the price of Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, Silverware, etc., of today with the prices of these articles five or six years ago.

Don't Stay Away

Because of these wrong impressions, but come in and price our goods, and you will be surprised to see how little money it takes to buy a good watch or clock for, or dainty piece of jewelry or beautiful piece of silverware, or rich cut glass.

Come in and let us convince you that the modern "buy for cash and sell for cash" way of doing business is the best way. Remember our stock is larger and more varied than ever this year.

Class of '94 Oratorical Contest.

When the class of 1894 left McMinnville college, it contributed a fund, the interest of which was to be applied to the payment of prizes in oratory to be known as the "Class of '94 Oratorical prize." This contest for the current year will be held at the college chapel Friday evening, Dec. 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be some seven participants who will deliver orations, all of them members of the junior and senior classes. Good music will be provided and the program will be one of great interest. Three prizes will be offered of $10, $7.50 and $5 respectively for the orations which the judges may decide to be first, second and third in merit. The income from the fund not yet being sufficient to pay these prizes in full, nominal admission of 10c will be charged at the door. Anything in excess of the amount needed to complete the prizes which may be received will be contributed to the fund.

The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy a pleasant evening at the college.

Forty-three persons at Corvallis were poisoned last Saturday by eating newly made head cheese brought in from the country by Mrs. Arthur Gardner and distributed among friends. All who partook of it became sick, becoming very weak and suffering severe pains, but none has died and it is believed all will live. The poisoning is supposed to have resulted from the use of faulty kettles. The head cheese is being analyzed.

WHITESON.

A. Mannoek made a business trip to Portland last Monday.

G. T. Smith is in Portland on business, also visiting his mother.

Married, December 7, 1897, by Rev. J. Hoberg, Mr. Thomas Glover and Miss May Mills.

Rev. Jos. Hoberg of McMinnville was a pleasant visitor in Whiteson one day this week.

Mrs. M. M. Ranch of the Whiteson store was in Portland buying goods one day this week.

The Fred Lashier house and one acre of land was sold last Saturday at the sheriff's sale to Homer Kirkwood for $250.

Mrs. May Gates of this place received the sad news last Tuesday that her sister Mrs. Maude Kinney of Astoria was very low and not expected to recover.

Last Sunday Mr. Edgar Conner and family, accompanied by Mrs. Morrison, attended church at Amity. On their road home one of the horses became frightened and began to kick. Mrs. Morrison attempted to jump out of the carriage but was caught by one of the wheels and drawn round with it several times. She was severely and painfully bruised, but fortunately was not seriously injured.

Guild Valley Items.

Guy Carter made a flying trip to our neighborhood last week.

Some of our boys visited Peavine school last Tuesday evening. A good time was reported.

A number of cattle buyers have been in our vicinity the past week. Looks like prosperity has struck the country sure enough.

Time rolls on, and with it the second month of our school closed last Friday. The directors have been very fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Watts as teacher for a six-month's term of school, instead of four months as first intended. Many thanks to the gallant young man who was so kind as to build us a sidewalk. Had his gallantry extended a little farther, we perhaps would be able to get out of the mud.

The Reporter and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2, strictly in advance.

Don't be persuaded into buying liniments without reputation or merit—Chamberlain's Pain Balm costs no more, and its merits have been proven by a test of many years. Such letters as the following, from L. G. Bagley, Hueneme, Cal., are constantly being received: "The best remedy for pain I have ever used is Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and I say so after having used it in my family for several years." It cures rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. For sale by S. Howorth & Co.

Columbus School Notes.

Written review again this week. The weather has caused a good many absent marks this week.

Our football team intends to play a game with the Lafayette seminary team next Saturday.

The subject for debate Friday night is: Resolved, That the game of football produces more evil than beneficial results.

We believe it is a good idea in walking to always turn to the right. If each person would follow this rule probably there would not be so much trouble, especially among students.

The Oregon Society of Sons of the American Revolution has offered prizes of $25, $15 and $10 for the best essay written by any public school student under 21 years of age, on the following subjects: 1. The continental congress—the influence which caused it to assemble; its character and rank as a deliberative body; what it accomplished. 2. The causes which led to armed resistance in Massachusetts, including the contest of Lexington and Concord. 3. The Trenton-Princeton campaign. 4. The surrender of Cornwallis and the causes leading up to it. We think there will be several from our school enter the contest. Although our school may not carry off the prize we are in hopes we will learn more about the American revolution.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

At this time of year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has always given entire satisfaction.—Olagah, Ind. Ter., Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among many thousands who have used it for colds and la grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia. Persons who have weak lungs or have reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, should keep the remedy at hand. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by S. Howorth & Co.

Wm. Holl of Portland was in the city Saturday.

Cook School Notes.

Parents are welcome to visit us at all times.

Over 20 pupils were out of school Tuesday on account of the storm.

Villa Brown, Jimmie Bynum and Claud Walker have been on the sick list during the past few days.

Spelling matches are now the order on Friday afternoon. Ciphering matches will also be indulged in before the winter is over.

Written reviews are in order again, and as far as we are able to find out, results are fairly good. Those who remain out of school several days each month do not receive as high a grade as those who are present all of the time.

The composition work of the 7th and 8th grades shows great improvement for the short space of time they have practiced. Instruction will be given in this work in connection with the regular grammar work. Many of the pupils are going to compete for the prize composition in February.
