

LOCAL NEWS.

Hot peanuts every day at Kuns' bakery. Sheriff Henderson's family are in camp at Jones' mill. The professional card of Dr. Vial appears in this paper this week. Editor Barnhart and family have gone to Jones' mill. Mr. Shortall of Tacoma, is the guest of A. A. Urub. Miss Marie Waldrip of Seattle is visiting her cousin Mrs. James Henry. Miss Bergita Nelson has been at Meadow lake for a week, and will return to-day. This office prints hop tickets on short notice and in the best of style. All kinds of job work neatly and cheaply done. A. J. Baker is laying cement walks about his residence. This is about the prettiest and most durable walk there is. If you really want fine photos with proper lighting go to Hogg, he is not turning out low grade trash. There will be no preaching at the C. P. church, Sunday, the pastor Rev. Thompson being absent from the city. Attorney O. P. Coslow joined his family at Meadow lake Saturday, and is busy this week rustling wood and blackberries. James McCain and family returned from the coast Tuesday. They have been over there three weeks and say they never had a better time. Col. Eugene Buchanan of Moscow, Idaho, has been in the city this week as general agent of the Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago. The Silverton ball boys have downed the home team. Sunday's game at Gervais was 14 to 9. The home club will play St. Paul on the Gervais grounds on the 19th. Rev. Smith, pastor of the Christian church at Walla, Walla, visited Mrs. Denton, his sister, this week. His church is a prosperous one, and has a membership of 225. The hunters complain that birds are unusually scarce this year, and that the young birds are too small to shoot. All admit that the closed season should continue through August. This is the time of year when your will barrel needs to be emptied often. If you will notify T. W. Lambert he will call at your place three times a week and carry away the will. Mrs. L. A. Heston of Newberg was adjudged insane Wednesday and taken to the asylum. She is a young woman, and pregnancy is given as the cause of her unbalanced mind. It is the testimony of most people that Will Kuns makes the best ice cream in town. He is also an artist on soda water. Choicest confectionery and fruits always on hand in season. The latest new thing at Wallace & Walker's is their computing scales just arrived, that perform a variety of tricks in mathematics and save a great deal of mental wear and tear if not time and labor. The Lafayette Ledger has been revised under the editorship of Mr. Dupuy, the former editor, and Mr. Ponnay, formerly of the Dayton News. These gentlemen should make a strong team. The paper is still sold for A. P. A. To EXCHANGE.—Some desirable and improved Portland property to exchange for farming lands in Yamhill or Washington counties. Address, Paul A. Ozanne, box 719, Portland, Oregon, or Rhodes & Rhodes, McMinnville. Dr. H. H. Hodson and F. W. Fenon and families went to Newport Saturday. These gentlemen carry the reputation, acquired in past years, of being the best fishermen who regularly visit that resort, hence we may expect some phenomenal records. Word comes from the Trask river that on the 6th inst. Ed Hendricks killed a stupendous panther. The gigantic proportions of the animal could only be compared to the transcendent courage which Ed displayed in its capture. Dr. Calbreath and Mrs. Frank Rogers brought the dead panther into camp. Travelers must not forget that the O. E. & N. line is thoroughly repaired and all trains are running without transfer or delay. Through service to Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago; Pullman sleepers, free reclining chair cars, upholstered tourist sleepers and modern day coaches. Call on O. E. & N. agent before purchasing tickets, or address W. H. Hurlbut, general passenger agent, Portland, Or. S. Cooper, eldest son of Col. J. C. Cooper, left Saturday for what will probably be a tour of a good part of the world before his return. He thrives best in a cool dry climate, and this he will search for. He embarked the first of the week for San Francisco, in company with Dr. Frank Cross, who has been in Portland since leaving here, and we are as likely to hear of his turning up in Mashonaland as in Honolulu. We wish the boys abundant success. Messrs. Doe, Purcell and others returned to work on the Nestucca road Sunday. On the way they encountered two large black bears. Purcell came suddenly face to face with the first one, and was required to bring his pistol into active play. He is said to have captured every barrel and one of the men came to the rescue with a couple of shots from a rifle, and yet old Bruin escaped. The bears are thick in this vicinity and are said to be attracted by a good crop of blackberries, for which they have a great relish. "Please send me a sample copy of your paper; I am thinking of locating some where near your town." is a frequent communication received at this office. People are turning in this direction for homes and for the investment of capital. These inquiries and their responses must ultimately result in bearing fruit. Is your business represented in the paper? If so, intending settlers will have something of an acquaintance with you before they arrive. The man who keeps his name and business constantly before the public frequently becomes a household word.

