New meat market on D street.
 You should hear the capata to-night without fail.
 Dr. W. H. Saylor of Portland was in the city over Sunday.
 Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! at the opera house next Wednesday evening.
 The Brooklyn bridge is ingeniously brought near at home in the window of Wallace & Walker's grocery.
 Most of our ailments come from a discolored liver, which Simmons Liver Regulator cures.
 J. W. Bowers, former landlord of the West side hotel, has been in the city the past week.
 Large sales and small profits is the motto at Millanp & Cook's.
 Brannan Clark is home from a stay at Scott's Mills. He has not yet moved his family over there.
 Best lodgers and sausage in town at D street market.
 Get your bible and read a few chapters beginning at 1 Samuel, xv, and be posted for the cantata to-night.
 Dyspepsia in all its forms is not only relieved but cured by Simmons Liver Regulator.
 The Reporter and Weekly Inter Ocean a year for $1.25. Hurry in your subscription and tell your neighbors.
 Eq. Magers' weight is materially reduced by his attack of grip. He is lighter now than he has been since he attained the full stature of man.
 You will never make a mistake when you buy your meat at the D. street market.
 That magnificent tidal wave of pleasure, "Over the Hills to the Poor House," will be produced next Wednesday evening by the strongest cast of local talent ever brought together in this city.
 Pills promote constipation—Simmons Liver Regulator cures constipation.
 D. H. Turner, of Portland, a former resident and postmaster of McMinnville, was in the city a few days, and attended the installation of G. A. R. and W. R. C. officers Saturday night.
 NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT—All our accounts must be settled either in cash or good notes.
 Frank Wright, now a granger next Anity, was in to see us Monday. Mrs. Wright's health has greatly improved since removing to the farm.
 Quick sales and small profit is our motto at the D street market.
 Don't fail to see E. E. Kelly as Ni-mrol. He would make a deaf, dumb and blind man laugh.
 Lafayette merchants all adopted the cash plan of doing business the first of the year, we are told.
 Now is the time to have your photos taken at Hogg's. Cabinets $2.00. If you want large groups or crayons you will not be ashamed of, go to him. He leads.
 Quarterly meeting in M. E. church next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. J. Parsons, P. E., will preach Saturday at 7 p. m. Quarterly conference after sermon. Preaching Sunday at 11 a. m. Communion service after morning sermon. Mentions continued all next week. All are cordially invited to all services.
 G. Manner will fix up the nicest roast you will find in town. D street market.
 Only a few more days to wait, and you then will have a chance to enjoy that great whirlwind of fun, "Over the Hills to the Poor House."
 This office has a batch of good neighborhood items from Byersville, but it cannot publish them because the well-known rate of newspaper offices that signatire of writer must be attached as evidence of good faith, is wanting. All correspondents should observe this rule, and then they can use for publication any non de plume they may choose.
 65 cents will buy a box containing 20 bars best family Savon soap at Millsap & Cook's. This is no bait. We will sell everything in our store at the same very small profit.
 Attorney George Bingham of Salem visited in McMinnville the first of the week. His mother has recently returned here.
 Wm. Kuns, the baker, carries such a clean stock of goods that they sell on their merit and not at "hard times prices." Go and see him. You will like his goods.
 The Newberg Graphic wants to know how to account for the difference between the two men who go out for a walk through the mud, the one turning his trousers neatly up at the bottom, while the other plods unconsciously through the mud. We don't know, but our guess would be that the unaccustomed gentleman is wearing his last years pants, and doesn't think it makes any difference.
 Improper and deficient care of the scalp will cause grayness of the hair and baldness. Escape both by the use of that reliable specific Hall's Hair Renewer.
 Leave your order for a good, fat chicken, dressed for Sunday dinner. D street market.
 C. R. Cook made his first appearance on the street since Christmas last Monday morning. The grip had made him very weak. Mrs. Cook is still very ill from the grip.
 "Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful medicine so invigorates the system and enriches the blood that cold weather becomes positively enjoyable. Arctic explorers would do well to make a note of this.
 Wither M. Cook of this place, has a long poem on "Grover the Rover" in the Salem Capital Journal of the 11th inst. It is arranged to the air of "O'Brien and his high-water pants."
 To preserve a youthful appearance as long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

The Tax Levy.
 The county commissioners met yesterday and made the tax levy for the present year. It will be as follows: State, four and three-tenths mills; county, four and ten-tenths mills; school, four and one-tenth mills. The valuation of the county is $5,111,888, and the amount raised for each fund will be as follows: County, $25,600; state, $26,281; school, $27,503. Total, $79,484. This is $66,924 less than the levy of last year. Return to the old system of working the roads obviates the necessity of a levy for that purpose. County expenditures for the past year were $29,550. It is estimated that $2,500 will be saved by the operation of the new law placing the clerk and sheriff on salaries, and there is on hand belonging to the road fund something like $2,500 that will be reserved for work on county bridges, etc., the current year. The county can reasonably expect to derive from polls and from fines and trial fees, $3,000, so that if its affairs are as economically conducted the tax rate will be as during the past, and no bad accidents occur, we can hope to pull through in good shape on the four and a half mill levy.

