There are three little things which do more work than any other three little things created—they are the ant, the bee and DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the last being the famous little pills for stomach and liver troubles. Hill's Pharmacy.

Remember the free lecture tomorrow night at the opera house, by D. C. Herrin, state lecturer for the Workmen. He is a very logical talker, and will interest you. There will be music by the orchestra, and a quartette of singers. Come out and learn the advantages of this beneficiary order over all others.

Quite a large number of the members of the Baptist church unceremoniously entered the house of the pastor on Tuesday evening and for an hour or two had everything their own way. Of course they and the pastor's family had a pleasant time together and it was made all the more pleasant for the pastor's home because of the goodly number of articles that were left that will remind us for some time to come that we were visited. We express our heartfelt thanks.

MR. AND MRS. R. W. KING.

In the report of the successful rendition of "Esther, the Beautiful Queen" last week, the valuable services of Miss Helen Calbreath as accompanist were unintentionally overlooked. Miss Calbreath is a graduate in the teachers' course of music in Willamette university, under Emil Winkler, who ranked the highest at Liepsic in a class numbering 229. Her studies have been among the best authors and teachers, and her work in the cantata was indefatigable and of inestimable value.

The meetings of the populist and democratic primaries last Saturday scarcely created a ripple of interest. In many instances, we are informed, they had to go out and drum the faithful in, in order to have enough for a business quorum. Referring to the apparent lack of interest, a leading populist remarked: "You see our people are a laboring people and they don't find time to attend to politics." The facts are, the laboring people have discovered that fusion politics don't save the country, and free silver and Bryanism are unadulterated humbugs.

A great scarcity of beef cattle is staring the country in the face, especially are the butchers worried. One buyer rode forty miles the other day without finding a hoof. Several shippers have been buying over the county for some time, which with local demand, has greatly thinned the supply. The situation may not be relieved short of two months, and beef is likely to become dearer. Here is one of the opportunities to make money which occasionally come to the farmer who is prepared. There is money for the man now who has fat cattle. Butchers at Salem are shipping in from southern Oregon.

Rev. E. A. Ross, the noted evangelist who was here about two years ago, will be in McMinnville next Monday, March 7th, to assist in a series of meetings at the Methodist Episcopal church. He will preach Monday at 7:30 p. m., and every subsequent day during the meetings at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Ross uses the bible as his magazine, loads heavy, aims well and then shoots into the ranks of the enemy regardless of name or profession and without fear or favor. The general public, including churches and pastors, are cordially invited to every service, but to secure a seat it will be necessary to go to church early. By 7:30 the seats will be likely all taken.

Harry Watkins, a capitalist of McMinnville, was in Corvallis Monday night and went to Philomath Tuesday to visit friends in that locality.—Corvallis Times.

Dr. Goucher had a runaway Tuesday evening while on a professional trip to Gopher valley. We understand he was dragged some distance, and considerably shaken up, but not seriously hurt.

A sure sign that we are growing town is the fact that another teacher will be a necessity in the public schools next year. Some of the departments have been crowded the present year. There are three available rooms for new departments.

Bird Handley and Tom Owens, two young boys living southwest of town, shot a bald eagle last Friday that measured seven feet from tip to tip of wings. It had been making greater inroads on the lambs in that section than a wolf is capable of.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. Hill's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chrisman and Mrs. A. H. Gaunt are expected to return from their winter's sojourn in California next Monday. When the mayor comes home is another sure sign of spring, the same as when he goes to the coast is a sure sign of summer.

O. O. Hodson exhibited in his store window a number of interesting California trophies secured on his late visit. Among them is a photograph of the monument marking the boundary line between California and Mexico. Capt. Harris of this city assisted in the erection of this monument.

Wm. and Lloyd Henderson, J. E. Durham and Wm. Petch hope to get off for the Copper river country some time during the present month. They have their sleds made, and will take about 600 pounds of provisions to each person. The cause of their waiting is due to the fact that no ships are at present sailing into Cook's Inlet. The boys are walking everywhere they go now in order to get toughened for future pedestrian feats.

Mrs. Warren returned Monday evening from California, where she has been for the past month, three weeks of that time being spent in San Francisco trimming. Mrs. Warren says San Francisco is the place to go to see style, and by going and selecting her goods she has by far the finest stock of millinery ever brought to McMinnville. The ladies of McMinnville and Yamhill county are invited to call and examine this stock Saturday, March 26th, 1898.

A piano recital will be given at the opera house March 4th next, by Miss P. Smith of Portland, assisted by Miss Spencer of this city. The proceeds are to be given to St. James church. These ladies are both pupils of Mrs. Evenden, Miss Smith having been under her tuition for over two years. They are young artists of great ability and promise, and the entertainment will be a rare treat to lovers of fine music. Reserved seats 35 cents, general admission 25 cents.

Will there be any business in McMinnville next summer? It looks exactly like it. Two churches will be erected at an aggregate cost of $11,000, to say nothing of the numerous fruit driers that are more than likely to spring up in advance of the coming crop. A number of residences are also to be built in 1898. McMinnville is rapidly learning the secret that home improvement and investment is the surest harbinger of prosperity. She is now and is destined to be a thriving town.

When a Hen Lays an Egg

She cackles. When a man gets in a new stock of goods it is human for him to crow over it. If he opens up his new styles and blows his trumpet in the newspaper (the best place to advertise a la Wanamaker and all good judges) wise people know that he has something on hand worth advertising, and will patronize him.

The Result

on the part of the hen, is a cheerful disposition—a sense of duty performed. Likewise the merchant. If he can give you a bargain and send you away happy, at a living profit to himself, he feels good, too. It is needless to say that every purchaser gets a bargain at

A. J. APPERSON'S.

He is here for that purpose. He is not here one day and in some other town the next, but for twelve years has been cultivating cheerful dispositions by dispensing bargains to the people.

There will be a mass meeting of the prohibition party of Yamhill county at the W. C. T. U. reading rooms in McMinnville, Oregon, at 10 a. m., Saturday, March 19, 1898, for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention and nominating a county ticket.

After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Purcell of Knitnersville, Pa., was cured by using a single box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. Hill's Pharmacy.

It is said that a bill will be presented to the county commissioners to cover the damage to a horse owned by J. L. Rogers which was injured by a barb-wire fence surrounding the court house block, and if the same is not paid, suit will follow, based on Secs. 3459, 3460 and 3461 of the code, which requires the keeping of a board on all wire fences.

A Bad Toothbrush

Usually looks like a good one when you buy it. That is a falling in the toothbrush business, and its the reason why so many people pay a good price for a poor brush. The real test comes after you have had one for some time. Then comes either satisfaction or disappointment—bristles pull out or break off, and teeth-cleaning becomes an aggravation. We have some (they cost 25 cents) which will give satisfaction when the real test comes. They are made for particular, economical people—those who want a good, lasting article. They will therefore suit you.
