Are now receiving their New Stock of Spring Goods, and have reduced the price on all goods on hand, so will sell good, stylish

CLOTHING AT HARD TIMES PRICES!

Look at those-

FINE, LIFE-SIZE CRAYON PICTURES

In their show window, which are given away

With Every $25 Worth of Goods Bought at Their Store.

Call and get particulars. Don't fail to see our NEW SPRING STOCK, and Get Prices Before Buying.

KAY & TODD, THIRD STREET, McMINNVILLE.

44444444 Your Heart's Blood your organism. Three-fourths of the complaints to which the system is subject are due to impurities in the blood. You can, therefore, realize how vital it is to Keep It Pure or which purpose nothing can equal SSS It effectually removes all impurities, cleanses the blood thoroughly and builds up the general health.

Our Treatise on Blood and Skin diseases mailed SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

SALT LAKE, OMAHA, KANSAS CITY,

CHICAGO, AND ALL

DAYSTO

EASTERN CITIES.

Hours go and the East.

Kansas City. Pullman and Tourist Sleepers,

Free Reclining Chair Cars, Dining Cars. S. H. H. CLARK, OLIVER W. MINK, E. ELLERY ANDERSON,

For Rates or general information call on or ad W. H HURLBURT, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt. 254 Washington St., Cor. 3d. PORTLAND, OR.

EAST AND SOUTH The Shasta Route

* PACIFIC * COMPANY

Roseburg Mail Daily.

DINING CARS ON OGDEN ROUTE. PULLMAN * BUFFET SLEEPERS

SECOND CLASS SLEEPING CARS, Attached to all Through Trains.

BETWEEN PORTLAND AND CORVALLIB red corner between his forefinger and Mail Train Daily, (Except Sunday.)

At Albany and Corvallis connect with not doubt, and their arms went back trains of Oregon Pacific Railroad, with his movement mechanically. Sud-Express Train Daily, (Except Sunday.)

Through Tickets to all points in Eastern States, Canada and Europe can be obtained at lowest rates from G. A. Wilcox, Agent, McMinnville.

Asst. G. F. & P. A., Portland, Or, R. KOEHLER, Manager.

CHURCHES Baptist—Services Sunday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m; Sunday school 9:50 a m.; the young people's society 6:15 p m meeting Thursday 7:30 p. m. Covenant meeting first Sat each month 2:00 p. m. CHAS. L. BONHAM, Pastor.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL—Services every Sabbath 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:30 a m. Prayer meeting 7:00 p m. Thursday. S E. MEMINGER, Pastor. CUMB. PRESBYTERIAN—Sérvices every Sabbath 11:00 a m and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Y. P. C. E., Sunday 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday, 7:30 p. m. W. H. Jones, Pastor

What are you going to do?" he asked.

"Bring up the editor of The Bugle elapsed since Mangitude of the suntil Lemps of the sun St. James Catholic-First st., between G and H. Sunday school 2:30 p. m. Vesdon truin me!"

a quit claim to the Leland estate if you gained the knowledge he was seeking.

"I am at a loss to account for your pers 7:80. Services once a month. W. R. Hogan, Pastor

W. C. T. U.-Meets on every Fri-av, in Wright's hall at 3 o'clock p. m. day, in Wright's na.
L. T. L. at 3 p. m.
MRS A. J. WHITMORE, Pres

"Yes, one of the many he signs and been trapped, but they will suffer. opened the doors. There is no law by which I can come here except by conviction of an indict- | the wall in the rear of the corridor. Be ment found by a grand jury.'

as a disorderly person." "And is that the charge?" "Maybe it is and maybe it isn't. It's | this, Mangan?" asked Raymond. a valid commitment. It cites your ofyou guilty. You can never prove you him were not tried in open court. "The police justice knows." "And he knows something else." "That he wants a second term and would perjure himself to get it?" Mangan, will you give us your pedigree

Tickets for record on the books?" The keepers had led Mangan into the office. The warden had gone behind the rail, opened the book where the DENVER, the pen and awaited Mangan's answer. 'Never!'' said the defiant prisoner. "You're not ashamed of it, Mr. Mangan, are you?

"No, but it will never be recorded to know the cause of this?" "It will keep you from making trou-ble for yourself and others, I suppose.

