PEOPLE who think that an eccentric crank like Pennoyer would better represent Oregon in the United States senate than Mr. Dolph, are of the stuff that populists are made.

THE appointment of Martin J Russell as collector of customs at Chicago, directs attention to the fact that Catholic influence is all potent in that democratic city, and that it is taking care of itself in a way that is interesting if not strictly unsectarian. They have the mayor, postmaster, chief of police, chief of the fire department, ninety per cent of the police force, eighty per cent of the school teachers, the city and county treasurers, and in fact about everything in sight.

THE editor of a great paper said recently: "It is just as bad to buy confederate, is substantially such a perfecting appeal to the supreme prohibiting the manufacture of beer manifested he issues a call for a public as would have been acceptable perfecting appeal to the supreme in the state.
