

SPAIN SAVED HER HONOR [?]

But has lost everything else. But what have you saved, if you have lost your teeth and your health by neglecting to consult your dentist frequently? In my office all our energies are devoted to saving impaired teeth, but if hopeless, plates and bridges are inserted by the latest and best methods. We will be pleased to talk and advise with you concerning the condition of your teeth.

The friends of Jacob Wortman, president of the First National, were gratified to see him again on the streets the first of this week, after a prolonged absence. He has not fully recovered from the effects incident to surgical operation, but is making such satisfactory progress as to inspire hope of many years of business activity and usefulness.

Dr. E. E. Goucher and Walter Miller got home from British Columbia Saturday evening, looking bronzed and hearty, and had a pleasant summer outing if they didn't find much gold. Dr. Goucher's hair is a good deal whiter than it was April 9th, when they left McMinnville, but he explains it by saying that the birds in arctic climates turn white, and he is a kind of a bird, anyway.

The board of equalization is in session this week. The principal event of their sitting was the appearance before them of Attorney W. D. Fenton of Portland in the interest of the Southern Pacific's taxes. Assessor Wood had raised the valuation $500 per mile, and the railroad objected to the increase on the main line but not on the Newberg road. Reduction was granted to the former valuation on the main line.

Samuel Soper advertises a public sale of his effects on Oct. 8th, in this issue. Sam will soon follow his family to the east, but will go with some misgivings as to the propriety of leaving gentle and salubrious and pleasurable Oregon for the wind-swept plains of Kansas and Nebraska, but may return if he can profitably dispose of a farm he owns in each of these states. He is an industrious and progressive citizen, and will make money wherever he goes. We hope to see him come back.

Richard Knight, who went up to Seattle to live with his son, John, about two weeks ago, and who fractured his thigh by falling, died at the hospital on Saturday, Sept. 24th, and was buried by the Grand Army post of Seattle in their cemetery. Father Knight was a man with a somewhat remarkable career. A native of Ireland, he came to America when 9 years old. He learned the blacksmith trade when at the age of 14. He was twice married, and the father of 10 children. He joined the rush to Pike's Peak in 1860, and for six years was a justice of the peace, hotel keeper and blacksmith in the city of Denver. He enlisted with the Colorado volunteers during the war of the rebellion, and served under Col. Chivington, taking part in the famous Sand creek fight with the Indians. He came to Oregon in 1880. During the last year he had lived with his daughter, Martha Ann Sherman, near this city. He was a man of honor, loved peace, hated falsehood, respected law and in all things was a model citizen.

A Newberg young man was talking to a girl on a higher plane than her education would permit, and finally asked her if she had been favorable to annexation. She replied: "It is rather sudden, but if you are willing, I am."

Mary Dempsey has commenced divorce proceedings in the state circuit court against Caraboo Dempsey, and also asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name, Mary Brisbane. The couple were married in North Yamhill, December 12, 1887, and in 1895, it is alleged, the defendant deserted.—Telegram.

The delegates to the Emergency Corps and Red Cross Society convention returned home Saturday well pleased with the work accomplished. A state organization was formed with 13 auxiliaries. The name Emergency Corps was retained that the local work may be continued for our Oregon boys.

A pile of gravel on the south side of the street opposite The Reporter office has excited some curiosity. It is to be used in a cement walk, extending from Wright's block to the east line of White's restaurant. M. E. Hendrick, Chas. Grissen, Elsie Wright and Bob McDonald own the property fronting on the improvement.

The marriage of Miss Annie Nichol to Dr. H. T. Hooples of Vale, Malheur county, was solemnized yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Cowls, Rev. Frank A. Powell officiating. The couple departed on the 3 o'clock train for their future home at Vale, where the groom is lucratively engaged in medical practice. The bride has a large number of friends in McMinnville.

His Story of What Hood's Sarsaparilla Has Done

Whole Family Greatly Helped by This Medicine.

"I am an old run down soldier, my whole system being out of order and my right side partially paralyzed. I have tried various remedies and realized only temporary relief. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills, and have derived more real benefit from them than anything I have tried. My wife has been greatly helped by Hood's Sarsaparilla. She was all run down and her system much out of order. My two little boys recovered quickly from the effects of diphtheria by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which rid them of troublesome sores and symptoms of the group. They are now well and hearty." W. F. BURNETT, Starkey, Oregon. Remember

The A. J. Apperson stock of general merchandise has been bought by Portland parties and will be closed out at the old stand.

To Patrons of the Public Schools.
The undersigned begs to announce that he has the largest and best assorted stock of school books and stationery west of Portland; also, the laws of the state, outside of textbooks, do not prescribe the kind of paper, tablet or composition books to be used, but uniform grades and sizes can be found at any stationery store; notwithstanding this fact, certain of the public school teachers of this city, contrary to instructions from the principal, requested their pupils in the schoolroom, to purchase a certain kind of composition book with a certain kind of a cover, and that said article could be bought at the store of a certain school officer.

As a taxpayer and a patron of the schools I protest against teachers using the school room as a means of advertising private business, even if it should be that of some certain school officer.

Yours in fairness,
CHAS. GRISSEN.

To OUR PATRONS FRIENDS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC:

We are constantly adding New and Attractive Lines to all departments of our Store. We are cognizant of the fact that many of our customers cannot realize the large assortment of stock carried by us unless by a visit to our establishment.

We Cordially Invite you to Call and See Us.

Our force of accommodating clerks are prepared to give you the best of attention.

It has long been our ambition to have a stock so complete, so tastefully arranged and marked down to such reasonable prices that our patrons could see no necessity to send to any outside city for any article. We know we have attained this result, as we have laid in a stock of goods such as has never been approximated in Yamhill county, and is equaled by but few stocks in Oregon. The following lines of goods are carried by us: Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots & Shoes, Hats and Millinery, Furnishing Goods, Trunks and Valises, fine line of Capes and Jackets, ready-made Skirts and Suits. We have just added a large assortment of Carpets, Linoleums and Window Shades, also a fine line of Suitings just received for our Tailoring Department, and we guarantee a perfect fit.

All the goods kept by us are purchased in large quantities direct from the manufacturers, and much of our clothing is made up in our own factory, and we are thus in a position to supply them to you at Eastern prices.

We are grateful for your past patronage, and respectfully ask that you take advantage of our increased efforts to please and to place the very best bargains within easy reach.

Respectfully Yours,

R. JACOBSON & CO.

WITCH HAZEL

Is fast becoming a household friend. It is far better than the many patent nostrums now on the market for the relief of scalds, burns, wounds, sprains or bruises, toothache, rheumatism, neuralgia. We buy only the best, made by E. E. Dickinson & Co., and fully recommend it as a valuable household remedy. Witch Hazel and Alcohol mixed half and half works wonders for soreness from excessive exercise.
