Columbus School Notes.

Where, oh where is our school paper? There is some talk about class colors. We would say the sooner we have them the better.

Edna Hodson celebrated her 13th birthday by inviting about eighteen of her friends to spend the afternoon with her, Saturday.

Professor placed a problem on the board Monday morning which read like this: Right character: truthfulness, honesty and generosity. Three-fourths of life: conduct. Conduct equals character. Character multiplied by self-control and self-direction equals right character.

Cook School Notes.

Nearly seven weeks of school have passed away or about one-fifth of the entire year.

Several new pupils have entered school since last writing, and all grades are crowded with the exception of the 7th and 8th.

Written review comes again next week and if the pupils have prepared themselves it will be easy, if not, it will be hard to get a good average.

Harry Long has returned to school after a short illness.

Lulu Wilcox has a severe sore throat but is bravely holding her place in ranks.

The first day of November there were 25 pupils in Prof. Littlefield's room, 49 in Mrs. Littlefield's room, 53 in Miss Mann's room, and 49 in the primary room.

Owing to the boys loitering on the way home from school the teachers have enforced this rule, which must be obeyed: "As soon as school is out each pupil must go straight home from school and report to their parents."

CLOSING OUT SALE!

The Greatest Opportunity Ever Offered to Buy Good Honest Goods at Your Own Price!

We are positively going out of business, and wish to close out our entire stock by January 1st. In order to do this we are selling at a great sacrifice REGARDLESS OF COST, many of the goods being sold at much less than we paid for them. We consider this better policy than to dally along at a big expense trying to get cost out of the goods. Come early while the assortment is good. At the rate they are going they will not last until Christmas. Our store has been crowded for the last two weeks.

SPECIAL.

A GOOD BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.
We are ready to sell our Stock and fixtures at a bargain at any time.

SPECIAL.

We wish to settle up all accounts, so would kindly ask all who may owe us to come in and settle at once and not wait to be solicited personally.