You ought to know. "I will know. Where is Raymond?" "Here!" said a voice behind him. 'You cowardly cur!' said Mangan as he surveyed him scornfully. "This is your work. Mangan's pockets were being turned The Quickest to Chica- inside out. Next the keepers would take him out of the office to the bath and change his civilian dress to the Quicker to Omaha and garb of a felon. There was a pile of Mangan's letters on the desk before the warden, and Raymond stepped over and began to peruse them. "I'll make you pay for this!" said

"Indeed!" sarcastically retorted Raymond. "You will be here for a year,

When you get out, no one will believe your story. If by accident your whereabouts should be discovered, the commitment papers are against you. Do you not know that you are doomed to solitary confinement? Don't bother me. Let me read." He picked up another envelope. "This is an ancient epistle. And to the superior of the Convent of Mercy. So you have been thieving, eh? You professional moralists are practical ruffians. But I suppose your philosophy springs from experience. We'll me what's inside. It may be of value to Mother St. Gertrude.' He drew forth the inclosure, Mangan watched him to note the effect. the letter in Mangan's face.

Above trains stop at all stations from Portland to Albany inclusive. Also Tangent, Shedds, Halsey, Harrisburg, Junction City, Irving, Eugene you. You'll read the result of this at the end of the next three months, and I'll be more master then than now. Warden, give me a match."

The warden and keepers were surprised. The warden came from behind the railing, closed the doors leading to the corridors, a premonition of something dreadful making him cauttous to limit the number of witnesses. After this he advanced to Raymond, handing him a box of matches. Raymond lit one, applied it to an end of the letter, which he held until it burned close to his fingers, and then, pressing the char-thumb, threw it into Mangan's face. Mangan stepped backward. The keepers understood his action to be that of fear. That he was subdued they did the tide of temper, his arms twisted, in a second he had hold of each man, in another he had knocked both their heads together, and quick as a ball from against Raymond, and the three fell in

The warden stood aghast. Ere he LOCAL DIRECTORY. fore Raymond and the keepers could convent of Mangan's location. He had "I hope," he continued, "that you scramble to their feet, Mangan was behind the rail and had in his hands a big self that Mother St. Gertrude must have little perplexing now. revolver that had hung upon the wall. The hands of all went up. He walked to the telephone, keeping his enemies to the telephone, keeping his chicked for under cover, rang up central, asked for the office of The Bugle, and hung up the office of The Bugle, and hung up That he could determine only by learn-that he could determine only tions of the connected currents.

"What are you going to do?" he

CHRISTIAN—Services every Sabbath 11:00
a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 10
a. m. Young propie's meeting at 6:30 p. m.
H. A. Denton, Pastor.

"Mangan, I'll compromise. after that until I am released on a writ

Ting-aling-aling-aling! The connection was made. The Bu-

Saturday of each month in Union hall at 7:30 p.m. on second Saturday and at 10:30 a.m. on the Saturday. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend our meetings.

J. A. Peckham, Adjt.

Do you know where he is?"

"I do not."

"I do not."

"I have an idea," he not be mentioned to the doubt that she was answering truly and there, on the ground that duress had been used. The because the second and fourth where he is?"

We must trust to you."

"I have an idea," he doubt that she was answering truly and would answer truly if she did not reputation. that Raymond would be bold enough to He scanned her features and had no not be mentioned to the sister unless it turning footsteps of the sister and the joke on Mangan, the better because he there, on the ground that duress had been used. The keepers would perjure themselves to strengthen their claims on cate she would not.

What is it.

What is it.

What is it.

Laurence will never settle down. trude, in her soft sandals, noiselessly approached the door.

What is it.

Laurence will never settle down. trude, in her soft sandals, noiselessly approached the door.

What is it.

What is it.

Head it and arrange for a july bring in a verdict of suicide. I'm not much on religion, you know it, sir, now that I why, do you know it, sir, now that I Raymond. There was no way to re- "You know of his mission?" store to Isabel her rights except on evi- "What mission?" dence acceptable to the supreme court. "Well, he was writing an article and votion will awaken reciprocal feelings feared you had forgotten me."

thing. Three months more and Ray- conduct?" mond would be absolute master. He must postpone quarrels. All this flash- thing." ed across his mind while the telephone could dictate. walk out into the corridor, all or steps to protect her and secure the prop- with mine, enter a vista more propi- She has had too much to bear of late." day, he commanded.

clerk acts as judge and the judge himand put them in his overcoat pocket, any relative of hers who had made this give you the love a wife should have good time. He is Isabel's brother. self is roistering among sports. I have still covering the four. The warden investment. Isabel is the heiress, the for her husband, and that, while I cannot consent to any such arrangement.

