Bishop Morris of the Episcopal church visited the McMinnville parish Tuesday evening and held confirmation services for three new members, assisted by Rev. Geo. Plummer of Corvallis. The bishop has just entered his 80th year, yet his step is vigorous and his hair but little whitened, and he works harder than most men of middle age. Twenty-nine years have elapsed since his first visit to the church here as bishop.

E. V. Littlefield is a king pin when it comes to running for office, though he ran against a very good man. His big majority is well explained by a friend. Ed has taught school in Willamina and Sheridan, lives in McMinnville, was born in Lafayette, has a brother in Newberg, married a wife in Willamette, has relatives in West Chehalis, his father ran at large in the county a few days before election, and Ed is liked everywhere.

The Colt Show.

Sheriff Henry's colt exhibition occurred Saturday and was well patronized. There were 27 sucking colts exhibited, 2 yearlings and one three-year-old—all fine descendants of Van S. and a proud family. W. B. Sharp's colt took the blue ribbon for general purpose qualities, and Mr. Barber of North Yamhill got first on roaster. The judges on roasters were Ira Earhart, Tom Frazer and E. M. Wheeler. Those on general purpose were: Duncan Ross, Geo. Allen and Alfred Fletcher. Many said they were the finest lot of colts from one horse ever exhibited in the county.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by S. H. Worth & Co.

D. M. Caldwell loses the office of county treasurer by three votes. This is unusually close, and if Davy had known what was coming he believes he could easily have rustled a few more friends. This reminds old timers of several instances in which there has been a tie vote in this county.

If Your Time Is Worth Anything To You

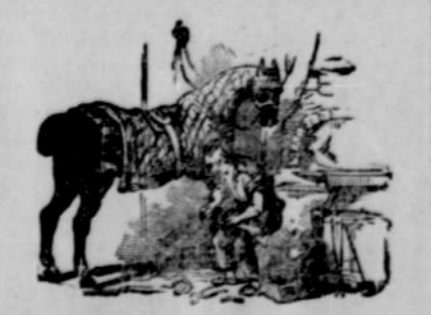

Then a good watch is indispensable. A watch is not an article of luxury, and only carried by the rich like it used to be in our Grandfathers' days, but a necessity to everyone who values their time, and the cost is a secondary consideration.

A good, first-class time-keeper for $6.50, better for $10.00.

Good gold fills from $11 up, cheaper for those who want them.

We guarantee all of our watches.
