H. M. Bond is a good immigration agent, judging from the number of people who have followed him to Oregon since his recent visit to Illinois. There arrived on Monday from Graysville, in that state, eleven persons, eight of whom expect to remain. They are, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pace and four children, Mrs. L. C. Bond, Milo's mother, and his sisters, Miss Jennie Bond and Mrs. Jennings, with her two children. The last three are here for a visit, the others will make Oregon their home.

N. C. Christenson of the firm of Christenson & Sawyer, and proprietor of the Grange warehouse, has been in the city this week, arranging for the coming warehouse season. He made a thorough canvass among the farmers of this vicinity a short time ago, and finds an encouraging outlook for a good season's run this year. Mr. Christenson is favorably known in this county, and has been in the warehouse business in Newberg for several years. We bespeak a good patronage for this firm, and are glad to welcome them among us.

 Home circle, No. 57, went to Lafayette Tuesday night and mingled with the lodge there in a supper and a general good time.

We see by an exchange that shirt-waists have reached that stage of popularity that girls are getting married in them.
 There will be Children's day and young people's service at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. A good program is prepared which will be well rendered.
 A. W. Severance, Esq., of Tillamook, was in the city on business Wednesday. He reports fine prospects in his county, the hay crop being shoulder high, and the finest he ever saw.

The bible normal class is holding interesting meetings each Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Christian church, under the leadership of Prof. W. I. Reynolds. More members are desired.
 I am able to furnish loans on first-class farm security, from $2,000 upward, at 7 per cent interest; loans to run from 3 to 5 years. Parties wishing to borrow money, call and see me. R. L. CONNER.

One of the sorrel horses in Bent Coulter's dray team came near slicing off one of its hind hoofs by sitting down in a road scraper Monday. Fortunately it was not a serious cut, and the horse was on duty next morning.

Eastern Oregon's twelve counties harvested over 12,000,000 bushels of wheat in 1897, says the Pendleton Tribune. This year the yield in the same territory will, in all probability, exceed that amount by 2,000,000 bushels.

To all those who patronize the McMinnville Steam Laundry, and to all those who do not, see our shirts, collars and cuffs, and sample same with the work that is sent through agents and be convinced that my laundry work is the best.
 Wm. Lambert,
 Prop. McMinnville Steam Laundry.

Mrs. Nettie Keasey of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Guild. She is accompanied by a young daughter, that enjoys the distinction of representing five generations of living people, having a mother, a grandmother, great grandmother and great great grandmother. The latter is 96 years old, and lives in California.

Mrs. Mamie Briggs, Grand Chief of Honor, D. of H., paid a visit to McMinnville lodge, Monday afternoon, the occasion being celebrated with an ice cream festival. The grand chief visited the Lafayette lodge in the evening, and was escorted by over a dozen persons from this city. Here was another banquet of good things, and fraternity was rampant. Such a round of receptions would kill some people, but the grand chief evidently bears the strain well. She reports a membership in this order in the jurisdiction of Oregon of nearly 1,000, with 60 beneficiaries taken out in the past month.

The Southern Pacific company will carry passengers between all stations on its lines in Oregon at one fare for the round trip on the fourth of July. Tickets at this rate will be on sale on the afternoon of July 2d, on July 3d and 4th, and will be limited to expire on July 5th or 6th, according to the distance. The company is in line with the widespread spirit of patriotism throughout the country at this time, and is anxious to offer as much inducement as possible to enable the people to attend and participate in the celebrations.