"A police justice can send you here your heads. They marched back. "What are you going to do about

"You'll hear too soon for your own fense, your plea and regularly declares | comfort," was all that was vouchsafed | the property. I confess I cannot see | I cannot proceed until you are my wife.

ways and ran to catch a passing car. 'It's getting hot," he said to him- gard is?" self as he allowed his mind to wander "That's none of our business. Mr. back over the exciting incidents he had angan, will you give us your pedigree just passed through. "It's fun in one "He is." respect, but if I cannot prove Isabel's paternity Raymond will have the laugh. Mother St. Gertrude will care | right to this estate or not?" for Isabel, and I'll start straight for tangled in other plots.

CHAPTER XII. ISABEL VIELDS TO THE SCHEMER. When Mangan walked out of the Mangan was behind the rail.

have to conciliate for all time.

walked down the stoop, a much more | plained?" few hours before.

Next day he was fretful. He feared uncertain what to do. He awaited the | ment were made to him." initiative of Mangan. Days passed and he had heard nothing of the newspaper man. He had instituted inquiries about He had newspaper friends-the recip- arrested. He is so high minded and daring plot he was now carrying out. | now?" ients of his favors-who were on terms | sensitive that he might resort to means are not telling everybody, or any one, or." about. The words of the managing ed- courting discredit." itor, as quoted to Raymond, were:

don't know where he is." was the question Raymond was puz- corridor. She wanted to see Mother St. me? It will set Mangan crazy anyhow, teeth are all here. You see, the man Mercy is? zling about. Raymond was not afraid Gertrude and had been directed to the and the commission will not have to they were lookin for had a broken of a suit. It was and is the practice of reception room. Raymond bad seen her, sign a number of papers for their chief | mother superior said: denly they felt his muscles swell with if ever called upon, accept the decision > subject for a lunatic asylum. Raymond had resolved to ascertain whether anything was known at the only reply. known of his discovery. The letter addressed to her predecessor satisfied him cannot you tell Laurence now?" visit the convent, but it was the safest. | me here today." He was playing for millions, and his nerve must not fail. Over a week had Isabel, and the sparkle of her eyes spoke of habeas corpus, and the proceedings said as he passed inside the convent Gertrude. "I will be away but a few "Mangan, I'll compromise. I'll sign portals, determined not to be ushered moments. Meanwhile try to devise out or take hints to go until he had some scheme to reach Laurence." "I am at a loss to account for your Raymond.

visit," she said. "I am interested in a friend of yours over the matter when I return." gle office was as near to Mangan as and a friend of Isabel—Laurence Man-"Well?"

coincidence of name in the deeds of cer- why his character can be vindicated, of defeat. "Walk out into the corridor, all of tain lands, and attracted by it took reconciliation effected, and your lives, erty by paying the taxes and getting a tious, prosperous and peaceful.

property is hers, and we have the time might set aside my personal wishes to as you propose, and I have confidence "Every one of you stand up against "Every one of you stand up against "And Laurence was going to Denver right to be a burden upon you."

"And Laurence was going to Denver right to be a burden upon you."

"And Laurence was going to Denver right to be a burden upon you."

"And Laurence was going to Denver right to be a burden upon you."

"And Laurence was going to Denver right to be a burden upon you." "And Laurence was going to Denver | right to be a burden upon you." particular to keep your hands above to investigate. Just think of it. I was "It is no builden. If you never awhile. You know why Isabel conhe was here now.

"So do I. But, mother, my interest all. was in Isabel long before this. Even "You have that already. now it is difficult to prove her right to "But the companionship I have not. mond." how it can be done. I'm a wealthy The very mention of this in the press, When they had reached the rear wall, man. You know that. There can be bringing you and the convent into pub-Mangan passed out through the door- no charge of selfishness in my regard licity, would create a sensation painful for her. Do you know what that re- to Mother St. Gertrude. How can I cannot you prove whether Isabel has a rence so much as for you. You can record of each criminal is entered, held Denver in the morning before I get enson and Isabel his daughter. The fam- say so, if you ask me to make the sacily tradition will do that, but of Mr. rifice, I will do so. I will give up all Leland's investments there are no for the hope of winning your love." proofs. The lawyer who searched the titles and arranged the purchase is dead. swered, "Affection survives, the afexamined his papers for any clew."

