Twenty Persons Burned to Death in Manitoba.

THE LOSS OF PROPERTY HEAVY

Flames Sweeping Into North Dakota-Swamp and Prairie Fires in Other States.

Winnipeg, Oct. 11 .- The forests fires that have been raging in Manitoba close to the boundary line for the past ten days have broken out more furiously than ever. Ten or 12 persons are reported to have been burned to death, and the fire is rapidly spreading and crossing the boundary into North Dakota. Settlers have been fighting the flames for over a week trying to keep them from getting into the more thickly populated districts.

The flames are driving hundreds of wolves and coyotes into the open, and flocks of geese and ducks have been seen flying over the burning forests.

Near Whitemouth, H. L. Laundry, a trapper, was burned to death.

A German woman living in a small house near where the fire was the most furious yesterday is reported to have burned to death and her children are missing.

A dispatch from Whitemouth states the fire is spreading rapidly. Several settlers had close calls for their lives. A heavy wind drove ahead of it a mass of smoke which blinded them, and a long line of flames which consumed everything in their path.

East of Whitemouth the situation is very critical. The section foreman of Darwin and his wife and men were picked up by a freight train and brought to Whitemouth. Roadmaster Horner, on a handcar attempted to run from Darwin with his men, but nearly succumbed through suffocation, and was compelled to take refuge in a passing freight train.

All the telegraph poles for several miles east of the town are down and trains are tied up.

A Broken Head, Manitoba, dispatch says the country is on fire there. On both sides of Broken Head river much damage is being done. The smoke is so thick that it is impossible to see 20 yards, though there is no fire nearer than a mile.

Mr. and Mrs. Young, who live eight miles away, lost everything, and only saved their lives by standing in the river for 12 hours, when they were able to come onto the burnt ground after the fire had passed. Nearly every one in the path of the flames lost everything.

At Beauzjour, Manitoba, seven person have been burned to death. Mrs. O. W. Thomas, her young son and a daughter, had a race with the flames for several miles. They had a team of horses, which they kept on the run. Sparks from the burning timber were blown into the dry ground of a prairie where they were compelled to cross, and soon they were surrounded by flames. The frantic horses started to run straight ANOTHER BOLD HOLD UP. Two Men Stop and Rob an Oregon City Car.

Portland, Oct. 12 .- The East Side Railway Company's car, Ona, bound for Portland, was held up at Meldrum station, four miles this side of Oregon City, at 6:45 last evening, by two highwaymen, and from the 35 passengers on board $97 was taken. Both the robbers were armed with revolvers, each had his face blackened, and each acted with perfect calmness during the robbery. Not a single shot was fired by either the robbers or passengers. An absurd civility prevailed, and when the work had been finished the highwaymen bade their victims a courteous adien and said they would call again when broke. They then backed a short distance into the brush and secreted themselves until the car moved on.

The work of the two men is well in line with the attempt on the O. R. & N. passenger only a short time ago, but the result was more satisfactory to the robbers. Who they are is unknown to the authorities, although some persons on the car asserted that they recognized the voice of one of them. The pursuit was commenced as soon as the car could reach this city and the police could be returned to the scene, but so far no trace of them can be found.

The Ona left Oregon City at 6:20 There were about 35 passengers aboard, the seats nearly all being full. At Meldrum station there is a switch, which necessitates a slowing down for a distance. The track at this point is in a very light cut, and on both sides there is a considerable growth of low underbrush and ferns. When the Ona was passing this place the motorman heard something running through the brush and ferns, which he supposed was cattle fleeing from the car. A moment later, however, he realized that the somethings were coming toward the car, and that their speed was not due to fright.

A medium-sized man stepped on the front step while the car was still going slowly, and, approaching the motorman, peremptorily commanded him to stop the car. The motorman did not grasp the situation at first, but thought a joke was being perpetrated. The highwayman soon disabused his mind by poking a revolver into his face as an additional emphasis, which induced the motorman to act promptly. The robber asked him if he had any money, and, being answered in the negative, patted his pockets to ascertain if the answer was true. He then ordered the motorman inside the car, and started in to "go through" the passengers.

About the same time the man jumped on at the front, a second robber climbed onto the rear platform. He indicated his purpose by pointing a revolver down the aisle of the car to intimidate the passengers. Just as the car was coming to a halt the conductor managed to pass down the aisle to the center of the car, and, reaching the button overhead, turned off the lights. He then stood near that place during the proceedings following.