Go to Dr. G. S. Wright for fine dental work. Mrs. Harry Watkins is visiting in the city. Mr. Seiler's family have gone to the coast. George W. Jones' family have gone up to the mill. Mrs. J. A. Buchanan is visiting friends in Portland. Rev. Thompson and family went up to Jones' mill Monday. R. Jacobson and family returned from Newport Wednesday. Miss Nellie Hembree of Monmouth is the guest of Mrs. B. E. Coulter. C. E. Lovv left for Albany Tuesday, and will go from there to Pocatello. Judge Galloway was looking after the state fair business at Salem this week. A three-week-old child of H. H. Campbell of Whiteoak died last Friday. Mrs. L. C. Lawrence is very ill with heart trouble. Her death is daily expected. Thomas Coates, deputy clerk of Tillamook county, was in the city the first of the week. Miss Bena Snelling of The Dalles is visiting a couple of weeks with her mother in this city. Mrs. William Christian returned Wednesday from her visit to relatives at Mountain City, Tenn. Station Agent Wilcox is somewhat disgraced this week by a large bill, which has landed on his upper lip. Prof. J. A. Buchanan is conducting Charles Grison's business during the absence of the latter at Camp Jones. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Manning returned from Netarts Wednesday. Of course they failed not to have a splendid time. Mr. Butler, living on the college side, was made happy on the 24 inst. by the arrival of an eleven-pound boy at his home. Miss Ella Nickel of Detroit, Mich., surprised her sister, Mrs. H. H. Case, by dropping in unannounced Saturday evening. C. H. Fleming returned from the lake Wednesday. His family remained. Charley is looking much better for his outing. Hon. Wm. Savage and family are at their farm near Willamina, where they will spend two or three weeks camping and rusticing.—Dallas Transcript. You can do no better, even this early, than to buy your husband or wife a Standard dictionary of S. Haworth, and have him deliver it for a Christmas present. George Dorsey of Dayton Sunday was kicked on the left leg by a steer Prairie and the result was it was broken. Dr. Vial rendered the necessary medical assistance. Grand Chancellor Waddle was in the city Tuesday, looking up the chances of organizing a K. of P. lodge here. A list of about thirty excellent young men has already been obtained. William Barton, 60 years of age, fell from a load of cordwood at Newberg on Sunday, and the wheels of the wagon passed over both legs. No bones were broken, but his legs were badly bruised. Judge Bellinger has decided that the allotment of lands in severity to the Indians gave them a standing as United States citizens and that selling liquor to such is not punishable under the statutes. Hop-pickers will file a kick on wages in this county unless they get $1 per hundred pounds. Pickers in Washington will get 20 cents more than this. Verily, this is a year of strikes, local and general. The ladies of the Christian church will serve ice cream and cake Wednesday, August 13, in C. A. Wallace's building on Third street, east of Grison's book store. Hours from 2 until 10 p. m. Cream 10 cents a dish. All are invited. A fire broke out above Jones' mill Friday, from the burning of some rubbish. It spread very rapidly, jumped clear over the mill and caused considerable anxiety among the numerous campers. Mrs. Grison's tent was slightly burnt. Campers at Meadow lake went over and assisted in getting the fire under control. Herr Amold, the violinist, and his party, entertained a decidedly small but appreciative audience Saturday night. They did their part as cheerfully as if the house had been crowded. The sinu house is easily explained on the score of so many people being out of town together with a painful scarcity of ball dollars among those at home. Rummel & Pennington started their theater Tuesday morning. Elsie Wright began the next day on Charles Kuns' grain. Some new wheat has been received at the warehouse and is up to the standard in quality, but no yields have yet been reported. At this writing there is no fixed market price for the new wheat. It will probably start in above 40 cents. Mr. A. H. Page of West Chehalis has bought the insurance business of Rhodes & Rhodes. He is a young man with a good capacity for business, and is not without experience in the work of insurance, having been thus employed at one time in the city of Portland. He will occupy the present quarters of Rhodes & Rhodes, and will bring his family to town about October 1st. DROWNED IN SLAB CREEK.