> Raymond was not dealing with a Isabel had for Mangan as a lover and therefore of everything write to her? Why did he never send newer canvas placed upon the easel of to the world around him. her some memento of her mother? 1 her dreams. She longed to keep him cannot believe there are hearts in the at the front, her hero still, but fact put "Mangan must die!"

world so cruel." "I told Isabel that I discovered her soar. bel Le Clair in Convent of Mercy and loved him. But Laurence Leland lived. solve, the keepers dropped their hands. Ray- Laurence Mangan, supposed son of The cavalier garment of remance had mond felt like berating the keepers James Mangan of Worcester, Mass., son dropped from his heroic figure, but yet soundly. He was not a man to allow and daughter of George Leland. See he appealed stronger to her sympathies. his feelings to interfere with his case 3, shelf 21.' Evidently on that shelf Since it would be the only way to demschemes. It would never do to suspend and in that case was something that onstrate how strong her love had been the keepers; it would be bad to abuse them; it might awaken enmity even to criticise them. He was at their mercy, the deceased, took those papers. He criticise them. He was at their mercy. the deceased, took those papers. He in it some of the sweetness of the old, side of 50. His greed for place, power reporters are going up to view it. I per acre. In his fruitless endeavors to confine has himself died since, and in the few she would crown her sorrow at parting Mangan until he had millions secured | weeks I have been looking into the mathe had simply succeeded in giving three ter I have been no further enlightened. men a power over him that he would On the other hand, the case was being pressed against Laurence, and my inter- | ber alone, to confide in her, to appeal Therefore he said nothing concerning est in Isabel caused me to display more to her, to pray for guidance.' the experience of the evening, but bade activity than usual in Laurence's bethe warden and keepers good night and | balf. Have I not satisfactorily exdejected man than when he entered the "How do you account for the antipgrim portals of the state's stronghold a athy Laurence entertains toward you?" 'It is hard.'

"I think he is too candid, too honest, the consequences of his act and was to persist in his enmity if a frank state-"But where is he now?" "I cannot say."

of The Bugle. But managing editors one who would prefer death to dishon- her rights away, and she'll not be the identified?" Raymond asked. just what men on special missions are "He would never shun danger by the veil then if she wants to. Mangan? potter's field. Two women came here "I hope you are right, mother, but

'Mangan has dropped out of sight. I his absence and his shence are signifi-'What has become of him?' That Just then Isabel peered in from the dead. And how are they going to kill and said: 'It is not our Will. The justices to run off on pleasure trips and | and she could not withdraw before the "Come in, Isabel." of their clerks as their own. If Man- nights of worry she had passed through. gan brought suit, the evidence would The change did not escape Raymondbe all against him. If he said he had He attributed it to the secret that she never appeared in court for trial, he was hiding from Mangan and that she a catapult he had sent them rushing would be set down as demented, a fit had imparted to Mother St. Gertrude. "You are looking ill," he said to her. "I am not feeling well," was her concluded that Mangan had gone to are not fretting over things that will Denver. He had also reasoned to him- ultimately lead to happiness, though a "I wish it would end quickly. Why of that. If Mangan had gone to Den- "I would like to please you," he aning how much Mother St. Gertrude I spoke and has probably gone away to knew and then by deceiving her and some other city. I will take steps to Raymond was the first to regain his Isabel. It was a dangerous move to find him. In fact, that's what brought > elapsed since Mangan disappeared, and her appreciation. "There are a few matters that must "Surprised to see me, mother?" he | be attended to inside," said Mother St.

"Oh, how good of you!" exclaimed

"What would you suggest?" queried

We must trust to you. But I'll go asked of Isabel when the nun had gone. through his nerves or meet the pain gan. If I didn't know it mesel', I'd

He will fly from place to place until the prosecution ceases. You know that I love you. I know that in time my delive you while you while you will be yo ing into legal complications now, but headed to give explanations. Did he guide you. I have discovered property be difficult. would lose time—and time was every- say what his suspicions were of my both of you may claim. I have taken steps to hold it for you, as Mother St. St. Gertrude?" "I am not at liberty to say any- Gertrude will explain. Surely there is "Why, that the conversation between for me." in all this something that must give Isabel and myself precluded thoughts "I'm sure I'm much obliged to you "Well, from your reply I should say you an assurance that nothing I can do of anything but you." bell was ringing. He saw he had the he was indulging in his usual trade. I will be left undone to make you and

