YAMHILL COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

By order of the Republican County Central Committee a Republican County Convention will be held at the Court House in McMinnville, Or.,

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12TH, 1894.

at 10:30 a. m. to nominate one State Senator, one County Clerk, one County Judge, one County Commissioner, one County Treasurer, one County Assessor, one County Surveyor, one County Superintendent, one County Coroner and one Justice of the Peace and Constable for each of the Justices of the Peace and Constables Districts in Yamhill County.

The Convention will consist of 149 delegates apportioned as follows: Amity 10, North Newberg 10, Baker Creek 10, North Newberg 10, Bellevue 10, South Newberg 10, Cannonville 10, South Newberg 10, Chebecowen 10, South Newberg 10, Dayton 10, South Newberg 10, Fairview 10, West Chehalum 10, Lafayette 10, West Chehalum 10.

The Committee recommends that the primary be held in the several precincts at 10:30 a. m. on Saturday, April 21st, 1894, and that each precinct elect a precinct committee to act as such on the 22nd day.

The nearest thing republicans have had to put up for many a day, was the remark of Senator Hill the other day that the humiliation of our government in the Hawaiian affair was due to the fact that the head of the state department was a republican.

The congressional convention at Salem Monday was a very plain and uninteresting affair. The delegates met and renominated Binger Hermann, just as their constituents expected them to do, adjourned and went home about their business.

We are not disposed to credit the democracy in this state with being as dead as it pretends to be. It is merely playing possum, hoping thereby to beguile the republicans into the error of putting up weak local tickets.

The nominations by the republican state convention, so far as received up to the time of going to press are as follows: For governor, W. P. Lord, of Marion county, for secretary of state, H. R. Kincaid, of Lane county, for state treasurer, Phil Metschan, of Grant county, for supreme judge, C. E. Wolverson, of Lane county, for attorney-general, C. M. Idlemas, of Multnomah county, for superintendent of public instruction, G. M. Irwin, of Union.

REPUBLICANS OF Oregon have reason to rejoice over the good work of the state convention in selecting a standard bearer for the head of the ticket. There were several excellent men aspiring for the place, each with his following of admirers, but the need of the hour which the convention recognized was a man above the reach of partisan and personal influences.

A committee on credentials was chosen as follows: A. R. Burbank, Wm. Clemens, J. B. David, H. W. Lamson, Lee Laughlin, G. M. Allen.

The committee on credentials reported the following persons entitled to seats: Amity—E. C. Hadaway, Wm. Thurman, A. M. Waddell, Wm. Harrison, John Watt, Thos. White, James Ladd, T. B. Henderson, R. Mulligan, G. M. Allen.

North McMinnville—A. J. Apperson, J. W. Hobbs, O. H. Irvine, M. Underwood, W. L. Warren, Jacob Wertman, J. W. Cowie, C. R. Cook.

South McMinnville—J. E. Magers, J. C. Cooper, T. B. Kay, N. E. Keeg, W. H. Durham, Jos. Hoberg, Wm. Christian, F. H. Barnhart, O. O. Hodson, R. S. Allen.

Fairview—S. C. Pearson, John F. Derby, D. O. Durham, G. W. Jones, C. W. Holman, E. Ladd.

Baker Creek—D. Stout, Will West, O. J. Leabo, John Venable, C. D. Johnson, J. A. Buchanan, James McCain, F. M. York.

Lafayette—P. P. Gates, A. R. Burbank, John Hubbard, Chas. Hubbard, L. C. Washburn, L. J. Vickery, M. Redding, R. P. Bird, Thad H. Dupuy.

vancement and conservation of our industrial interests, for assurance of labor of steady employment and adequate wages for promotion and maintenance of prosperity, local and general. We point to the past and to the contrast furnished by the present, in support of this claim; and we censure and condemn the democratic tariff program, as developed in congress, as highly injurious to the productive and industrial interests of the country, and in particular as hurtful to those of our own state.

We reaffirm the doctrines of the republican party in relation to money, as stated in its national platform of 1892, particularly as follows, to-wit: "The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetallicism, and the republican party demands the uses of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation."

The following gentlemen in the order named, in due process of time, rose to the majority line and were duly declared elected delegates to the state convention: J. B. David, of Newberg; Lee Laughlin, of North Yamhill; P. P. Gates, of Lafayette; J. E. Magers, of McMinnville; Amos Nelson, of West Chehalum; H. W. Lamson, of Willamina; H. L. Hewitt, of Wheatland; H. G. Guild, of Sheridan; Wm. Clemens, of Dayton; J. W. Cowie, of McMinnville; John Watt, of Amity.

