.

No school this week. Little folks having a good time in consequence.

George Epperly, Sheridan's popular young druggist, was in town, Monday.

R. R. Laughlin, Esq., of North Yamhill, paid us a call yesterday morning.

James Hendrix, of Lafayette, was in town and paid us a hurried call, one day last week.

W. M. Townsend, of the "Register", was in town and came around to see us last Thursday.

Miss Ella Lee Woods, of St. Helens Hall, Portland, is up spending the holidays with her mother.

Several parties who attended the mask ball at Amity, inform us that the affair was a decided success.

Dr. Trullinger's Excelsior Liniment for all sprains, bruises, calous lumps, pain in the back, sore throat, etc.

Mr. Scanton, of Dallas, Polk Co., was the lucky holder of No. 27, which drew the prize ball, at McMinnville Bakery.

The Kerner property, sold last Saturday at Administrator's sale, was bought by Wm. Gilson, the price paid being $2,000.

Ask Uncle Andy or George Ean where they got those "nice fat ducks: pretty tame," etc. We'll bet they won't tell you.

Mrs. Lucy Chapman, of Salem, was down visiting friends and relatives last week and returned to her home on Saturday.

Use Dr. Trullinger's Condition Powders for blind stagers, loss of appetite and all stomach, liver, blood and kidney difficulties.

If you want a nice present for your girl, wife, sister or mother-in-law, go to Blackman & Peckham, Carlton, and you will find it.

Parties desiring to get wood can have it delivered to any point inside the city limits for $4 per cord by applying to Logan & Henderson.

Miss Gracie Hanne, of Corvallis, who was assistant teacher at the public school at this place last year, was down on a visit during the week.

Mr. W. A. Gardner, the gentlemanly station agent on the Narrow Gauge at Sheridan was in town last Friday and paid us a pleasant visit.

Go to Blackman & Peckham, Carlton, and see their large stock of Christmas goods which they are selling at prices lower than Portland.

Mr. S. J. Berry, of the Highlands, was in town on Saturday, making final proof on his homestead, and dropped around for a chat with the REPORTER folks.

Choice lot of Tahiti Oranges, lemons, figs, nuts, (new crop) and candies in endless variety, at "Santa Claus" Headquarters, which is at the Bakery and Confectionery.

Married, at the residence of Mr. Samuel Buel, Bellevue, Or., Dec. 20th, 1883, by Rev. G. W. Branson, Hon. Wm. Savage to Miss Mary C. Lady, all of Yamhill county.

All accounts, of whatever kind, due us must be paid at once—this is the SATISFACTION.

A. L. SATISFACTION.

Go to Wm. Holl's and see that silver set that some lucky man is sure to get away with on New Year's day. Buy $5 worth of jewelry and you get a ticket entitling you to a chance.

Carlton speaks! Yamhill to the front! The only wild turkey on the Pacific coast can be seen at Blackburn & Peckham's who have a fine assortment of holiday goods, at prices lower than the lowest.

Remember that with every $5 worth of jewelry purchased of Wm. Holl, the purchaser is entitled to a ticket to the lottery where a full silver set valued at $60 will be drawn on New Year's Day.

The Christmas dinner given at the Central Hotel, they tell us, was one of the best that was ever gotten up in this section. Well, that is the way Mr. and Mrs. Cook are in the habit of doing. Thanks for an invitation.

If you wish to save costs, you must settle your account by the first day of January, 1884. All accounts not settled by that date will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. D. I. COOKER.

Lafayette, Or.

The "Baptist Beacon" will be issued on the 1st of Jan. from this place. Mr. Barrett will make it a good, readable paper and all members of the Baptist denomination should take a pride in helping sustain it.

The storm on Monday and Tuesday was the most severe that has visited this section for a long time. The wind blew a gale, while the rain descended in torrents. As a consequence fences are prostrated and crops are running at high tide.

The dirty, untidy appearance of a grizzly beard should never be allowed. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers will readily change their color to a dark brown or black at discretion, and thus keep up your reputation for neatness and good looks.

Once more we wish to call the attention of those indebted to us, that we must have our money by the 31st of December. We cannot wait any longer. This is the last call, so look out and save yourselves costs.

ROBERTS & BAKER.

The family of Hon. J. D. Fenton, of Lafayette, consisting of father, mother and children, came up to the Columbia Gallery, yesterday, and were taken in a group. This is a fine looking family and a picture of the group will be a token which their posterity may point to with pride.

Local Correspondence.

DAYTON.

Dec. 25, 1883.

"Merry Christmas" is the prevalent form of greeting, to-day.

Messrs Fletcher and Bradshaw passed through town last Wednesday.

Chas. Jones Esq., is the champion "shootist" at this place.

