FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1898.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY is receiving congratulations from all parts of the world.

THE prediction may safely be ventured that as soon as the democrats win an election in one of the islands they will immediately begin insisting that they were the original expanders.

ADMIRAL DEWEY, it is said, has never voted in a political election in his life, holding, as so many of the older men in the army and navy do, that an officer ought not to dabble in politics.

It is kind of Col. Bryan to admit that the war has caused even a temporary return of prosperity. It is of less importance what caused it than that the condition is recognized and admitted to exist even temporarily.

"If anyone attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot!" was sound doctrine in 1860. It is equally wholesome in 1898.

It is current opinion among the best informed politicians that an extra session of the legislature will be assembled about Oct. 5th.

ILLINOIS claims to be the banner state of the late war. It has sent more men to the front than any other state in the union, and this is true as to the navy as well as to the army.

The surrender of Manila occurred after the peace protocol had been signed but before the command to cease hostilities had reached either army.

PRESIDENT McKinley now follows up his announcements of the mobilization of the powerful and terrible eastern squadron of battle-ships and cruisers by causing it to be given out that he had some work planned for this squadron just as soon as the preliminaries of peace are settled.

ADMIRAL DEWEY's figure in the war just closed towers above every other in the army or navy. It is not alone as a fighting commander that Dewey has earned his high distinction.

A great amount of space is being consumed by some of our contemporaries regarding an extra session. We were talking to a prominent state politician recently and asked him his opinion about the extra session.

A house and lot in Carlton near center of town. House comparatively new, with seven rooms. Will give time on part of purchase money.

EDITOR Williamson of the Oregon Agriculturist, thinks that "if there were no railroads in the world wheat would probably never sell for less than a dollar a bushel in Willamette valley towns which are reached by steamboats.

taken place in the past quarter of a century, because there are very few large areas of land adapted to wheat culture which have not already been exploited.

ABOUT 7,000,000 persons in this country are engaged in manufacturing. The advisability of keeping the oceans open to our commerce ought to be conceded without an argument.

THE Ohio democrats in convention assembled, have voted to pull down the American flag in the Philippines. The people will pull down the democratic party in Ohio on election day.

THE California republicans have nominated H. T. Gage of Los Angeles for governor. The platform endorses the St. Louis platform of 1896 and the administration is urged to secure an international monetary agreement whenever an opportunity to do shall be present, which will not likely be very soon.

The Rev. W. B. Costly of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by S. Howorth & Co.

The Supreme Master Workman of the A. O. U. W. has issued a circular for War Relief call No. 1, of 50 cents for each full rate member of the order throughout the Union, to pay death policies for widows, children and relatives of soldiers who were killed or died in the war just over.

There are many recipes at this season, when the mercury is doing trapeze work overhead, for the mitigation of suffering from midsummer heat, but so far no one has been heard to advocate the most beneficial of all panaceas, that of exercise.

After Long Illness Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Good Health—Now as Strong as Ever. "After an illness of two years, during which time I underwent several surgical operations, I at last began to improve, but my improvement was so slow that I became discouraged. I was very much run down and I did not have any appetite. I did not care to live. One day I met a friend who had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and who urged me to try it. I consented, and after I had taken a few doses I began to feel better and had a better appetite. I gained from two to three pounds a week and grew stronger every day. I took two or three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and am as strong as I ever was in my life. Hood's Sarsaparilla has brought me back to health." EMILY BILLINGER, 19 Grand Avenue, South Portland, Oregon.

The acetylene gas seems to be the coming light. Some of the McMinnville business men will give it a trial. The light has been installed at Hembree's stationery store by Joe Fellner. Neither of the parties to the circuit judgeship contest of P. H. D'Arcy vs R. P. Boise, set for hearing at Tillamook, appeared there Wednesday, the parties agreeing to try the case on stipulation. By the terms of the stipulations the county clerk received the tally-sheets and stubs from the several precinct election judges for the June election and certified that they were securely kept. Plaintiff offered the ballots in evidence and defendant objected, upon the ground that it had not been shown whether they had been securely kept before they came into the custody of the clerk, and because the ballots were incompetent evidence. The court sustained the objection and plaintiff excepted to the court's ruling, and the exception was allowed. This closed the case, so far as the taking of testimony is concerned, and the matter was taken under advisement. This winds up the trial part of the contest in the circuit court.