The man in front found the work of taking the surplus cash possessed by the passengers impeded by the lack of treme, and the miners have appointed three passengers, when he decided to that they do not get out of their reach. have the lights turned on again. He Thomas K. Clark, of Seattle, who was ordered the conductor to do this, using a passenger on the Sailor Boy, said: an oath each time. "Turn on the lights or I'll blow your brains out." was repeated once or twice, to which the conductor replied that some one outside had pulled the trolley off. At last the robber at the front end called out two or three times for the car to go ahead so that he could have the benefit of the moonlight. Following his order, the car moved on until it turned so that the light shone in fairly well. when he said that was enough, when it stopped again. How the car was moved is not clear, as the motor man says he was taken inside and kept against him is growing more bitter there, and neither of the two robbers in sight went to the front platform. The robber from the front continued his work when the car came to a halt. the passengers to stand, and taking from them the money offered, and in some cases feeling of their pockets to see if they had given al!. He passed alleged witticisms with several, and kept up a talk the whole time he was in the car. After the robber from the front had alive. "" gone through the car, the one standing guard at the rear asked impatiently if he was ti rough. Being told that all was finished, he again asked how much had been gotten. No. 1 said, "Oh, $15 or $16," and the two then backed out of the rear door. They kept their pistols pointed at the car after reaching the ground until they had backed about 10 feet, when they squatted in the brush until the car had gone on.

ON THE SAILOR BOY.

A Crowd Who Were Glad to Get Away From St. Michaels.

Port Townsend, Wash., Oct. 11 .-The schooner Sailor Boy, Captain Peterson, arrived at 1 o'clock this afternoon, direct form St. Michaels, having left there September 19. The Sailor Boy brought nine passengers from St. Michaels, who came to spend the winter rather than endure the hardhsips incident to semi-camp life at St. Michaels until the river opens in the spring. The returning passengers had gone north on the steamers Eliza Anderson and Merwin. Their names are: J. Q. Barnum, of Murray, Idaho; Dr. Proot, of Michigan; Dr. Frost, of New York; Kaufman, of Chicago; Anderson, of Chicago;; Kappapal, of Sioux City, Ia.; Robinson, of San Francisco, and W. H. Churchill, of New York city. All the returning passengers agree that St. Michaels will never be popular as a place of residence. Captain Peterson says the Yukon river was still open to navigation when he left, but water was so low that boats of over 15 inches draught could not cross many bars which showed at irregular intervals in the river's course, and as a result all efforts to go up the river this fall will be fruitless. Captain Peterson does not think either Captain Frank Worth's or Mayor Wood's boats will be able to go to Dawson City before next June, notwitstanding the fact that both were all ready to make the attempt when the Sailor Boy left.

The Sailor Boy did not sight or hear anything of the schooner Bryant, which broke loose from the tug Holyoke off Kadiak island in a severe storm, September 20.

There had been no news direct from Dawson City received at St.. Michaels for four weeks previous to leaving, and no news can possibly be brought by river before next summer, as ice was already forming in the salt water at the mouth of the river, and the fresh water must certainly have been frozen to a considerable thickness at that time.

'In a month form now," said he, "I do not believe there will be 100 persons at St. Michaels, as nearly everybody is preparing to come back. A great many will come down on the Portland. But a majority left ere this on the schooner Novelty, which was discharging cargo at St. Michaels when we left. The captain of the Novelty will bring down all those having sufficient money to pay their board on the trip, no fare being charged. This is done simply as an act of charity and in the interests of humanity. Many persons have not money sufficient to even pay for their board on the schooner, and unless they can sell their outfit for cash, will be forced to remain at St. Michaels during the winter.

Mayor Wood, of Seattle, manager of the Humboldt expedition, and D. K. Howard, who had charge of the Eliza Anderson party, are practically prisoners in the hands of their irate passen-gers. Only the presence of the United States troops under Lieutenant-Colonel Randall is expected to avert serious trouble.

The feeling against both Wood and Howard is said to be bitter in the exht. He had taken the money from committees to guard both, and see to it "There is no chance for the Wood

THE SPANIARDS' REPLY WEEKLY MARKET LETTER.

Downing, Hopkins & Company's Review of Trade.

There has not been much doing in the wheat market during the past week. The visible supply decreased 1,690,000 bushels, and the exports from both coasts were equal to about 5,000,000 bushels. Crop reports from the Argentine are less favorable and the crop is reported damaged by frost. Should this report be confirmed, it will furnish a strong bull incentive to the market. Not the least important change in the situation is the decreasing receipts of winter wheat-sufficiently marked to offset the increased movement of the spring wheat crop. The export sales have not been large, but sufficiently so to show that our markets are on an export basis and that the demand continues constant. Local speculative conditions remain practically the same as during the previous week. The weakness in values is more apparent than real and results from lack of speculation and moderately increasing stocks. There is no sound argument for any decline in values at present. There are several arguments and many possibilities in favor of an advance. Should Russia prohibit exports or should any serious damage occur to the Argentine crop, extreme high values would obtain. Wheat is fully worth 90 to 95 cents under existing conditions, and as the speculative public become educated to the higher values now ruling renewed speculative support and increasing export sales will carry values higher.

