NO. 38.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

March 8, 1897. Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

Do Not Be Deceived.

Do not endanger the life of your child by accepting a cheap substitute which some druggist may offer you (because he makes a few more pennies on it), the ingredients of which even he does not know.

"The Kind You Have Always Bought" BEARS THE FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURE OF

Chas. H. Fletcher

Insist on Having The Kind That Never Failed You.

BURNS & DANIELS

Have an immense stock of furniture. They have to keep a big stock, because they have a large territory to supply. Prices on everything in our store are surprisingly cheap just now. If you want proof of this, come in and price the goods.

WALL PAPER. UNDERTAKER'S SUPPLIES.

A Little Cool Occasionally

And likely to get cooler. Do you need a Heater? We claim an excellent assortment of Stoves at most reasonable prices. Inspect them.

Plowing and Seeding Season is also here. Plows, Seeders and Cultivators get old and worn and do poor work, spoiling your temper and wasting your time. Our goods in this line are first-class, and it is a pleasure to use them.

Boiled Oil and Paints

we have put away down in price, to enable our patrons to make a cheerful-looking home for the winter as well as preserve their houses from the decay of rain, wind and sun.

DAYTON.

Hop picking is the order of the day. Mrs. Guy Carter is reported to be quite ill.

George Hatcher of Carlton was in town Monday.

Will Abdill now runs the engine at the white warehouse.

Miss Faye Swick returned from a visit in Portland on Tuesday.

Mr. Willie Glen is going to attend the state university this winter.

Miss Anna Herald returned to her home in Portland Monday.

Mr. Chas. Scott returned from British Columbia the first of the week.

Miss Gussie Crawford is going to attend school in Portland this winter.

J. M. Crosby, proprietor of the Dundee hotel, was in Dayton on Tuesday.

Miss Flora Livingston of Sheridan is now staying with Mrs. Dr. Courtney.

Miss Grace Woolworth and Dick Stevens were married in McMinnville last week.

John Bradley returned from eastern Oregon last week and is now picking hops.

Frank Huddleston is again in Dayton from Alesha, where he has been for almost a year.

A. P. Morse, Dayton's marshal, is visiting with Mr. Ed. Nichols at Philomath.

The steamer Elmore came to Dayton Sunday evening and went out Monday morning.

Bert Lowe is stopping with Wm. Hamilton and is going to attend school in Dayton this year.

The missionary meeting at the Baptist church last Sunday evening was in every sense a success.

Quite a number of Dayton people helped the ox out of the ditch by picking hops last Sunday.

The work of dredging the mouth of the Yamhill has been suspended on account of the river having risen.

A. Stoutenberg, a sturdy pioneer, died at his home near Wheatland on Monday and was buried on Tuesday.

Miss Lucinda DeForde of LaGrande is visiting with her many friends and her aunt Mrs. Conie DeForde.

Mr. Woolworth finished picking his hops on Wednesday and reports but very few damaged by the rain.

"Where is the man that cannot find employment? If there is such a man in Oregon let him come to Dayton and he will be sought from all quarters.

At the Demorest medal contest last Friday night the prize was awarded by judges A. P. Macy, Rev. Branch, and Rev. Sager, to Miss Mammie McCann.

The boiler at the red warehouse sprung a leak on Saturday and as a result the engine was not in operation on Monday and Tuesday while the boiler was being repaired.

Miss Nellie Findley, who has been visiting in Carlton for a few weeks, returned Sunday accompanied by her sisters, Jessie and Conie, who returned on Monday. Miss Jessie is a student of the state agricultural college.

Those who have noticed the orchards in this vicinity say that they never saw apples so highly colored as this year. The saying that "Oregon is the land of big red apples, where the clouds drop their fatness and crops never fail," is indeed true, as even the white Bellflowers have red cheeks.

A great deal of fruit is going to waste this year in this section on account of the dryers being occupied drying potatoes, carrots and onions for the Klondike trade. This reveals the fact that every farmer with sufficient orchard should own and operate his own dryer and not be dependent on men who make a business of drying. If there is money in drying for any one there is money in it for the farmer. It seems farmers have drifted too far away from the good old times when they did a great deal more for themselves than they do now, and when their wives and daughters lent a helping hand in such matters as drying fruit. A good dryer can now be built cheap and would pay for itself in a short time, and be a source of revenue to help that son and daughter go to college or to learn some useful accomplishment.

It Saves the Croupy Children.

SEAWAY, Va.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and our customers coming from far and near, speak of it in the highest terms. Many have said that their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given.—KELLMAN & OUBEN. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by S. Howorth & Co.

