WHITESON.

Whiteson is to have a tile factory.

Mrs. Rauch, of the Whiteson store, has built a substantial double walled cellar.

James Glover returned to eastern Oregon last Monday, taking his brother Tom with him.

A. M. Waddel was in town a few days ago looking for hands to help harvest his potato crop. Last year he did not have to hunt them.

Rev. Turner of the M. E. church south, preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday last at 11 o'clock, also at night. He is an earnest christian worker.

A number of friends met at the residence of Will Robbins and indulged in a farewell dance. All were in for a good time and had it. No outsiders present.

Either good times or a good teacher has affected our public school very favorably. Miss Percival has already 42 names on roll with more to follow. This is a much better showing than we have had for the last three years.

Mr. Pratt and Mr. Robbins, with their families, started on their journey east last Monday. A large party of friends and relatives gathered at the depot to bid them farewell. Many kind wishes for health and happiness follow them to their new homes.

NEWBERG.

Mrs. G. W. Grayson of Trask is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemens of Pleasantdale visited their son a few days last week.

J. W. Wheeler made quite an extended trip through Linn and Lane counties looking for a new location.

Rev. Joseph Hall of the Minnesota M. E. conference, preached in the M. E. church last Sunday night to a large audience.

On Friday evening last, a chapter of the O. E. S. was instituted by G. W. P. Rev. C. C. Polling, assisted by Electa chapter of Dayton, and quite a membership was enrolled. After the usual lodge business a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies. The following officers were elected: W. M., Maggie Littlefield; W. P., C. B. Frizzell; A. M., Mrs. Story; S. F. H. Story; T. J. L. Larkin; Conductress, Nellie Larkin; A. C., Mrs. McCulley; Sentinel, S. P. Henyon.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Showers.

Wheat 73 cents net.

Roads very dusty before the rain Tuesday.

W. Rhude sold his hops for 13½ cents per pound.

Killing frost this week, first of the season.

Miss Bertha Wood is visiting in town and attended the wedding.

Miss Josa Hoffstatter was down from your city to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Dr. Rossiter, who used to reside here, is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

A number of our people are in McMinnville attending the State Baptist Association meeting now in session there.

All of Mr. Pritchett's turkeys are said to have gone visiting. He thinks he has located them and perhaps the sheriff can do the rest.

Mr. John A. Simmons has sold out his drug business to Mr. F. H. Caldwell of Lafayette, who will continue business at the old stand.

Mr. Phil. Withycombe has been taking delivery of one hundred cords of fir wood for his tile factory, as he expects to burn four kilns before winter.

Mrs. J. A. Simmons, Mrs. Harris, Mr. Petty, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Merchant, Mr. Bedwell and Mr. and Mrs. Baird visited in your city one day this week.

The present rain, if it continues long enough and knows when to quit will put the ground in good shape for plowing as it has been too dry so far this fall.

A good many hop growers have shipped to London through the Corbett & McCleay Co. and received an advance of six cents per pound on the consignment.

Mr. James Steward an old settler and well known resident of this neighborhood, died since last writing. He was laid to rest in the old McBride ground.

Miss Minnie Bunn, one of the favorite young ladies of this community, was married to Mr. Frazier of McCoy Sunday evening. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Campbell at the home of the bride's parents, and there were over two hundred guests invited. Everything was lovely and we wish the happy couple much joy.

Mr. O. O. Rhude is building a new barn on his property back of the Union church and is at present negotiating for the purchase of the Roberts property, where he resides.

Mr. R. Kesterson, jr's., little girl got run over with a wagon this week. The wheels passed over some of her limbs and barely missed her head. The doctor reports that there are no bones broken.

As predicted some time ago, logging is now in progress in the mountains for the purpose of floating logs to the lower river mills. Mr. Jos. Petch sold 30 acres timber, and the purchaser expects to log it off this winter in time to run all the logs. This is another help to good times, and the prospects are good for further contracts.

The Oregon Christian missionary convention of Oregon, district No. 2, comprising Yamhill, Polk and Tillamook counties, closed their semi-annual meeting at Dayton on Sunday. There was a good attendance and a favorable account of progress. The board of managers is now composed of Rev. Allyn Gosson, Monmouth, president; C. A. Wallace, McMinnville, treasurer; D. Caldwell, McMinnville, local secretary. In the future the district meetings will be held annually, and the place of the next meeting will be North Yamhill, in about a year from now.

Columbus School Notes.

Ethel Harris visited in Amity on Wednesday.

We have had four tardy marks so far this month.

Mrs. Cook now has fifty-two little folks in her room.

Elsie Hobbs is numbered among our sick list this week.

Our visitors during the last week were Mr. and Mrs. Butts of Dallas, Messrs. Thomason and Williams and Directors Hunsaker and Irvine.

There are five new pupils in the high school this week. Although they are a month behind in their work by steady application they will soon catch up.

In District No. 8.

Miss Annie Greeley is just recovering from a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Waugaman are the proud parents of another daughter.

Mr. L. S. Downing has traded farms with F. M. York of Carlton.

A small daughter has made her arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill.

Mrs. Greeley is expected home from her canvassing trip in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Addie Braly of Tillamook are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Sitton.

Mr. Fred Wheeler has returned after attending the fair and visiting friends and relatives at his old home in Hillsboro.

Miss Lizzie Hartman has left us to stay with her grandmother and attend school this winter in McMinnville.

Mr. Snowden of San Francisco has been a visitor at our Sunday school for a few Sundays past.

Mr. T. D. Henderson says he is going to try the method of disk harrowing this year. He has about 50 acres put in, in this way.

Rev. J. A. Campbell was unable to preach on the 17th, on account of attending the convention at Dayton. We understand the school at this place is progressing nicely under his supervision.

Cook School Notes.

All did well in their examination.

Patrons, come and visit the school and help us along in our work.

Bessie Turner and Anna Johnson are new students of the eighth grade.

The boys played base ball every spare moment while the fine weather lasted.

We notice in the Columbus school notes the watch word is work. Hard work is our motto.

Some of the pupils are so much in earnest over their work they scarcely take time to get a breath of fresh air at recess.

Each pupil has received a report book for the month. It should be signed by the parents and returned to the teacher at once.

The rooms were represented on the roll of honor as follows: Prof. Littlefield's 11; Mrs. Littlefield's, 19; Miss Mann's, 17; Miss Gray, 14. The total enrollment of our school is now 109.
