Kentucky is short of water. But no state of the Union worries as little over that as Kentucky. It is the short crop of democrats that scares her bosses.

It is impossible not to admire the courage of David B. Hill, who sees "going but harmony and victory ahead" for the democratic party.

The Inter-Ocean isn't about itself because for free coinage any more. It now remarks that just so certain as there is a republican party, "protection" in its full meaning will be the leading issue.

We hope the last city caucus, as a means of forestalling a free and fair vote at the elections, has been held in McMinnville. Let the party lines be drawn hereafter and let each party caucus if it wants to, with the view to bringing out the best ticket possible, then let the people take their choice.

MR. CHRISTMAN should not and will not, we think, be elected mayor of the city. It is the generally accepted belief that his candidacy stands for return to open Sunday saloons and a hearty stand-in with the "boys."

SENATOR CHANDLER of New Hampshire, who is editor of the Concord Monitor, in a recent editorial under the caption "Our Coming War with England," says: "War between the United States and England is inevitable."

There are a good many reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Rogers Bros.

OUR WAR FOOTING.

There are people who believe we are on the eve of an inevitable conflict with Great Britain. While we do not fully share the apprehension and are not near as anxious to see it as Senator Chandler of New Hampshire, it is nevertheless interesting to compare notes and see how we would stand at the present time on a moral footing compared to other nations.

England has 29 battle-ships of the first class, 8 of the second class and 7 of the third class; 41 cruisers of the first class, 59 of the second class and 192 of the third class, with 17 port-defense vessels, including armored gunboats, etc., and 136 torpedo craft, making a total of 489 war vessels.

The Teachers Institute. The teachers meeting at Newberg Oregon Oct. 26, was called for by the Supt. at 9.45 A. M. After prayer by Pres. Savin of Pacific College, Mr. Snuffre of Aberdeen, gave an interesting talk on "Child Nature."

S. Howarth & Co., the druggists, will tell you that no one is better qualified to judge of the merits of an article than the dealer, because he bases his opinion on the experience of all who use it. For this reason they wish to publish the remarks of other dealers on an article which they handle.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Fred Morgan and family of Tacoma, have been visiting friends in this city for the past week.

The Salvation Army from McMinnville held a meeting on our streets Tuesday evening.

Clarence Laughlin went to Portland on business, last week returning Tuesday. He reports Dr. Haines as being better.

Two men west of town were arrested Tuesday evening for fighting on our streets, and were locked up over night.

Chas. N. Howard, hop buyer of McMinnville, was in our city this week sampling and buying hops.

Curt Goodrich went to Salem on his bicycle Friday and returned Sunday.

Attorney Douglas was in the county seat on legal business Monday.

Mrs. J. C. McKern has been in Salem for the last week, returning Tuesday.

This community is called to mourn the loss of one of its promising young men. Leynord Geldred died Saturday morning after a short illness.

The funeral services were held in the church in this city. Rev. J. A. Campbell of McMinnville preaching the funeral sermon. The services at the grave were conducted by the Woodmen of the World of which order he was a member.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as anything else. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better results; better try it. Rogers Bros.

WHITESON.

John Bennett went to Dallas Wednesday afternoon train.

Miss Belle Booth of Woods is stopping at E. Garrison's, and attending school.

A. H. Graham is building a substantial residence on his city lots.

W. H. Lashier made a flying trip to the metropolis Wednesday of last week.

Miss Bourke has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. Barrett for several days.

The Teachers Institute. The teachers meeting at Newberg Oregon Oct. 26, was called for by the Supt. at 9.45 A. M. After prayer by Pres. Savin of Pacific College, Mr. Snuffre of Aberdeen, gave an interesting talk on "Child Nature."

The afternoon session was opened by a paper on the "Study of Words," by Supt. Sullivan. This was followed by a lengthy discussion. Mr. Frank Deach illustrated his method of reducing fractions, and others offered a few suggestions. The question, "Shall teachers use the text book questions" was next discussed. The preponderance of opinion seemed to be against their use.

Dayton was chosen as the place for the next meeting, and after a vote of thanks to the people of Newberg for their hospitable treatment, the meeting was adjourned to meet at that place Nov. 16th. S. S. DUNCAN, Sec.

A letter from western New York, dated Oct. 25th, mentions a two-foot fall of snow. Here in Oregon, as we write, there has been no rain or snow, and no weather so cold but that the roses make a pretty fair stagger at gorgeous blooming.