The Reporter and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2, strictly in advance.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Clara Watson of Dayton is visiting Mrs. Fairchilds.

Helen Keys spent a few days of this week in McMinnville.

Nina Hendrix of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Nina Hendrix.

Hattie Gigray of Vancouver is visiting her grandmother in this city.

H. F. Bedwell and wife returned home from the coast a few days ago.

John Jones, a liveryman of Tillamook, was in town the first of the week.

The first dance of the season was given at Morris' hall Tuesday evening.

Lynn Castle and Curt Wessels of Portland are visitors at D. P. Trullinger's.

Frank Shepherd, who was so seriously hurt last week, is still in a doubtful condition.

Miss Pearl Smith returned home from a four months' visit in Idaho, the first of the week.

Will Partlow returned home from the mines this week, where he has been for over a year.

Dr. Fisher of Portland is making preparation to remove his family from Portland to this city.

The price of hop picking in this vicinity has increased from 65 cts. to 75 cts. per hundred pounds.

Carl Trullinger went to Forest Grove the first of the week for the purpose of engaging hop pickers.

C. V. Welch is having the Hauswirth store repaired, and will soon move his stock of goods into that building.

Thos. Hall and wife, formerly of this place but now of Dayton, are visiting old friends and relatives in this city.

Wm. Wirtz and family came up from Forest Grove the first of the week, and will remain here until hop-picking is over.

R. Baird has safely reached St. Paul, and he has written back home that he is the only representative at the agricultural convention who came from the Pacific coast.

Word comes from the Laughlin brothers, who left here for Klondike about two months ago, that they have not yet gone to the mines, but are making $30 a day by packing goods over the mountains on their mules.

Rev. Wheeler and wife, traveling evangelists of the M. E. church, are conducting a series of meetings at the new church in this city. They are from the far east. Mr. Wheeler is a gifted orator and his wife is a most accomplished singer.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros. drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound, and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkable short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by S. Howorth & Co.

The Two-Minute Mark.

"I shall live to see a two-minute horse." Such was the prediction of one of the famous horsemen of New England, Moses Cheney. It was made thirty or forty years ago. At the time it was received with derision. Two-forty was about high-water mark then. The prophet who made this prophecy lived on several years beyond four score, and, unlike the saintly Simeon, died before the desire of his heart was realized; but he was none the less a true prophet of horse flesh.

The two-minute point has been the goal of the pacer's ambition for several years, (the running time had been lowered to 1.35%). As one record after another was lowered the hope dawned that sometime and somewhere the pacing or trotting record would be lowered to the two-minute point, much as, for a long time, dollar wheat has been the goal of cereal ambition. Steady and gradual has been the progress made. One horse after another has lowered the record until the two-minute point was so near that it seemed attainable. But some way Robert J., John R. Gentry, and even the marvelous Joe Patchen fell just short of attainment. It was a tantalizing case of "so near, yet so far." Only a few days ago Patchen almost made it on the Chicago turf. At last Star Pointer reached the point which made him the brightest of all the stars in the galaxy. He was well named.—Inter Ocean.

CASTORIA.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

For the past twenty-five years weather records have been made in Oregon, and this is the first year that rain has commenced to fall on August 30th and continued daily in the form of showers, as it has done this year. In 1884, at Portland, rain began on September 1st and continued to the 11th; in that year on the 1st, 2d, 6th and 7th there were only showers; the total for the entire time amounted to 2.88 inches, of which 1.86 fell on the 9th, 10th and 11th. In 1894 and 1895 the entire month of September was showery, but the total was only 1.16 inches. The past records show September, 1884, was similar to the present month, so far as it has gone. The total rainfall for the past week amounts to 1.66 inches at Portland and 0.39 of an inch at Roseburg; rain to a greater or less amount fell every day. The mean temperature for the week averaged 58 degrees, which is 9 degrees lower than it was the preceding week, and about 10 degrees lower than the mean for this period of the year. The maximum 52 degrees; the highest during the week was 70 degrees, and the lowest 44 degrees. The atmosphere has been cleared of smoke. The sunshine was greatly deficient.

The weather has been unfavorable to harvesting the late spring-sown wheat and oats; unfavorable to threshing, to hops and hoppedicking, and to the prune crop. It has been favorable to late fruit and vegetables, to pasturages, and it will enable plowing to be commenced. From reports at hand, it cannot be said that material damage has been done to the wheat crop, though necessarily to that which is in shock in the open field damage will result; that in stack is not damaged to any extent. The percentage of damaged grain is very small. The grain yet to be cut is not damaged, but the delay may produce damage. Threshing, of course, is at a standstill.

