Up to Wednesday, the 14th, ten thousand dollars in taxes had been paid at the sheriff's office. This is a little over one-tenth of the entire tax-roll, the total footing being $95,464.25. Under the new law the sheriff has to issue receipts to the taxpayer for city and school taxes, the extra receipt going to the city recorder and school clerk. This increases the work somewhat, and makes the sheriff come nearer earning his salary.

We are glad to hear of so many local organizations in different parts of the county. It shows that the people are at work and are running the party once more, as they did in former times when it was felt that it had a mission to perform. Homekeepers who are looking for something of high standard quality in queensware, will be interested in an item noting the receipt this week by Wallace & Walker of a very large invoice of the beautiful semi-porcelain goods. The shipment was made direct to them from London, so there can be no doubt of their genuine quality. The patterns are the fashionable ones of the day and very attractive. The ladies are cordially invited to call and inspect them for themselves. Our populist friend Baird of Cheeown precinct, while in the city Saturday attending a meeting of the executive committee of his party, was asked if the subject of fusion received any attention at the meeting. "No," he said, "that was definitely settled a long time ago. Populists are strictly opposed to fusion on principle." Nevertheless we will wager our friend a new hat worth a dollar and a half that the democratic and populist parties will work the fusion dodge in one form or another when election comes around. They may not do it openly and above board, but candidates will be withdrawn or placed left vacant on one ticket or the other in order to combine the vote, and the two parties will come together like two thirty ducks in a puddle. The pretense of being opposed to fusion is merely a bluff of the pops to induce the largest possible liberality on the part of the democrats in dividing the swag.
