TROUBLE IN HAYTI.

Wrath of the Kaiser.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Nov. 2. - Serious trouble has arisen between Hayti and Germany. The German minister to this republic, Count Schwerein, has hauled down his flag and, according to current report, three German warships are expected here to back up the ultimatum of the minister, demanding an indemnity for the alleged illegal arrest and imprisonment of a German citizen. The affair has caused considerable excitement among the native population, and some of the people have threatened to kill the German minister and all the Germans in the place and vicinity.

The affair grew out of the arrest a few weeks ago of a German named work in Coos river. Most of the work Linders. STRAIN TOO GREAT.

Arrest of a German Brings Down the Sudden Death of Henry George, Candidate for Mayor of New York.

New York, Nov. 1 .- Henry George, author of "Progress and Poverty," and candidate of the Thomas Jefferson Democracy for mayor of New York, died at 5:10 o'clock this morning in the Union Square hotel, of cerebral apoplexy. In his great Cooper Union speech, accepting the nomination for mayor, less than a month ago, he said:

'I'll make this race if it costs me my life. This is a call of duty, and as a good citizen I have no right to disregard it on account of mere personal consideration."

Today the cheers of the workers have suddenly been changed to sighs, for, true to his words, Henry George, the apostle of the rights of man, died as he wished to die-in harness, fighting for the cause-toward the close of the greatest municipal political contest the world has ever seen. Last night noisy, shouting throngs rushed into halls and streets to hear the speeches that in a great part were filled with personality and bitterness, rockets flared and fires burned, men argued and urged, and all signs bore witness that the campaign was at its height. But when today dawned all was changed. MARIE VAN ZANDT'S INSULT.

Paris. Nov. 1 .- A remarkable story is going the rounds as to the real animus the tremendous demonstration in March, 18)5, against Marie Zandt, the American singer.

M. Goron, formerly a high official at the prefecture of police, declares that the memorable and offensive attacks upon the singer was engendered by the tollowers of M. Ferry to counteract an intended demonstration against him by radicals and socialists after the disastrous defeat of the French at Langson, Annam. M. Camercarz, the prefect of police of the day, was consulted as to how to prevent the intended demonstration against the unpopular M. Ferry, and according to M. Goron, he suggested a monster demonstration against Miss Van Zandt. All the available detectives and theatrical claques were sent to the opera comique to howl and hiss the American singer. Whenever there was a lull in the uproar the at the point of death, and a dozen more cry was raised that Miss Van Zandt was going out by another door, and so skilfull was the trick that the excitement was continued until midnight and the intended M. Any Company May Operate at St. Michaels Upon Obtaining the War Department's Consent

Washington, Nov. 1 .- Senator Mc-Bride, of Oregon, saw the secretray of war and the president today regarding the report that the new military reservation in Alaska would create a monopoly for the two transportation companies now operating between that territory and points in the United States. He was assured there was no such intention in the order; that no one would be excluded from the territory or prevented from engaging in any business on the reservations. Secretary Alger said he would telegraph the chamber of commerce of Tacoma to that effect. The intention of the order was solely that of protecting life and property in the territory, and any company or person entering the territory would be given the same rights and privileges allowed companies or persons already opeating there

Senator McBride said he had no doubt there would be no trouble for any persons operating in Alaska, and the assurances of the president and secretary were sufficient to quiet all apprehensions that might be felt either in Oregon or Washington.

The first formal protest against the creation of the St. Michaels military reservation reached the war department from Tacoma as follows:

"Hon. Secretary of War-We ask for a reconsideration of your order setting apart a military reservation at St. Michaels, believing that should it stand it must work to the detriment of thousands of our citizens and give a monopoly to the two companies www located there.

"Citizens' Committee, Tacoma, "By George Brown, Secretary." Secretary Alger made the following

'Telegram received. The military reservation at St. Michaels was established in the interests of the security of life and property, the preservation of order and the protection of legitimate business interests. No monopoly was given or intended to any company or persons. Any proper company or person who desires to conduct a legitimate business there will, on application to the war department be given permission to do so."

HE'S A FINE BOY.

A Princetonian Comes to the House of Grover.

All the afternoon Mr. Cleveland has received at his home the many callers who wished to pay their respects to him in honor of the occasion. Princeton undergraduates have taken a great interest in the new Princetonian.

Houghton, a postal clerk running from Cheyenne to Ogden, on a charge of stealing a registered package con taining $14,000. A telegram received here during the afternoon stated that Houghton had confessed the theft.

The package which Houghton is alleged to have stolen was mailed by a Chicago bank to a correspondent in Sacramento, Cal., about September 26. It disappea ed somewhere en route, and an investigation by the postal authorities disclosed the fact that the disappearance occurred somewhere between Om tha and Ogden. The secret service officers learned that Houghton's mistress, who had been staying in Denver for three weeks, had change! three $100 bills, and, as the $14,000 stolen was all in $100 bills, they at once made arrangements for Houghton's arrest. The woman was at first taken into custody, and her statements went to veri y the opinion of the officers. After Houghton had confessed his crime, he offered to refund the amount stolen, except $400, which he had spent, pro vided the officers would agree that he should not be prosecuted. He declared that if they would not so agree, the money would be immediately burned. United States Commissioner T. J. WEEKLY MARKET LETTER.

[Office of Downing, Hopkins & Co., Chicage Board of Trade Brokers, 711-714 Chamber of Com-merce Building, Portland, Oregon.]

Facts established sooner or later control wheat values. Speculation may temporarily advance or depress values, but in the end the laws of supply and demand are sure to assert themselves and control values. It has been a selfevident proposition for several weeks. past that conditions warranted higher values. Speculative influences have repeatedly driven prices downward, but the market has rebounded with the buoyancy of a cork upon the water. The news announcements of the week have been uniformly favorable to higher values Crep advices at home indicate less than an average acreage seeded to winter wheat, owing to the pro-tracted drought, which has been broken only in certain sections of the winter wheat belt. Receipts at primary points are falling off and promise from this on to prove smaller than last year. Export clearances continue large, 5,991,-000 bushels for the week, which is largely in excess of our exportable surplus weekly. The export demand shows no signs of diminution. On the con-trary, it is urgent and increasing, the last few days of the week having resulted in very large sales for export. Foreign advices continue extremely bullish. The reports of our own con-suls in Europe more than confirm the maximum estimates of European import requirements. Advices from London assert that Mediterranean ports are outbidding England for Russian wheat. The French chamber of deputies has been petitioned to reduce the import duty on wheat, and some action in this direction will probably be taken sooner or later, although not necessarily at present, Russian advices, although always unreliable and largely mythical, are extremely bullish and must necessarily have some foundation on fact. The Argentine crop is still an unknown quantity. Reports are conflicting. Drought conditions have prevailed. Locusts have caused some damage, and in the absence of reliable reports it cannot be assumed that the crop will be a large one in yield. Local speculative conditions are extremely favorable for higher values. Stocks on contract grain are very small, practically exhausted, and there is no immediate prospect of their being replenished. We can discover nothing in the situation at home or abroad warranting any declines in values, and would regard any decline as but temporary, unwarranted, and therefore a good speculative opportunity to buy wheat, the final outcome of which we aniticipate to be much higher prices.