CANTATA TO-NIGHT.
The Board Shows a Large Sale of Seats. A Synopsis.
 The presentation of "David, the Shepherd Boy" to-night will prove a fine entertainment, and will have a large audience. Much hard work has been expended in preparation, and good results will be manifest both in singing and costuming. The cast of characters is as follows:
 David, the shepherd, F. E. Rogers
 Abigail, queen, Miss Mary Cook
 Queen's attendants, Mrs. Hobbs and Miss In Cooper
 Samuel the prophet, and Elzer, J. G. Eckman
 Saul the King, E. N. Ford
 Jesse the Bethlehemite, C. Cooper
 Aher and Messinger, J. A. Campbell
 Michal, Saul's daughter, Mrs. F. E. Rogers
 Goliath, Arthur McPhillips and Russell Corner
 Sentinels, Arthur McPhillips and Russell Corner
 Shepherds, A. M. Sanders, J. A. Campbell, E. N. Ford and Frank Cook.
 Men of war, J. E. Frang, J. O. Rogers, J. W. Hobbs
 G. D. Fisher, E. C. Walker and Ray Brown
 Trumpeters, A. H. Adams and C. E. Robinson.
 Besides these there are choruses of children to the number of 20, and an equal chorus of grown people.

SAUL'S DEED.
 Saul, as king had disobeyed God by not destroying the Amalekites in toto, and Samuel is commanded to go to Bethlehem, to Jesse, and anoint one of his sons to be king. He goes, makes a sacrifice, and calls Jesse and his sons to go. The prophet refuses sons up to seven, and David, the shepherd and youngest, is sent for, and selected to be king when the Lord should put Saul away from being king. After David is anointed the Lord sends his spirit to make Saul, good and wise, and takes his spirit away from Saul. An evil spirit troubles Saul, and he gets a harpist to drive it away, the same harpist to be David. The Philistines fight against Israel and David slays Goliath and hosts of the opposing army. The women of the cities come out and praise Saul and David for their victory over the Philistines, but anger Saul by singing that he killed one thousand but David had killed ten thousand.
 Saul tries to pierce David with a javelin. Saul gives his daughter, Michal, to be the wife of David for valor in battle. Saul, through jealousy, seeks to slay David, but Michal shields him by letting him down through a window and placing an image in his stead. David is exiled. He again fights and conquers the Philistine hosts. His army starving in the hills, he sends to Nabal, a rich man, for sustenance. Nabal refuses. David declares vengeance against his house. Abigail, Nabal's wife, brings presents and intercedes for peace. She becomes David's wife. The cantata ends with the coronation of David as king.
 Seats are still on sale at Rogers Bros.' at 50 cents; general admission 25 cents.
 J. W. Collins has been appointed postmaster at Carlton.

A handsome and symmetrical boy weighing nine pounds arrived at the home of John Hanev on Tuesday.
 A brief letter from John Knight of Hillsboro was shown us yesterday morning, saying that a fire during the night completely destroyed the Oddfellows' hall, valued at $1,200.
 It was noted as lively for an hour or so yesterday morning as one could wish to see it. Flakes about the size of tea saucers descended until the whole landscape was whitened.
 D. O. Durban came out Wednesday for the first time for several days after being attacked with the grip. O. H. Adams is still confined to his house, but is getting better. D. C. Perry has been a pretty thick man within the past few days. F. Hartman is out again after a spell of grip.

In addition to the many other pleasing features of the coming great production of "Over the Hills to the Poor House," the McMinnville orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. This will add greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Straight from the East.
 A Sultan of Turkey once said:
 As he groned at the pain in his head,
 "Oh, my favorite wife,
 I am sick of this life,
 And I wish very much I were dead."
 But his wife, who was wise, answered: "Fie! If you will Pierre's Pellets but try. You'll be well in a week—And then you will speak Of these Pellets with praise just as high."
 Dr. Pierre's Pellets cost only 25 cents and they are guaranteed to cure all the troubles which spring from constipation, indigestion and bilious attacks. If you have any of these troubles, why don't you follow the example of the Sultan of Turkey?

$500 Reward for an incurable case of chronic Nasal Catarrh offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. 50 cents; by druggists.

For the Children.
 "In buying a cough medicine for the children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. It is intended especially for colds, croup and whooping cough." 50 cent bottles for sale by S. Howorth & Co.

When War is Declared
 Against a man's happiness by his stomach, the enemy may be pacified and brought speedily and easily to terms. That potent regulator of digestion, Hester's Stomach Bitters, disciplines the rebellious organs thoroughly. Indigestion arises from weakness of the stomach, and the food in it, for want of the power to digest, decomposes and acidifies, giving rise to heartburn, flatulency and pain, besides a multitude of symptoms painful and perplexing. But peace soon reigns when the great stomachic is resorted to and used with persistence. Dyspepsia gives rise to morbid disposition of mind, and even sleeplessness and hypochondria in chronic cases. To the complete dismissal of these the Bitters is fully adequate. Rheumatism, constipation, debility, lumbago and malaria are completely subdued by this genial medicine.
 The doctors say they can much more nearer controlling the grip during the rains, than if a north wind sets in. Nearly all sickness is laid to the north wind in this country.
 How to Prevent Pneumonia.
 For pains in the chest there is nothing better than a flannel cloth saturated with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It will produce a counter irritation without blistering, and is not so disagreeable as mustard; in fact is much superior to any plaster on account of its pain-relieving qualities. If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. 50 cent bottles for sale by S. Howorth & Co.
 Died—January 16th, of pneumonia, at her home 2 1/2 miles north of the city, Mrs. Mary E. Colwell, wife of Wm. Colwell. It is the Best.
 The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Minn., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never fails to give the most perfect satisfaction. 50 cent bottles for sale by S. Howorth & Co."
