R. J. HENDRICKS, Chairman.

Republican Central Committee.

Seventeen of the 21 republican committeemen met at the court house on Saturday pursuant to published call. A. M. Waddell was selected to represent Whiteson until a committeeman is elected. On motion of Mr. Yates of South Sheridan it was decided to hold two separate conventions. The date for the primaries was set for Saturday, April 23, and that for county convention, Wednesday, April 6th. The basis of representation will be one at large and one for every 12 votes or fraction of 6 or over cast for Wm. McKinley. This will give a total delegation of 171, divided by precincts as follows: Anity 7, Baker Creek 7, Bellevue 3, Carlton 7, Cheecowen 7, Dundee 4, East Dayton 10, West Dayton 7, Fairlawn 7, Lafayette 8, North McMinnville 8, South McMinnville 10, North Newberg 11, South Newberg 10, North Yamhill 6, North Sheridan 8, South Sheridan 6, Willamina 13, Willamette 4, West Chehalum 5, Whiteson 2. At large 21.

Magers, C. H. Brown, H. H. Winslow, proxy for H. H. Graves, C. P. Yates, proxy for G. W. Bibbe, Ed Lamson, proxy for H. Z. Foster, Chas. Williamson, W. W. Nelson and A. M. Waddell.

The gold reserve has gone up another notch. It has passed the $167,000,000 mark.

These terrible "gold standard" times have brought light yearling steers in Kentucky down to the low price of $21.75 per head.

The United States senate has given notice to the Oregon legislature that the members must attend to business and legally elect a United States senator if they want the state to be represented in the senate.—Inter Ocean.

The abandonment of the relief expedition by the United States government leaves Uncle Sam with over four hundred raiders on his hands. This was another case of yellow newspaper. There was never any excuse for the proposed expedition to relieve the Klondikers.

The real magnitude of the silver republican organization is demonstrated when they meet in mass convention. There appears to be just fourteen of them in Yamhill county. No wonder they are looking around for a chance to hitch on to the hind end of some old thing. Better come back, boys; but come like true prodigals.

The United States has never lost a war. This record is what is making us sassy.

The latest button is the Maine button. It has a picture of the battleship Maine on it, and is worn with a small American flag.

"Fuse, of course they'll fuse," exclaimed a middle-of-the-road populist. "The men who have been in the party longest and stood by its flag when the battle was for principle without hope of reward, have been turned down in the scramble for office and the delegations packed in the interest of fusion and political boodle.

KENTUCKY has asked congress for "$250,000 to dredge Salt river." Until the Dingley law gets into good working order Uncle Sam cannot afford it. Besides, there is a good dirt road up Salt river, and 16-to-1-ers can just as well walk along the banks this year and meditate over the miseries they and the country have escaped.

It is said that Secretary of State Kincaid is hustling for re-nomination. He ought to announce on which ticket he wants his name placed. Straight republicans only need apply for nomination on the ticket of the G. O. P. this year, and a man like Kincaid who refused to support McKinley has a superabundance of gall to ask for a re-nomination at the hands of the republicans.—Albany Herald.

There is a row brewing between two of our southern neighbors, Nicaragua and Costa Rica, which may occur at any moment. Both countries have grievances against each other. A few weeks ago the president of Nicaragua ordered the arrest of the Costa Rica consul at Managua on the charge of conspiracy, and sent him to prison for twenty days, when he was bailed out by an English banker. Costa Rica demanded an apology, which has not been made. Nicaragua claims to have evidence that the consul was furnishing aid and information to the leaders of a revolution, but it has not been produced, and the controversy continues.

SPEAKER REED of the house recently made a new rule, by announcing that hereafter he proposes to hold members strictly to the subject under consideration, and will permit no more stump speeches. Members must talk on the subject in hand, or not at all. Tom Reed never made a decision that will win him greater admiration. The people are tired of stump speeches in congress when the members should attend to their business, and adjourn. Mason's speech in the senate recently is a sample of the freedom allowed legislators. For over three hours he worked his bellows in blowing forth a volume of insult to President McKinley, the cabinet, and navy department. Reed's ruling is against jingoism and nonsense.

