Miss Nettie Kingery of Lamar, Neb., has been employed as primary teacher in the city schools, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. J. H. Cook. Miss Kingery has been attending a normal class this summer in Portland, and was also a teacher in the schools in her home town. Her teachers' certificate shows a general average of 97, which is exceptionally high. Miss Kingery is a niece of D. B. and John Kingery.

F. R. Post has got his fruit evaporator all fitted up and ready for operation. He has more than doubled the capacity of his dryer. Next week he expects to commence evaporating prunes, commencing with prunes from the Crabtree orchard, which, by the way, is one of the finest orchards in the country, well kept, trees healthy and loaded with fruit -it is estimated there will be over 3000 pounds of prunes taken from the orchard. Mr. Post will have the same amount of prunes in his own orchard. He will probably be able to evaporate 300 pounds of prunes every 24 hours .-