—The body of a man named Shirley was brought to town early yesterday morning to be embalmed for shipment east. He was drowned the day previous at the mouth of Slab creek, while attempting to cross on an incoming tide. Another man was in the buggy and as they entered the stream, someone on the bank warned them not to go over. Attempting to face about in mid-stream the buggy was capsize. Strange to say, the man who was drowned could swim, while the other couldn't. Shirley got tangled in a net, and even after he had hold of a rope thrown to him, he let go for some unaccountable reason, supposed to have been stepping off into deep water. His companion was saved by making a float of the buggy cushion. Shirley was 23 years old and was accompanied by a wife and child. Their home was 12 miles above Portland. The drowned man's relatives live at Cincinnati, Ohio, to which point the body will be forwarded.

VENISON IN CAMP. A Deer Hunt, A Broken Leg, and a Rescuing Party. The straying of Am. Shadden up to Meadow lake last Friday was a suggestion to such Nimrods as himself, Baz. Hibbs, Chas. Fleming, Wm. Poole, Wm. Abbott and a Sherwood citizen, who were already there, that a deer hunt was an experience so seldom indulged as to prove an event of great pleasure. In fact, Am fairly scented deer in the mountains that night. He believed that McKay (pronounced McKee's) creek canyon, where it empties into the Neastucca river, was the favorite resort of the cervine family. Accordingly they were up and off with Saturday morning's sun, accompanied by as many or more dogs, skilled and unskilled in the chase. Only by experience can the difficulties of a five-mile climb and clamber over mountains and fallen logs and through underbrush in search of an old Indian trail, hidden by the vegetation growth of years and the falling of dead trees of many winters, or even the extent of the wilderness embraced in the Coast range to the west of us, be either appreciated or estimated. Its effect upon the physical man is as trying as an ascent of Mount Hood. The trip was accomplished, however, and but little time intervened before the dogs had scoured up a nimble-footed hart, panting for the water hole. It fell to the lot of the Sherwood man's trusty rifle to indicate the fatal shot. This was exciting and pleasurable, but matters took a different turn when Billy Poole, to let himself down from a huge log with grace and ease, reached for some overhanging branches, which proved sapless and brittle, and losing his hold, jumped upon a rock, slipped and fell with a broken and dislocated ankle. Now was demanded for a surgeon. Charley Fleming had stuffed his birds, and although not exactly in his line, a broken leg 25 miles from a physician couldn't go without some attention. He tackled it, whitened splints and the limb and wound the bandages, and the job afterward proved to be a mighty good one for a novice. The fortune of remaining contentedly over night in such a place with a broken leg is possessed by few men, but Billy Poole has grit for any emergency, and unexampled nerve for endurance. It would soon grow dark. The task of returning for a rescuing party was undertaken by Hibbs and Fleming, who, with the deer upon their backs in turn, marched into camp at 10 p. m., traveling most of the doubtful way in pitch darkness, occasionally losing the way, and regaining it by striking matches. Fred Ramsey was dispatched on horseback for the doctor at once. Meadow lake campers had a fine breakfast of venison the next morning, but ate it with a mental reserve of sorrow for being the price of a broken leg for one of their number. Most of Sunday was occupied in going to the rescue. The party was composed of Messrs. Hibbs, Chas. Holman, E. C. Walker, Fleming, Harry Sharp, P. D. Glenn, O. P. Coslow, McKinnon and Eckman. The patient was found in good spirits, and the only thing prevented from a restful night by the constant snoring of the biggest hunter in the party. The return trip was made with Mr. Poole upon horseback, and was another test of nerve. Dr. Goucher was in waiting and retouched the limb. The well-blazed trail across the mountains has been named "Poole's trail," and the canyon where the eventful night was spent is no longer known as McKay but "Cripple" canyon.