Chance and Ed Grimes, of Salem, were here last week on a visit to their father's who has been very ill for some time past.

Rev. T. L. Jones, of Oregon City passed through town one day last week.

Our enterprising hardware merchant, J. T. Watson, visited the metropolis last week.

Chas. Powell and Ed Mitchell came down from Salem (where they are attending school) last Saturday and are spending the holidays with their parents here.

Will Coffin, of Champoeg is here visiting friends.

Mr. J. J. Shipley and wife, of your city are guests of Capt. W. S. Powell.

Mrs. S. W. Sigler and her son Clifford came up from Portland yesterday and will visit friends here during the holidays.

Dr. Mills and family left for California last Thursday. The best wishes of numerous friends go with them.

The open meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Friday night proved to be a pleasant affair and was well attended.

Prof. A. D. Flint, agent for Prof. Morse's Vaporizing Inhaler is here introducing that invaluable remedy for catarrh, etc., and is meeting with great success. The Professor is a courteous and affable gentleman and can cordially recommend him to all who are afflicted with catarrh.

A grand ball will be given at Mutchler's hall here on New Years eve. A good time is anticipated.

A large number of useful and handsome presents were distributed at the Christmas tree here, last night, and scores of little ones were made perfectly happy by the gifts they received. The exercises were of an impressive character, the church was tastefully decorated, and we hope that all who attended it will ever retain pleasant memories of the Christmas tree at Dayton in 1883.

Last Saturday night a Mr. McClure, who is running a logging camp near here, came into town and reported that one Goos had raided his ranch armed with two belts of whips, and had made himself generally disagreeable, and as he refused to leave, McClure came to town in quest of assistance: he seemed determined to cook Goos's goose, but we believe the difficulty resulted in nothing serious.

LYONS.

Yesterday was the worst day of the season—snow, hail and rain.

Dr. W. Tyler Smith has rented the Van Denham house.

Hon. Wm. Savage and Christina Lady were married one day last week.

E. F. Messenger and "Father" Umphlet, of Amity, were in town last week.

The farmers of this section are recovering from the wheat famine and are going into mixed farming as fast as possible.

It seems that the general use of alcoholic liquors, in spite of the efforts of our temperance people, is on the increase, and some of our best citizens are taking to it.

A. B. Fenshoner, the founder and sage of the town of Sheridan, after many years of toil, is going to take a breathing spell a couple of months in Lower California, visiting his daughter, in the meantime.

Our old friend, Rev. Jackson Hunsaker, preached several days last week at Harmony meeting house, and one evening in the town of Sheridan. He and Dr. D. W. Cox crossed the plains together and grew to manhood in the same neighborhood in Marion county.

We are informed that a man living in town, who has a wife in delicate health and three little children, leaves her to cut all the wood out of green oak poles, and carry all the water from a neighbor's well, while he is loafing about town. Shame. Do better or move to the Indian reservation.

Rev. John McCain, editor of the Dallas "Itemizer", was in town on Thursday and preached in the evening one of the best sermons it has been our good fortune to listen to for many a day. Call again and Sheridan will give you a warm welcome.

It is vacation this week, and Prof. J. Farmer Hill has gone to Eugene City to spend the holidays with his father and mother—Good bye.

A. C. Southmayd and wife returned a few days ago from their bridal tour.

The A. O. U. W. are to have a grand ball on the evening of Friday, Dec. 28, 1883, in the town of Sheridan.

The beneficiary of $2,000 was paid to Mrs. Lydia Messenger, widow of C. H. Messenger, deceased, Dec. 21st, 1883, by the Ancient Order of United Workmen. S. DAX.

LAFAYETTE.

Dec. 25, 1883.

Christmas has come and the Christmas tree, with its gorgeous display of presents, has been unloaded to the joy and delight of many happy children, and to no less joy and delight of many happy old folks. It was a happy idea that established the Christmas festival, when men could be induced to cease, for one day at least, from the sordid grubbing after gain and turn their thoughts to the wants, the comfort and happiness of others. I do not mean to say that all men, even all Christians, by aside their worldly cares on that day; but enough do it to make the surrounding little world feel better and happier by some little token or act of kindness upon that day of all the days of the year.

Charley and Jeff Fenton are home for the holidays. Grand Ferguson also came to spend Christmas and New Years with the folks at home.

The weather is rainy; the sun has turned on its northern journey; two comets are darting down from infinite space directly towards the earth, and—the shooting gallery still runs.

Speaking about the shooting gallery reminds me that Mrs. A. Fletcher hit the bull's-eye, making a dead center shot, for which she received a $5-cent prize every lady being entitled to that sum the first time she gets the bull.

Joseph Watt Esq., of Amity, came down here Saturday and remained over Sunday. He says he has quit farming himself, but has let his land out to men who will work it to good advantage.