They obeyed. As he followed them | certificate. There was no record that | "Mr. Raymond, I must say that I have in your friendship that will atone for through love for you."

explain my interest in this case of his, "Isabel has told me, but is Laurence risk my personal and political standing, if I fail and scandal ensue, without something to fortify me? Let me be "Then if you can prove that why candid. I am not doing this for Lauhardly appreciate what it means to me, "I can only prove that there was a and it is not likely that Laurence would "Love is dead with me," she anwith the history of criminals. I want penitentiary, Raymond, the warden and He was my patron, and I have fruitlessly fection that springs from gratitude. I will consult with Mother St. Gertrude. 'But how did you trace Isabel's re- Raymond was gaining his point at every turn. He saw that the deep love not dare for him who was torn from "Didn't Isabel tell you?" he asked, her—aye, torn from her, for she wept She said something about an uncle used to draw of the future-blotted out a weight on fancy and would not let it name a short time ago by a memoran- Laurence Mangan was dead. She with a sacrifice for a reunion.

"I will go to Mother St. Gertrude," Isabel continued. "I want to meet 'Shall I wait?"

had entertained of him through Man- all, at all?" gan's report. Yet he was nervous. Ho had a presentiment that all would not How are you getting along?" "I know he has been pushed during the registrar of arrears some days be- the year."

"I'll marry her," he said. "She will of intimacy with the managing editor | we would deplore. He strikes me as | turn over the management to me, sign | burden on me she thinks. She can take "The divil a bit of it. It will go to Oh, I'll have a judge appoint a com- today to see it—a mother and a daughcounty asylum, and it isn't likely he'll and said it was her brother. She was have been foul play; that Mangan nevescape from there until I am politically about to faint. The mother went closer er committed suicide.

> ing through his brain as he walked up but if the blaggard had kept his lips trude, tell her the facts, say that the moand down, his head bowed, his brow closed and not showed his teeth these tive ascribed for the suicide your paper

He would stop now and then to listen. fists will when he wants to drive back "What is your opinion?" Raymond the rush of excitement pulsating lice headquarters that I think it's Man-"It is as Mother St. Gertrude says. stealing through his system with the take it to be Mangan." anæsthesis of determination. He would "Some day later on," said Raymond, er just telephoned that the body up "I have an idea," he said. "It must stop now and then to listen for the 1e- "I'll call upon you. It will be a rich there had been identified as Mangan's. girl, and while he was in one of these hearkening attitudes Mother St. Ger "Bad cess to him, it's mesel' that has read it and arrange for a jury that will dence acceptable to the supreme court.

"Well, he was writing an article and would gain nothing by enterwent off at a tangent. He was too hotin you. Let your love for Laurence "Under the circumstances that would much if I had one good crack at it," man before him scared and that he discovered some days before he did the him happy. I have told you how and absence appearing to him as an omen sidewalk. "I fear she is not strong enough,

Then I must go?" "For the present you must be satisfied | mond." leaves his clerk to fill out, while the he took his letters off the warden's desk leaves he took his letters off the warden's desk leav actions can weaken. I will wait for that body. It didn't amount to anysurprised at his conclusions. I wish change toward me, there will be solace sents. It is through love for him, not "Mangan may not return. Would Goodby. on allow this shadow to rest over him?

He has been a friend of yours. Can be do more for you than I? Sister, do you "I do, I would like it to be the power of a friend."

"I am pleased to learn that." But of Laurence?' No stain shall rest on his name if I can avert it. But I owe him something -I owe him the faith in his character his own manhood had failed to reach the means of redemption. Isabel has agreed with me to wait awhile.' 'Then I had better go. I will bid "Goodby," she said as she extended her hand. "There is one thing will settle this," of arrears, which Raymond had lately simple girl now. He was talking with the affection due to a brother had blenda woman of a individed temperament and Margan at the affection due to a brother had blendhe soliloquized as he walked across to Raymond's factorium was not a woman of a judicial temperament who wanted to know the why and wherefore of everything.

He was described as he walked across to the cars. "Mangan must die before the cars. "It was an interpretation to the cars."

He was an interpretation to this vindication the talligent fellow who could write fairly the cars. "It was a solitor to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "Mangan must die before the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was an interpretation to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the cars. "It was a carson to the cars."