FRUIT MARKETING AT NEWBERG. Fruit Marketing Rules Adopted. The directors elected in accordance with the rules adopted by the horticultural association, met at Newberg, August 4th. J. H. Reese was chosen chairman in the absence of C. E. Hoskins, ex-officio president. J. C. Cooper was chosen secretary. The directors reported on are as follows: J. H. Reese, J. C. Cooper, B. C. Miles, Wm. Galloway, E. E. Goucher, A. B. Mills, G. S. Wright, J. S. Larkin, Ed. Harrison, George Gibson. The total number of acres of fruit trees reported to date is as follows: Dundee 757 Newberg 724 McMinnville 570 Sheridan 420 North Yamhill 141 Whitson 102 Dayton 88 Total 2,797 Cooperative rules were then taken up. The following were adopted by sections: No. 1.—The county board of directors, elected in accordance with rule 2 of the cooperative rules of the Y. C. H. A. hereby adopt the following rules for marketing fruit: RULE 1.—The local board at each shipping point shall have full control of the local agent, and define his duties and compensation, also procure and control the buildings and machinery necessary to meet the demands of the fruit business. RULE 2.—The directors shall cooperate with each other, and when necessary, through the county agent, in marketing fruit, and all business shall be conducted with economy and dispatch. RULE 3.—Local boards shall furnish boxes, cartage, packing, freight, etc., at actual cost to members, and return to them at the close of the season all commissions charged over and above said actual cost. RULE 4.—Local boards may arrange to issue negotiable warehouse receipts for fruit left on storage. RULE 5.—Necessary machinery for grading, drying, packing and handling fruit may be purchased by local boards, as soon as the business will justify charging a reasonable commission on the fruit to pay for the same. RULE 6.—Local boards may transact a part of their business through an executive committee of not less than three of their number. RULE 7.—The county manager shall keep an account of the orchards of all members, and the marketable product of the same. He shall keep local agents posted on the markets and furnish them without delay such other useful information as may come to his knowledge. He shall assist the different local agents in procuring cars, making up and dispatching carloads of fruit. On motion J. C. Cooper was elected county agent and manager of the union. It was suggested that local boards proceed to organize and elect local agents where necessary. Adjourned to meet at the call of the president. BRACE THE NERVES. Relatives and opiates won't do it. These nerves do not make the nerves strong, and failing to do this fall short of producing the essential of their quietude, vigor. And while in extreme cases, and these only—of nervous irritation such drugs may be advisable, their frequent use is highly prejudicial to the delicate organism upon which they act, and in order to renew their quieting effect become necessary. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an efficient substitute for such pernicous drugs. It quiets the nerves by bracing, testing, strengthening them. The connection between weakness of the nervous system and that of the organs of digestion is a strong and sympathetic link. The Bitters, by imparting healthful impulse to digestive and assimilating functions, promotes throughout the whole system a vigor in which the nerves come in for a large share. Use the Bitters in malaria, constipation bilious and kidney trouble. To Printers. The cylinder press upon which the REORDER is now printed is offered for sale. It will be sold at a bargain. LOST. July 28th, somewhere on the road between McMinnville and Lebanon, an account book. The name of L. E. Coyle appears on the fly leaf of the book. A suitable reward will be given for the return of same to this office. 32-2 PROBATE COURT. Annual account of Mary and Floyd Garrison, minors, approved. Will of Daniel Johnson admitted to probate. Elsie Johnson appointed executrix without bond. R. F. Bird, P. P. Gates and J. L. Ferguson appointed appraisers. LICENSES TO MARRY. August 8th, to Annette Turner, aged 16, and J. E. Crandall, aged 26, both of North Yamhill. August 8th, to Sadio Haeb, aged 20, and Dan Dougherty, aged 31, both of Willamina. August 7th, to Mary Bryan, aged 17, and R. L. Duncan, aged 22, both of Newberg. CHOPPED HIS FOOT.—G. A. Cratty, of Portland, a member of the government corps surveying a township in Tillamook county, severely gashed his foot on an ax while chopping from a log on Monday. He was brought over to McMinnville, Wednesday, given the proper medical attention, and sent to his home in Portland. ABOUT TWENTY teachers are taking the examination now in progress at the court house. They are all ladies but three. The Oregonian rather gave the questions away in advance by publishing them on Thursday. They're a horrid lot of questions, anyway, and the poor teacher needs some help these sweltering days. THE little girl who swallowed the hat pin at Salem is still suffering, and is in a precarious condition. There is no active digestion going on and she is slowly wasting away. The pin was 5 1/2 inches long. The doctors think she cannot recover.

