The duel between Count Badeni, the Austrian premier, and Dr. Wolff, the German nationalist leader, has caused the wildest sensation. Count Badeni sent his seconds to Dr. Wolff, who accepted the challenge. The premier sent a telegram to the emperor, asking permission to fight the duel, and at the same time tendering his resignation. In reply he received not only permission to fight, but also the imperial approval. Count Badeni then made his will, after which he spent the evening at the Jockey Club and a pleasure resort. His wife and family knew nothing about the affair until the duel was over. It is thought that, as the premier has set example, with the emperor's approval, there will be a serious epidemio

The petition for rehearing in the case of E. D. Shattuck, appellant, vs. Harrison R. Kıncaid, secretary of state, respondent, was denied. This suit was commenced in Judge Hewitt's court, department No. 2, circuit court of Marion county. Upon the filing of a complaint the court issued an alternative writ of mandamus, addressed to the defendant and resondeput, as asked, to show cause for not complying with the plaintiff's demands. A general demurrer to the writ was filed by the defendant, and the court ordered a pro forma judgment, sustaining the demurrer. The plaintiff refused to amend or further plead, and the court ordered the writ quashed, and gave judgment for the defendant, dismissing the proceeding. Average Keeps Up.

New Orleans, Sept. 30.—The yellow fever situation here continues exasperatingly the same. A daily average of 18 to 20 new cases and 2 deaths has kept up., But, while there is no sign of an epidemical visitation, the slow progress of the disease puts obstacles daily in the way of the merchant public, who are anxious to again resume trade with the surrounding country. The record today was not unlike that of many other days, in that it showed a death through sheer neglect of the patient. There have been 21 cases up to date; having a fatal termination. The facts: are incontrovertible that at least onehalf aied through neglect or lack of attention. Business is showing feeble signs of revival, and the railroads are putting forward superhuman efforts to secure a modification of the quarantine regulations. Dr. Oliphant's trip up the road tomorrow, at the invitation of the Southern Pacific Company, with a view to securing a modicfiation of the existing quarantine, will settle it whether trade is to stagnate for several weeks longer or whether it is partially to be resumed at once.

Today two deaths were reported. There have been a total of 177 cases to date. A number of patients were Scarcity of Sailors.

San Francisco, Sept. 30.-Over 30 vessels have finished loading wheat in San Francisco this month, and the matter of securing sailors for them has resolved itself into a serious problem.

"What's the good of a charter to a vessel when a captain cannot produce sailors to man her?" was a remark made by a disgusted British skipper yesterday. "Many a good ship is loaded and ready to sail, but is compelled to swing at her anchor because the master cannot procure men at the ruling rate. It will come to a split up pretty soon, and the sailors' wages will advance, contract or no contract." The situation is about as follows: Nearly all the British ships in port are under contract to certain shipping mas-These latter have agreed to supply men all the year around whenever required, and at no time are wages to exceed $20 per month and $40 advance. ## IF SPAIN REJECTS IT

Salem, Sept. 30.—The supreme court | What Will Follow Refusal to Accept Our Mediation.

WAR MAY NOT BE DECLARED

But Diplomatic Relations Will Be Sus pended, and Minister Woodford Will Be Recalled.

Madrid, Sept. 28.-The arrival of United States Minister Woodford from San Sebastian has caused a sensation. The programme of the Unitd States has been ascertained. This does not contemplate a declaration of war, if Spain rejects mediation, but, according to reports, an "ostentatious proclamation to the world of disapproval of the Cuban regime by suspending diplomatic relations with Spain, and withdrawing the United States minister.'

General Woodford has declined to be interviewed on the subject, further than to say that his conference with the Dubke of Tetuan, the foreign mir ister, was of the most satisfactory character.

The unexpected bitterness of the press and of public opinion has painfully impressed him, but he hopes it will soon be allayed. He believes his mission is favorable to Spanish interests, and connot comprehend that Spain could reject mediation designed to end an impoverishing war.

He has not named a time at which the war must be terminated, but he hopes, as shown by the rest of his tenders, it will be ended quickly. He believes that war is inflicting incalculable loss upon the United Staes, and that it is impossible to prevent the organization of filibustering expeditions. Unusual measures were taken to protect Minister Woodford on his journey from San Sebastian to this city, but the trip was quite uneventful. A party of gendarmes, commanded by a sublicutenant. guarded the Southern express, on which he was a passenger. Secret police were posted at the station, and the prefect of police was in waiting to escort him to his hotel. The drive through the streets was marked by no special incident, though several people saluted him, receiving a bow in return.

Some comment has been caused by the fact that Minister Woodford's family has not accompanied him, but remains behind on the French frontier. Minister Woodford explains that his party is a large one, requiring a commodious home, and prefers spending a pleasant October at Biarritz until a suitable residence can be secured here. General - Woodford has already engaged a box at the Royal operahouse, and has purchased horses.

