His death was caused by pneumonia, being taken severely ill just a week before his demise. A wife and three children of his family are left. Fortunately for them, he had a short time ago insured his life in the New York company for $1,000, and two weeks ago he had associated himself with the Workmen order, thereby securing an insurance of $2,000. The former amount was made payable to the widow, the latter to the children. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church on Monday, under the auspices of the Workmen, of which order 62 members were in line. Rev. Hunsaker delivered an able funeral discourse.