Our corn market has been dull and uninteresting-devoid of any paritcular features or change in previous condiitons, except that farmers' sales of corn to arrive have fallen off to the minimum. Local sentiment has been and continues extremely bearish. Short sellers have taken advantage of every opportunity to depress values, but the market has developed a strong undertone and values have ruled higher than at the close of the previous week. Export clearances continue large and the cash demand, while still inadequate, shows some improvement. The depressing influence in the market continues to be the large stocks.

WEYLER DEPOSED.

Blanco Will Succeed Him as Captain General.

Madrid, Oct. 11 .- The cabinet has decided upon the immediate recall of General Weyler from Cuba. A decree will be issued appointing Captain General Blanco y Arenas, Marquis of Pena-Plana, governor of the island. The queen regent will sign the decree tomorrow.

According to El Heraldo, 20,000 reinforcements will accompany General Blanco to Cuba.

General Blanco will be accompanied by General Arderin as vice-governor of Cuba; General Gonzales Painale as chief of staff, and Generals Spando, Bernal and Cannalon.

Staving Off the Inevitable.

New York, Oct. 11 .- A dispatch to the Herald from Madird savs:

General Weyler will fight tooth and nail against being removed from Cuba. He is trying to terrorize the liberal government into retaining him in command in Cuba until next June, and if recalled now he will utilize his influence over the army to create disturbances in the peninsula or sell himself to the Carlists.

Now that the late conservative administration is no more than a shattered remnant, the organs of the conservative press are nothing backward in vitupearting one another, and the defunct ministry is so malignant in tone as to clearly betray that there was no intention whatever of surrendering the reins of government had not the queen regent herself deliberately induced and insisted on the crisis.

In consequence of this the fallen magnates of that administration, which has been one of continuous brawl and national scandal for so many weary months, are being so bitterly assailed in the columns of their own newspapers that their tempers are said to have suffered in the glorious melee, and more than one has to part from public life and even from Madrid, with scowls upon his brow and anathemas upon his lips, which has caused no little merriment to the unconcerned onlookers.

The conservative paper El Nacional has made a dead set against General Azcarraga, assailing him more fiercely Azarraga, assaring him more hercery than ever, and Senor Robledo, the an-tagonist of Cuban reform, "the man who has lost us Cuba," as he is now branded in Spain, in wrath at similar tirades against himself, has stopped his ears and fled southward to his native antiquary, where the crowds turned out to receive him, and where the adulation of the villagers will doubtless compensate him for the harshness, sneers and ridicule of the Madrid public.

De Lome to Be Recalled.

Madrid, Oct. 11 .- Among the diplomatic changes reported here as being imminent is that the Duke of Almordova, or Senor Muraga, will replace Senor Dupuy de Lome as Spanish minister to the United States.

Treasure Island Again.

Victoria, Oct. 11 .- The warship Imperiuse, which recently sailed for Guatemala, carried as a guest of Rear-Admiral Palliser, Ernest Harris, a real estate man of this city. It is asserted that he went south to secure part of the treasure which Charles Hartford says he has located on Cocos island. Hartford came here from Cocce is land a couple of months ago on the schooner Aurora, on which a party of sealers had gone to the island to search for treasure. The sealers could not find it, but Hartford claimed to have located $30,000,000 in gold, silver and jewels. Hartford is said to have interested Harris and the officers of the Imperiuse in his story, and it is even thought that he himself sailed as a bluejacket on the vessel.

Decisive Action Has Not Yet Been Taken.

TO CHANGE SYSTEM OF WARFARE

The Insurgents Jeer and Taunt the Spanish During an Engagement at Camarones Hills.

Madrid, Oct. 11 .- A cabinet council, at which the queen regent presided. was held here today. When the ministers separated, the premier, Senor Sagasta, announced to the newspaper men that no final decision had b taken in regard to the reply which Spain will make to the note of the United States, handed to the Duke of Tetuan, when he was minister for foreign affairs, by the United States minister. The Imparcial says it learns that the reply of Spain will satisfy Spanish susceptibilities in making clear to President McKinley the resolute attitude which Spain maintains in regard to Cuba.

According to El Heraldo, Spain's reply to the United States will point out if American interests suffer by reason of the war in Cuba, they (the Americans) are themselves to blame for it, inasmuch as the insurrection is aseisted from the United States. El Heraldo says also:

"We understand that the government will express its confidence that the new policy to be pursued with regard to Cuba will produce a change in the attitude of the United States." It is semi-officially announced that Captain-General Weyler will be recalled from Cuba this month, and that it is probable the cortes will be dissolved in December and a new parlia-

"The cabinet was unaniomus in the opinion that the system of warfare in Cuba must be completely changed. Special attention was drawn to the deplorable condition of the sick and wounded soldiers now arriving. This aspect was considered at the direct initation of the queen regent.