He was a carson to the parrying her interrogatories to get time at night and worried by day that he and stood for awhile awaiting the car. the paper and one from ment—for doing nothing, with a facil-His introspection, deep as a trance, was ity unequaled. He had sense enough in Worcester pressing him. But if the uncertainty about an uncertainty used to draw of the future—blotted out from the most striking scenes, showing the horse of the passing vehicles. It was none of his business to be inquisitive. It did not come was some minutes before he came back within the province of his duty to ques-"It is an easy thing," he muttered.

And the heartless, cruel sternness that twitched his lips and made ferodum of the old lawyer. It said: 'Isacould never love another as she had let Clair in Convent of Mercy and let Laurence Mangan was dead. She city dance in the pupils of his eyes showed how earnest he was in his re-

> CHAPTER XIII. RAYMOND AT THE MORGUE.

> > er Raymond's rebuff by Mother St. there to convince them it is, I'll ex- No. 4, 160 acres pasture land, lots of Gertrude welcomed the political chief- plain when you come back. You have fruit on the place, all fenced, well walain into the private office of the no time to wait." morgue with:

had taken. Raymond knew or felt that he had dissipated the opinions the nun what has brought you up this way, at what has brought you up this way, at chair nearer to his own, motioned his chair nearer to his own, motioned his tered, oats grew here last year 7 feet "I thought I'd drop in to see you.

"Has this body you now have been tooth. The head had a good deal of These and kindred ideas were surg- knockin against the piles in the water, burial.

> "His clothes were all tattered," the morgue keeper went on, "and the face from that town, telegraphed on and asbattered. The wagon will be here tomorrow for him, and it's mesel' won't that the story will be published tomorbe sorry to get rid of his company."

questioned Raymond. "Did I?" repeated the keeper. "Indade I did. Was he a frind of yours?"

"You ought to know better." "I'm glad he wasn't. He was a cheeky fellow. Now, if ever he came of the stock in the paper; that if she out here on a special case, he'd insist on knew any one who had influence with porters take my word and copy the description out of the book. You see, if a body is picked up, it gets little notice, but if it's a case of murder or suicide they rush here. If a man is found alongshore and no letters in his pockets to say who he is or where he kem from, he is brought here, and a few lines in the paper end him. That's all this fellow get. But you were talkin of Mangan?" 'Yes. You couldn't say this was Mangan, could you?"

"Is there any reason I might?" "Will you say it?" "Seein as you ask me, I will. But what use? He'll turn up."

"Never mind that. "All right. I'll tell the boys at po-

"I'll go out now," said Raymond, for callin, Mr. Raymond," said the

"It is I who am obliged to you. Good day," was Raymond's parting saluta-"I'm thankful to you, Mr. Ray-

The keeper went back to the office and rang up the reporters at police head-thing, you say? Do you know if Mangan's about? No? Well, do you know My action is through love for her." this body looks like his? Yes, that's "That I will not deny, Mr. Ray- some of you come up? Oh, you can see what I said. I hope it ain't, but would it any time. You will? All right.

Such were the telephonic sentences he delivered to the reporters, and they suggested what the queries of Mangan's comrades in the journalistic profession were. Usually one man goes out on an assignment like this, but nearly all the reporters went up to the morgue to see the body, trusting that they would not find it to be Mangan's.

Meanwhile Raymond had communicated with the office of his newspaper organ and ordered a man to be sent to him. There was one there, by Raystrong the accusation against him, to mond himself appointed, whose stories any proposition that would imply that were passed unedited. They were understood to come from the chief. This man staid in the office, killing time as best pleased him, generally at easy desk work, ready to respond to the summons of his superior. In a few minutes he was in the private office of the registrar weil and drew two salaries-one from He reached the main thoroughfare the paper and one from the city governtion motives, to ask the why or wherefore of this or any other matter he wrote from dictation. That his instructions were sufficiently clear to enable him to execute his task satisfactorily was all he sought. He realized that no more would be given if he did ask, was volunteered. There is a morgue not far from the "I've got a little piece of work for No. 2. 17 acres all level creek bottom, onvent. In fact, there are several of you today," said Raymond. "You 24 miles from town, 1 mile from school be would not take to advance himself. around and help to identify it. You from town, 13 miles to school and This was the man who two days aft- understand? Put in a word here and church. Price $30 per acre.