CROP-WEATHER BULLETIN. Of the Oregon State Weather Service, For the Week Ending Monday, Aug. 6th, 1894. WESTERN OREGON. The weather was decidedly warm during most of the week in the interior. In the coast counties it continued cool. The temperature averaged three degrees cooler than the normal in the coast sections, where also some light showers occurred at the end of the week. In the interior no precipitation occurred and the temperature was normal. There was an average of sunshine. The harvest of fall-sown grain is practically completed in the Willamette valley and in the southern counties, but continues in the coast counties. Some oats have also been cut. The weather was most favorable for the harvest, being decidedly warm. The warm weather, while favorable for harvest and the maturing of grain, gave a check to the growth of vegetables, with the exception of the potato crop which still continues to look well, giving a promise of excellent yields. Threshing has commenced in some sections; more has been done in this county than in any other section. Lanes county crop, though general about the latter part of the present week. Some spring grain has been cut. The crop of spring grain is generally considered superior to last year's crop, while the speculation as to yield and quality of fall-sown grain continues unabated with much difference of opinion. Some seem to notice that the grain has shriveled while others contend that no perceptible damage has resulted. From the grain already threshed the yields have been satisfactory. There is some rust in the spring grain crop, though not of a serious nature. Hops are making good progress and a large crop is now assured. In Polk county many hop lice have been observed, making it necessary to spray the yards the second time. Small fruits are abundant. All crops are making fair progress and the product will be large; but in the language of a Yamhill county correspondent, "farmers are doing their work with their hearts in their throat, since they do not anticipate suitable remuneration." A large hay crop has been secured, the condition of which is excellent since the weather was the best for curing. In a few instances some hay near the coast was damaged slightly by showers. OF INTEREST TO MOTHERS. The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnston, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be overpraised and cheerfully recommend it. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by S. Howarth & Co. ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Walter McCune, city marshal of Sheridan, was arrested on the above charge Monday, on complaint of Frank Frazier, formerly stage driver between this city and Sheridan. It seems our sister town has a law taxing dogs, and if the dog cannot be found and killed, his owner can be arrested and fined. It was in the performance of this duty that March 22, McCune made the alleged assault, which from reports consisted in hanging on to Frazier until the sleeves of his shirt were torn off. The case will have a hearing tomorrow, at 10 a. m. before Justice Rhodes, and is likely to prove an interesting one. McCune is at liberty on his own recognizance. WELL KNOWN IN TEXAS. Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by S. Howarth & Co. JOHN BAIN, whose parents live in this city, was shot on July 28th, near Scappoose, in the wilds of Columbia county, while resisting a constable's posse, who went to arrest him for alleged theft. He was about 40 years of age, and was well known all along the Willamette and lower Columbia rivers. His parents are highly respected and a number of his relatives are prominent persons, but Bain is said to have always been a black sheep, and has long been considered in that country as a dangerous man. Firing on both sides opened before proof of the man's guilt was established, but missing articles were afterwards found in his cabin. Otto Walling has changed the name of the St. Charles hotel to "Hotel Eureka." Are we to conclude this means it has been found? S. HAWORTH, Publishers' Agent Newberg, Oregon.