General Woodford has taken apartments at the Hotel Rome, but received official visits at the legation, where he passed the entire morning.

Have No Faith in Austria.

London, Sept. 28.—A Madrid special says: The rumor of Austrian mediation between Spain and the United States, in the event of hostilities, has created surprise, mingled with much incredulity. The Spaniards fail to see what Austria could do, unless by naval powers, or at least by the combined pacific action of several governments.

Webstor Convicted.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 28.-The Webster murder trial ended in a sensational denoument tonight. The jury, after having been out for more than 30 hours, came in with a verdict of mui. der in the first degree, and was discharged, but two of the jurors, R. J. Frasier and C. Thomas, immediately delivered a signed statement to the attorneys for the defense that the verdict was against their convictions, and they only yielded after physical and mental exhaustion from the long strain in the jury room. Frasier is 65 years of age and Thomas 72. It is thought that this will undoubtedly lead to a new trial.

Experiences of a Young American and His Sister.

New York, Sept. 29 .- The Journal and Advertiser says: Three years ago Miss Eloise Brunett was the belle of Cienfuegos, Cuba. She was rich. Now she lies upon a cot in a 10x10 room in a small house on the outskirts of Philadelphia, her body burning with fever, her mind racked by terror of the Spaniards, her memory full of the horrors of an experien e abounding in starvation, suffering and peril.

In a similar condition, aggravated by wounds, is Dr. Andre Brunett, who served as a major in the Cuban army. The father of these refugees was an American, who owned a large estate at Cienfuegos. He died in 1893, and his son, Dr. Brunett, went to Cuba to settle up the estate. The Spanish administration of such affairs made this a long and difficult task. In September, 1895, General Rego raised the Cuban standard in the Cienfuegos district, and the young Cuban-American was one of the first to join him.

It was impossible for his sister to remain on the plantation, and she therefore went into the Cuban service as a nurse. For 20 months she shared the hardships of the patriots. She remained bravely in the Cuban army, caring for the sick and wounded, helping to cook the scant provisions and proving herself a heroine on many oc-CF SIONS.

After two months of this life they both contracted malarial fever, and were so ill that they had to leave the insurgent army and seek shelter, and they found neither and were compelled to take refuge in a cave, where they lived for 23 weeks, having no food but green pumpkins, sweet potatoes and water from a stagnant pool. Both suffered terribly from fever, and were often delirious. Finally the brother managed to climb the hill and attract the attention of a Spanish planter, who or more within the next few years. took them to Sierra, whence they were taken by boat to Cienfuegos.

When they landed at the wharf Miss Burnett had no shoes, and her dress, which she had worn for three months. was in shreds. They were almost unable to walk, and were dragged along by the Spanish soldiers, who struck and cursed them. The Spanish commander examined them separately to find excuse to put them to death, but failing in that, he permitted them to go to their sisters, who lived a mile away, on condition that they report in person every three or four days. This, in their condition, entailed the most intense sueffring, but the order was pitilessly enforced.

Dr. Brunett appealed to the American consul, Owen McGarr, for aid, but it was refused. Then followed a long per acre. correspondence with the state department at Washington, and in the end the consul was ordered to help them. They received passports on August 13, and sailed September 7. Their passage was paid all the way to New York instead of Florida.

Dr. Brunett and his sister have filed a claim at Washington against the Spanish government for destruction of their property.

injury of the fireman, Hockman. Train No. 22, an east bound freight. pulled out of The Dalles last night on time. For some days severe winds have prevailed along the road, resulting in sand drifts on the track. Between The Dalles and John Day river No. 22 had lost considerable time, and when the accident occurred Johnson was speeding his engine along in an effort to make up his schedule. The night was dark, and when a quarter of a mile east of John Day station the engine ran into the drift.

The locomotive left the track, turning on its side as it plupged down the embankment, carrying with it the tender and two freight cars.

Neither Engineer Johnson nor Fireman Hockman had time to jump. Both went down with the wreck. Johnson's life was crushed out in an instant, he being fairly buried beneath the engine. Hockman, the fireman, was pinned down by the locomotive, and, with both legs broken, the unfortunate man received the vent of the escaping steam. A wrecking train was sent out and Engineer Johnson's body was recovered and conveyed to his home in this city. cial train to St. Vincent's hospital, Portland. Dr. Mackenzie, the company's surgeon, is with the injured man, and an effort will be made to save the poor fellow's life.

Cullacabbage, it is charged, and his followers, to the number of several hundred, armed with guns, revolvers, knives, axes and clubs, marched to Cavendish's hotel, where several hundred of their enemies were celebrating pay-day. The Cavendish men ascertained that their foes were marching upon them, and, arming themselves hurriedly, awaited their arrival. After a demonstrative march, the Cullacab-
