SICK HEADACHE

Is the Bane of Many a Woman's Life—How the Disease may be Cured. A Case Cited.

From the Republican, Bethany, Mo.

Mrs. Fannie B. Stoffle, of Martinsville, Mo., was lately rescued from a fate which nearly wrecked her life.

It seems she has for many years been severely afflicted with a complication of disease and frequently would have fearful attacks in which she would become unconscious for hours.

In one of these, she was unconscious for many hours. Her condition became alarming; the usual restoratives failed to bring relief; the physician's aid proved unavailing and death seemed imminent. She recovered, however, and that she lives to-day is wonderful.

A reporter who was sent to investigate, when he met Mrs. Stoffle could not help but remark "how well she was looking" and could scarcely realize that she had passed through such a trying ordeal as had been represented. In speaking of her experience, Mrs. Stoffle said:

"I used to have terrible sick headaches, which I had as far back as I can remember. In recent years they were getting worse. I would suffer so that I would become unconscious, and the last one I had I was unconscious from seven in the evening until after midnight. I was so bad that the doctor could not get the medicine in my mouth, but had to give me a hypodermic injection. The doctor said I was likely to die in one of those spells."

"A few years ago, I took treatment of a specialist in Kansas City, but it only relieved me for a while.

"When I came here two years ago my health was miserable. My husband who had great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, insisted that I commence using them. I finally consented to try them. After taking a few doses I could see an improvement and my headache spells were not so severe. I kept taking the pills until I had used four boxes, and since that time I have not had any of those attacks and I never felt so well in my life.

"I have recommended the pills to my friends and several have used them with good results.

"I am always glad to tell of the great benefit I received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, for now I feel as though I was the happiest, most contented woman in the world, for with good health who cannot but be happy?"

Mrs. Stoffle is a sister of Joseph Holland, of Bethany, who is well known throughout the county, having been a candidate for sheriff at the election of 1896. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Curtis, of Eagleville, also well known in this county.

No discovery of modern times has proved such a boon to women as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Acting directly on the blood and nerves, invigorating the body, regulating the functions, they restore the strength and health to the exhausted woman who every effort of the physician proves unavailing.

These pills are recognized everywhere as a specific for diseases of the blood and nerves. For paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and other diseases long supposed incurable, they have proved their efficacy in thousands of cases. Truly they are one of the greatest blessings ever bestowed upon mankind.

Did you notice the fine assortment of fancy crockery at Bettman & Warren's?

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Conner went over to Salem Saturday, and visited an uncle.

The best 25-cent meal in the city is obtainable at T. A. White's restaurant.

The Reporter and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2, strictly in advance.

For ice cream, soda water, oranges, lemons, etc., go to T. A. White's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watkins contemplate removing soon to Spokane.

Bettman & Warren candle their eggs before they leave the store.

Hon. Lee Laughlin moved back to North Yamhill the first of the week, but will spend much of his time in this city.

Born—To Henry C. Patty and wife of Amity, September 11th, a seven-pound son. Our informant says Grandpa Sully is stepping high, wide and handsome.

Prof. E. V. Littlefield has moved into the residence property of Mrs. Clara Esen, who, with her daughter, has gone to Eugene to attend the divinity school.

Mrs. J. F. Calbreath and daughters Helen and Evaline will leave about Oct. 1st for Nashville, Tenn., where the daughters will matriculate as students in the conservatory of music. They will be absent several months.

The B. F. Hartman property was bought by George Olds last Saturday, who held it about two days and sold it to Dr. J. H. Cook, who will make it his future residence. The house vacated by Dr. Cook will be occupied by Walter Wade.

During the late conference, a McMinnville lady entertaining preachers, feasted them on both "angel's food" and "devil's cake." While partaking of the latter, the preachers remarked that if the old fellow always had such diet, he must live high.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Norwood of Howell prairie visited their daughters, Mrs. E. C. Apperson and Mrs. W. F. Diehl, who were in the city last week, returning home on Tuesday. Their son James accompanied them to McMinnville, and remains to attend the public schools of this city.

The delivery horse at Bettman & Warren's grocery evidently believes there is no fun in running off unless he is privileged to catch himself. Such was the very amusing incident on Saturday. The horse ran from the grocery to the vicinity of the depot, and then ran back to the grocery and stopped. No damage, and lots of glory for the horse.

B. A. Millsap has decided to embark in general merchandising at Lebanon, having received flattering attention from citizens there on a recent visit. He will depart for that place next Monday, accompanied by his family, and by Wm. Millsap, who will assist several weeks in opening up the business. Bert will rapidly make his mark in trade circles up there.

James Housh's team took a lively spin on Saturday. They broke from their hitching near the city hall, and running down C street struck the iron fence at E. N. Ford's residence. A section of the fence was broken out, and the team went through the yard to the west side of the house and wedged themselves between the house and fence. The iron gate of the fence was sent whirling to the front porch, a distance of about 20 feet, and just within the front door were two small children playing. A boy's tricycle in the yard was made a shadow of its former self.