The following resolution was referred to the next convention: Resolved, That after the present year we favor the calling of but one convention for election of delegates to the state convention and for the nomination of county officers.

DEFEAT ACKNOWLEDGED. Convention Day for the Democrats. The outlook was not hopeful. The title of "the interdicted" was probably originally conferred upon the democrats because of the evident enjoyment and courage they are able to muster with each recurring campaign in the face of glaring defeat.

The title of "the interdicted" was probably originally conferred upon the democrats because of the evident enjoyment and courage they are able to muster with each recurring campaign in the face of glaring defeat. A strong effort was made on Saturday to have a good and hopeful time, but a close observer could see feigning, dissent and trepidation through the thin veiling and selected J. L. Ferguson chairman.

The republican party in relation to internal improvements, and in particular in opening our waterways to commerce, and we denounce the illiberality of the democratic party in these important matters. Experience in our fisheries has shown that to prevent wholesale destruction of fish, all fish-traps, fish-works, and fish-seines, and all other gear now in use except the gill net, should be abolished.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM. Adopted by the State Convention. The committee on platform reported the following platform which, on motion of Rufus Mallory, was unanimously adopted.

The representatives of the republicans of the state of Oregon, in convention assembled, call attention to conditions of industry and business throughout the country as proof of the necessity of returning to the policy of the republican party under which there was general prosperity during thirty years.

We reaffirm the principles of the republican national platform of 1892, and assert that the results that have followed the change decreed by the election of that year have justified our protest against the national policy announced by the democratic party.

man, D. B. Klingery, M. Mulkey, I. N. Branson. Sheridan—H. T. Graves, S. Potter, John Boney, H. H. Graves, J. O. Brown, E. Taylor, W. T. Smith, H. G. Guild, S. R. Boell, — Winslow.

Carlton—D. W. Laughlin, W. A. Howe, J. Winneberg, Wm. Merchant, J. W. Shelton, J. W. Ridd, E. Wiser. On motion of A. R. Burbank the chair appointed O. O. Hodson, E. H. Woodward, John Watt and — tellers.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the republican party proceed to elect delegates to the state convention by ballot, and that a majority of all votes cast be required to elect. Carried.

The following gentlemen in the order named, in due process of time, rose to the majority line and were duly declared elected delegates to the state convention: J. B. David, of Newberg; Lee Laughlin, of North Yamhill; P. P. Gates, of Lafayette; J. E. Magers, of McMinnville; Amos Nelson, of West Chehalum; H. W. Lamson, of Willamina; H. L. Hewitt, of Wheatland; H. G. Guild, of Sheridan; Wm. Clemens, of Dayton; J. W. Cowie, of McMinnville; John Watt, of Amity.

A motion to suspend the rules and elect eleven delegates to the congressional convention by acclamation prevailed, and E. H. Woodward, J. W. Hobbs, Henry Hewitt, M. Underwood, T. B. Kay, Wm. Hamilton, Wm. Merchant, E. C. Hadaway, Geo. Branson, J. C. Cooper, and T. N. Graves, were selected as said delegates.

The following resolution, offered by A. J. Apperson was unanimously adopted: Fully recognizing and appreciating the valuable and efficient services rendered our state by the entire delegation in congress and believing it to be the best interests of the entire state that they should be continued in office; therefore be it Resolved, That our delegates to congressional district congress are hereby instructed to vote for and use all honest means to secure the re-nomination of the Hon. Binger Hermann.

Ramsey; Chebecowen, John Johnson; South Sheridan, J. R. Mendenhall; North Sheridan, W. T. Raleigh; Willamette, W. H. Wood; Carlton, C. E. Johnson; Amity, Chas. H. Burch, Jr.; Lafayette, J. L. Ferguson; East Dayton, R. N. Snell; West Dayton, Henry Bertram; South McMinnville, E. Wright; North McMinnville, J. D. Baker; Fairview, T. J. Rowland; Baker Creek, H. Gee; West Chehalum, W. H. Eitelwiler; Bellevue, C. L. Stow.

Some brief resolutions were adopted, embodying a demand for equitable assessment and at cash value, denouncing republicans for lavish expenditure, and demanding the abolition of the railroad commission.

