ling that stood close to a fence, on the farm of Mr. John Cartin, north of this place, the handle of Bean's axe struck the fence, which caused him to strike over, and the blade of his axe was buried in the right side of Hart-man's right ackle, just below the ankle bone, severing the main artery. Dr. Goueher was called and dressed the wound, which being a very painfal one, caused the young man much suffering. At the present time the patient is getting along very nicely; but he will probably be maimed for life from the affects of this accident.

-----A FESTIVE TIME.

The officers of Occidental Lodge, I. O. O. F., were installed publicly at Grange Hall, on Thursday evening last. We say publicly on Thursday evening last. We say publicly —meaning by that that it was done in the presence of families of members of the Or-der, and invited guests. There was a large number present on the cocasion—the various Lodges throughout the county being repre-sented, besides numerons visitors from our neighboring towns. At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies, a bountiful sup-per was spread, and all present took a hand in disposing of the tempting viands. Then came a social positive of an hour or two, in which young and old alite enjoyed them-selves hugely. It was indeed a pleasant time.