"Regarding the finances, although the optimistic views of the recent minister of finance do not appear to have been justified, it is believed that with prudence, sufficient resources may be counted upon at least until the cortes meets in the spring, to authorize supplies."

The Kankakee Marsh Fires.

Valpariso, Ind., Oct. 11 .- The Kankakee marsh fires are spreading in this county, although the farmers have given up all other work and are fighting it at all hours of the day. Several houses were destroyed last night. The big marsh near Assinong caught fire last night, and the flames swept over acres of land, destroying everything in their path. Residents of Hebron, Koutz and Kinman are badly frightened, as it is feared the fire may sweep across the heavy ditches which have been dug.

Michigan Marsh Fires.

Niles, Mich., Oct. 11 .- East and north of this city the marsh fires continue. Farmers have fought the flames night and day for a week, and are utterly exhausted. They have moved their household goods to places of safety and have sacrificed their homes. Game which inhabited the marshes has been driven to the city. Near Berrien Springs, on what is known as the Big Meadow, the fire has swept over like a prairie fire, and hundreds of acres of potatoes have been roasted in the hills. The fire is the worst that has occurred in this vicinity since 1871.

Fires in Wisconsin.

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 11 .- Prairie fires in Sommers and Bristol counties caused by sparks from passing engines destroyed considerable property belonging to the farmers. All kinds of means have been adopted to stay the advance of the flames. In some cases where the fire was apparently extinguished it continued to burn the surface.

Whole Fields of Corn Burned.

He was guiding a red-hot bar of iron as it came ont of the rollers. Suddenly the bar twisted, and before Jackson could escape, had pushed him against a heavy stand, where, by the force of the rollers it slowly encircled him. The smoke and the odor of his burning body filled the room. Before he was rescued he was terribly burned.

Explosion in a Mine.

Baker City, Or., Oct. 12 .- This afternoon, at 4 o'clock, an explosion of giant powder occurred in the 600-foot level of the Virtue mine, killing J. P. Maddox and injuring several other miners. The cause of the explosion was the dropping of a lighted candle in the powder magazine.

They are quite likely to do something desperate before spring. Chehalis, Wash., Oct. 11.-W. W. Jordan, the second victim of the glanders, died this morning at his residence, after a brave fight of nearly a month against the disease. The Herald's correspondent at Matanzas has obtained an account of the fight from a Spanish officer who was present. From this it appears that the rebel infantry were strongly intrenched in an almost inaccessible position in the hills, and all efforts to dislodge them were futile, resulting only in heavy losses for the attacking force. The insurgents had only a few men killed, and jeered at and taunted the Spanish during the whole engagement. General Molina narrowly escaped death. Enraged at his failure, he returned to the attack the next day, but with no better success. A large number of Spanish soldiers were brought

Offer Will Not Be Accepted.

New York, Oct. 11.-General Carlo Roloff, secretary of war of the republic of Cuba, has sent the following letter to Gonzales de Quesada, Cuban charge d'affaires at Washington: 'We are now better prepared for an active campaign than at any time during either the present or the late war. We are informed here that Spain will probably try to please the American government by offering us autonomy more or less ample. I need not tell you, my friend, that we laugh at such offers, for already we are at the hour of our liberation. Snould Spain serionsly offer us autonomy, it would prove the full extent of her weakness, and we will fight with renewed ardor until she shall recognize our independence. Rich Find of Prospectors.

Long Creek, Or., Oct. 11.-A rich pocket was discovered a few days ago in the mining belt east of Canyon City, in this county, from which its discov-erers realized $3,000 in cash. This is the same pocket that was searched for by a miner of the name of James Wallace last summer, and from the evidences of Wallace's prospecting, he was within two feet of the rich pocket at the time he abandoned it. The finding of this rich pocket has given new life to the mining belt of Grant county, and with a few more similar strikes, this section is likely to experience a "Klondike rush."

A Filibuster Released From Jail.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.-Cpatain J. H. H. Wiborg was released from prison tonight, after serving a 16 months' tence for carrying, on the Danish steamship Horsa, a filibustering expedition to Cuba. There was a fine of $300 and costs, $500 in all, attached to the term of imprisonment, but Captain Wiborg could not raise the money. The term expired last Saturday, but this default would have added 30 days to his confinement, but a popular subscription, headed by a local newspaper, raised the money, and the captain was restored to his wife and children.