Hops are in a questionable condition. Picking is practically suspended. Mold is increasing; and in those yards where no care was bestowed during the season, the hops are about worthless; where care was given, they are in fairly good condition—but few, however, will be entirely free from mold. It is now estimated that not over half the hops grown will be picked.

The prune crop has been to an extent injured, by the rains cracking open the prunes; this fault is more in the Willamette and coast valleys, than in the Umpqua and Rogue river valleys; in the latter two, the cracking open is not extensive. Prune drying continues.

Peaches, pears, and apples continue to be plentiful, and large shipments continue to be made to the east. Late potatoes and other vegetables, pasturage and late hay, have been greatly benefited by the rains.

The conditions to-day indicate an early cessation of the rains. The winter rains have not yet set in, so that much fair weather can still be expected. B. S. PAGUE.

A rather short, stout-built young girl in short dresses and wonderfully bright in mathematics attended the public schools at Harrisburg a good many years ago. The teacher had a class in Brooks' Higher Arithmetic, a book one higher than the written arithmetic now used in the public schools, and about ten times as difficult. One day the teacher had some very critical visitors who were in doubt as to whether some of the young looking pupils could unravel those almost brain-splitting problems. The teacher said: "Gentlemen, pick out the most difficult example in the book and give it to that little girl in short skirts and she will go to the black board and solve it." They chose a problem, a "sinjer," as the boys expressed it. The young lady read it over a time or two silently, tipped slowly up to the black board and began to figure. Little by little the board filled with neatly made figures while the visitors strained their thinking powers to follow the youthful mathematician. When hardly space was left for another figure—away down low in the corner of the black board she wrote the answer to the complete gratification of the teacher and the admiration of the visitors. This is the first recollection I have of seeing Miss Etta Lewis, the young Salem school teacher who has quite recently been elected to a professorship in the McMinnville college.—Eugene Journal. . . . Since the foregoing was in type comes the announcement of the lady's marriage and her declination of the position she was expected to fill.

Don't bolt your food, it irritates your stomach. Choose digestible food and chew it. Indigestion is a dangerous sickness. Proper care prevents it. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures it. That is the long and short of indigestion. Now, the question is: Have you got indigestion? Yes, if you have pain or discomfort after eating, headache, dizziness, nausea, offensive breath, heartburn, languor, weakness, fever, jaundice, flatulence, loss of appetite, irritability, constipation, etc. Yes, you have indigestion. To cure it, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. The medicinal herbs and plants of which Shaker Digestive Cordial is composed, help to digest the food in your stomach. When your stomach is strong, care will keep it so. Shaker Digestive Cordial is for sale by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

A Worthy Precedent and Example.

Recently Mr. F. S. Harding, of McMinnville, made the college a present of a fine collection of preserved zoological specimens, some 22 cases in all, including many very fine types of snakes, lizards, etc. The collection is a most excellent one, representing much painstaking labor in securing and preserving. This gift is especially prized inasmuch as the zoological cabinet of the college is small and greatly in need of enlarging. Mr. Harding has set an example which it is hoped may be followed by many other friends of the college. Those having specimens, few or many, who would like to place them where they may be of constant and great use, might accomplish this purpose by tendering them to the college, where they would be carefully preserved and most highly prized. The same may be said also of gifts to the geological, mineralogical and botanical cabinets. In such ways friends of the college may make themselves remembered for the good they have done.

H. L. BOARDMAN.

Cancer Of the Face.

Mrs. Laura E. Mims, of Smithville, Ga., says: "A small pimple of a strawberry color appeared on my cheek; it soon began to grow rapidly, notwithstanding all efforts to check it. My eye became terribly inflamed, and was so swollen that for quite a while I could not see. The doctors said I had Cancer of the most malignant type, and after exhausting their efforts without doing me any good, they gave up the case as hopeless. When informed that my father had died from the same disease, they said I must die, as hereditary Cancer was incurable. "At this crisis, I was advised to try S.S.S., and in a short while the Cancer began to discharge and continued to do so for three months, then it began to heal. I continued the medicine a while longer until the Cancer disappeared entirely. This was several years ago and there has been no return of the disease."

A Real Blood Remedy.

Cancer is a blood disease, and only a blood remedy will cure it. S. S. S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is a real blood remedy, and never fails to permanently cure Cancer, Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism or any other disease of the blood.