About two hours later the man re- acre on good terms. "Arrah, Mr. Raymond, how are you, turned. Raymond read in his features No. 5, 440 acres, 30 acres in grain and had taken. Raymond knew or felt that man? Sure, I'm glad to see you. And the success of the ruse. He drew a grass, 2 houses, 3,000 rails just made, emissary to sit down and asked: "What news?" ries, any amount of fish and game, all deeded land. Price $5 per acre, cash be satisfactory. He arose and walked "Fine. The divil a' many are both- ment evoked. "The morgue keeper down $800, balance on 5 or 6 years time; back and forth across the reception erin me these times. People are get- identified him, as did all the boys. The will sell part of this tract if wanted; a room, just as he had paced the office of tin to think more of his every day in face was badly battered. The Bugle man has range enough for 1,000 head of reporter also recognized the body and cattle, fine grass; or I will rent the place him, but no trace of him could be found. the past few days and is likely to be fore when he took the first step in the registrar of arrears some days bethe past few days and is likely to be fore when he took the first step in the registrar of arrears some days bethe past few days and is likely to be fore when he took the first step in the registrar of arrears some days bethe past few days and is likely to be fore when he took the first step in the several days, and that there was a let- nished; the renter can work out all going to hold a meeting and arrange mission that will incarcerate him in the ter. The young woman looked at it for the funeral. They say there must

ter from Denver in the office for him." "From Denver?"

"Do you know where the Convent of the same with me, and I will sell them.

"Go there, represent yourself from The Trumpet, ask for Mother St. Ger-She obeyed. Her face told of the corrugated, his fists clinched as a man's women would have given him a dacent alone has in a special dispatch from Worcester. Remember, one of The Trumpet's men had learned that he came certained that he was a defaulter. Say row, and that it is too bad he should die "Did you know Laurence Mangan?" with the stain upon him, and that you believe it to be undeserved."

'What then?" "Lead the conversation around to me. Mother St. Gertrude will get excited and ask how the publication can be prevented. Hint that I own most She will want to meet me. Volunteer to bring the message.

"I will do as you say." "Mind," was Raymond's warning, "this is not for the office. There is no story in it. This is between you and No sconer had the man departed than Raymond communicated by telephone with one of the coroners and summoned him. The coroner came. He felt honored at the attention of his leader. "Anything up?" he asked as he entered and reached forward his hand to Raymond. "There is. I want you to go over to The Bugle office, and under the magisterial authority with which you are clothed demand a letter that is there for Mangan.

"Yes. You know I had no love for

"What am I to understand, Mother with a forced attempt to smile. "I feel discovered on a high bluff on the a little ill, and the outside air is better | Clackamas river. The coal is clean, burns well, and gives good heat.

"Is she coming back?" he asked, her morgue keeper when they reached the EXECUTOR'S NOTICE TO CREDrount court has fixed the sday, the 8th day of May, 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., as the lime for final hearing of the same. MARY WALLING, Administratrix Estate of J. R. Walling, deceased, IRVINE & COSHOW, Att'ys for Adm'rx.

COPYRIGHTS. CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a ouses, with plans, combing builders to show the itest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., New York, 361 Broadway.

BEST & CHEAPEST LAND

No. 1. 20 acres, all level river bottom and that he might incur displeasure if | land; 10 acres in cultivation, 10 in ash timber, well fenced and watered, two he pressed for more information than miles from town, price $35 per acre. This is fine hop, onion or garden land.

and profit was an ineradicable feature of his character, and there was no risk gan, don't you?—and I want you to be No. 3. 19 acres bottom land, 15 acres in cultivation, 4 acres ash timber, 3 miles high, lots of strawberries and blackberthe rent; none but good workers need apply. No. 6. A good new house, well fin-"Well, go on." ished in every respect, 7 rooms, living water running into the house, out buildings all new and in good shape, 61/2 acres of land, fine for fruit; this property is in the city of Sheridan. Price $1,200.

Parties having farm land for sale, list

Land bought and sold for non-residents All letters promptly answered. C. O. BURGESS, Real Estate Agent,

Those who have a Digestion > a delicate flavor in their pastry.

when used as a shortening, always produces the finest flavored pastry, which is entirely free from the many objections which the use of lard always produces. Test its value by one trial. Refuse all substitutes.

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., ST. LOUIS and CHICAGO, NEW YORK, BOSTON

have little sympathy for the dyspeptic. They can eat everything that comes along. While they can eat rich food without fear of the dyspeptic's bad experi-ences, they nevertheless greatly appreciate