The real fun of the day occurred when the business of electing a state central committee came up. All democratic conventions have a "menagerie" attachment, and on this occasion it was understood that the "menagerie" had H. L. Heath slated for this important place. It was Baker's opportunity, and he disturbed their plans by placing in nomination O. P. Coshov. Thereupon Gray, who seemed to be the light and inspiration of the proceedings throughout, rose to the chair.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction.

ALL FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL. The New Cape She Wanted Had Nothing to Do With the Case. "It was just this way," said the girl with the red gloves, "Jim and Jen came over to the house that night, and then Maud dropped in, and so did Charley and Will. We began to play cards, and after awhile all went and, and we just naturally drifted into poker."

Populists in Convention. The populist convention for the nomination of a county ticket met at the court house on Wednesday at 10 o'clock. Organization was effected by making B. S. Clark temporary chairman and F. H. Taylor temporary secretary.

The report of the committee on organization brought to feet E. Sanders, of McMinnville. He said now was the time to whip the G. O. P. and the way to do it was to unite the opposition forces. He moved therefore that in adopting the order of business the office of county judge and school superintendent be left blank for the democrats to fill in.

There is a race of people in Hawkins county, Tenn., whose origin is a mystery, said G. O. Rabbit to the editor of the Laclede. "They are called the Melungeons and are found no place else. They have been traced back to North Carolina, but further than that nothing is known. They are not Indians, they are not negroes, they are certainly not of any known race of white people. But few of them can speak the English language, although they have lived here for over a century, and the language they do speak is an unknown one to the most accomplished linguist."

She Has a Glass Carriage. An Austrian lady, with a weakness for that ending army maneuvers, has built herself a glass carriage, so that she may observe parades, marches past and other military functions in any sort of weather. Every part of the vehicle is made of glass, with the exception of the upholstery, the springs and the tires.—Philadelphia Press.

county superintendent $800; treasurer $600; judge $750; commissioners $3 per day and 4 cents mileage. The convention reduced the salaries of sheriff and clerk to $1000 each.

The work of nominating a county ticket resulted as follows: For state senator, W. R. Derby, of Lafayette, representatives, M. E. Johnson, of West Chehalum, and M. Chapin, of Bellevue; county judge, B. B. Branson, of Sheridan; clerk, B. S. Clark, of McMinnville; recorder, L. L. Hewitt, of Wheatland; county commissioner, J. C. McCrea, of Newberg; treasurer, C. Benedict, of Lafayette; assessor, J. W. Wheeler, of West Chehalum; school superintendent, J. T. Patterson, of Carlton; surveyor, T. A. Lashier, of Whiteson; sheriff, F. L. Van Orsdel, of North Yamhill; coroner, Wm. Busbee, of North Yamhill.

Some of the work of the convention had the appearance of utter guilelessness; other portions of it carried on the face the evidence of deeply laid plans and careful manipulation. There is not much doubt that the nomination for state senator was the fulfillment of a slate made up outside of Yamhill county. His election would mean a vote for Sylvester Pennoyer for U. S. senator.

Mr. Derby was elected to the legislature in 1888, was defeated for re-nomination in 1890 and again in 1892, and as a result has lost confidence in the republican party.

Kitchen refuse in Berlin is carted to factories, dried, ground and pressed into bricks for fuel. A novel way, surely, of solving the sanitary question, and one that contains a valuable suggestion for some of our American cities, where such mountains of garbage fester in public places.

NEWS OF THE WEEK. The salmon season opened on the 9th. C. E. Moore, Kentucky's infidel editor of the Blue Grass Blade at Lexington, is in jail for blasphemy.

The democratic ticket was defeated by large majorities in the city elections of New York and New Jersey on the 10th. The 64th annual conference of the church of Jesus of Latter Day Saints convened in the tabernacle at Salt Lake City on the 6th.

The elections for local officers occurred in a number of interior towns throughout California on the 9th. Where party lines were drawn the republicans appear to have been successful in a majority of instances.

At Wheeling, W. Va., Mrs. Margaret Moore, the woman recently indicted for obtaining a fraudulent pension of $2,000, was convicted and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and to pay a $1,000 fine. An extensive exodus of Mormons from the rural districts of Utah to the land grant secured in Chihuahua, Mexico, is expected the coming summer. Leaders of the movement say 20,000 persons will leave the territory.

The state school fund commissioners of Kansas, comprising the attorney general, secretary of state and superintendent of public instruction, have invested $27,000 of the school fund in Kearney and Hamilton county bonds, held by eastern parties, and repudiated by those counties. These officers are all populists.