WHILE W. J. Bryan is frolicking around in the cotton belt, telling about the hard times and the crime of '73, and insisting there is no hope for farmers and workingmen in a land "cursed by gold," they are knocking all the sand from under his feet up in Nebraska. The bureau of industrial statistics in Nebraska has just sent out a statement showing that during the last six months of 1892 there were filed 5673 farm mortgages, aggregating $5,576,733, and there were released 8235, aggregating $7,557,392. City mortgages were filed to the number of 2252, aggregating $1,890,830, and 3969, aggregating $4,245,918 were released. This is rather cruel, to come from friends that the boy orator had trusted. But they seem to think of business before 16-to-1 politics. They are right. It is a feather in Nebraska's cap, and it will do her good.

At Mt. Sterling, county court day cattle sold at 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents, and this in the down-trodden days of 1893, after twenty-five years of "continually descending prices," and yet, in 1858, after nine years of California gold inflation and sixty-six years of free and unlighted coinage, cattle were worth 11 to 13 cents.—Richmond (Ky.) Pantagraph.

The different national parties that stalk behind a silver issue recently issued an address, urging fusion. They outlined their wishes in every state. In Kansas the situation is to be as follows: A democrat is promised the senatorship in two years. Harris, populist, is to continue in the senate; Botkin, Vincent, McCormick, Ridgely, Peters and Simpson, all signers and populists, are to continue in the house. The state is largely given to populists, the democrats being fed with promises for the future. The same plan will be attempted in Oregon. The democrats start out well and with a good appearance of self-control. They really make the largest showing in convention, but mark the words of Mr. Watkins, uttered last Saturday in this city: "We are the power behind the throne and propose to have our say in filling the offices and dictating a platform." The democrats will be given promises for the future.

Do you know that Elsie Wright carries a full line of lubricating oils for machinery? Owners of valuable harvesting and other machinery cannot afford to experiment with poor oils. He carries the best on the market and they are warranted not to gum.

The athletic track team are improving the pleasant days in active preparation for a field day contest with Portland high school.

The athletic club team, consisting of Brown, Toney, Vanette and L. Thompson, under the supervision of Prof. Brumback, will give an entertainment in Albany Saturday evening.

Fred Boardman, brother of President Boardman, will enroll as the first new student for the spring quarter.

Delia Baxter, class of '97, and Charles Nelson, a former student, were visitors in chapel Wednesday morning.

After several weeks' absence, Mayme Carr was also with us on Wednesday.

Tuesday morning President Boardman went to Portland returning in the evening with his mother and brother, who expect to make McMinnville their future home.

This week closes the work of the spring quarter. Examinations will be held on Monday and Tuesday of next week. As usual, a number of students expect to drop out at the beginning of the spring term.

Mrs. Allen of Portland, acting secretary of the northwest committee of the Y. W. C. A., will meet the McMinnville association Thursday and Friday.

The girls are quite enthusiastic over their newly organized debating club. A few weeks ago they received a challenge to debate with the young ladies of Pacific university. The challenge was accepted, but the terms have not been fully settled.

Thursday saw a large enthusiastic body of students with Profs. Barker and Brumback at their head, on their way to Albany to represent old McMinnville at the state oratorical contest which will be held there Friday evening. The delegates from McMinnville to the state association were: Misses Wallace, Spencer Stout and Grey and Messrs. Rowton, Thompson, Sawtelle and Grover. Among the other students who made up the joyous throng, we notice the names of Misses Hall and Barrett and Messrs. Toney, Vanette, Brown, L. Thompson, Smith and McKillop. With all these valiant friends and staunch supporters, our orator Sherman must surely win the contest.

Spring Humors

Those unsightly eruptions, painful boils, annoying pimples and other affections, which appear so generally at this season, make the use of that grand Spring Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, a necessity. The accumulated impurities in the blood cause very different symptoms with some people. The kidneys, liver and bowels are overmatched in their efforts to relieve the clogged system. Dizzy headaches, bilious attacks, failure of appetite, coated tongue, lame back, indigestion and that tired feeling are some results. From the same cause may also come scrofula, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism.

All these troubles and more may properly be called "Spring Humors," and just as there is one cause, a cure is found in just one remedy, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the impure blood, enriches blood which is weak and thin, vitalizes blood which lacks vitality. Thus it reaches every part of the human system. For your Spring Medicine—to prevent or cure Spring Humors, take
