Custer Corps No. 5 have elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, Mrs. J. P. Irvine; S. V. P., Mrs. Colby; J. V. P., Mrs. J. E. Noll; Treas., Mrs. N. Kegg; Chap., Mrs. Keen; Con., Mrs. J. W. Gault; Gaud, Mrs. Hopfield.

Calvin Long has just measured the product of a piece of ground 18x130 feet on which he cultivated yellow tankard beets last season. It amounted to 4906 pounds, or nearly two and a half tons, an almost incredible yield. We leave it for the arithmetic class to figure out the yield per acre, and for the wide awake dairyman to make out the number of cows that could be kept on the product.

The Reporter is anxious to see a good patronage accorded to the exceptionally high-grade entertainment to be given by Mrs. Evenden and Madame Norelli at the opera house tonight. It believes the community cannot take too much pride in standing by home talent and effort, and everybody knows it pays best in a financial way. Half the proceeds will be given the band by Mrs. Evenden, which is certainly generous, and should cause the band boys to rally as one man to secure a large house.

Yamhill lodge No. 10 D. of H. last Friday evening elected the following officers: Mrs. A. Matthies, C. of H.; Mrs. S. Wilson, L. of H.; Mrs. J. G. Eckman, C. of C.; Miss Bessie L. Houck, Fin.; Mrs. J. E. Noll, Receiver; Mrs. E. Wright, Recorder; Miss Carrie Schenk, Usher; Mrs. J. Bennett, I. W.; Mgs. Geo. Savage, O. W. During the session Mrs. J. A. Young, in a very neat and appropriate speech, presented the lodge with an ebony gavel sent by her husband from Manila, the material being secured by him from the wrecked Spanish warship Reina Christina. The trophy is a valuable one because of its history, and is heartily appreciated by the lodge. McMinnville is likely to be envied by her neighbors in the number and excellence of her war trophies. The gavel has been decorated with the red, white and blue.

Chaplain Lozier's lecture on "Apron Strings" at the M. E. church Monday night was quite well attended, and enjoyed by all present. The lecture was an ingeniously constructed poem throughout, requiring over two hours to deliver it, and then the lecturer said he only gave a little over half of it. It made out a clear case for Mother Eve in ridding her of the responsibility for all the evil resulting to mankind from the "fall," and laid more on Adam than he usually has to bear. It was a cutting arraignment of those individuals who cast sneers and jibes at the youth who cling to their mother's apron strings as a place of safety, and was well calculated to impress the sacredness and safety of the mother character. The lecture is soon to appear in book form, subscriptions for which were taken by the Chaplain. Lozier is a good singer, and altogether a particularly bright old man.

Will Christmas be observed in McMinnville on Saturday, the 24th, or Monday, the 26th. Employers are generally in favor of opening on both days, while the clerks would like to have both days for holidays.

Those coming late to the Evenden-Norelli concert tonight are kindly asked to enter during an interval between numbers, and thus disturbance will be avoided. This is good etiquette, and ought to be adopted in all recitals.

The statement of the McMinnville National published in another column speaks well for the prosperous condition of the country as well as its own prosperity. The volume of both loans and discounts and deposits are unusually heavy.

Officers chosen by the order of Eastern Star at their last meeting are: Mrs. C. H. McKinney, worthy matron; Frank Spencer, worthy patron; Mrs. Lottie Hobbs, associate matron; secretary, Miss Stella Patty; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Peery; conductress, Miss Allie Link; associate conductress, Mrs. Myrta Conner.

The freezing weather prevalent for a few days, naturally alarmed the farmers a little as to its effect upon the wheat. Most of the wheat fields in this county are well drained and probably no harm has resulted, but upon low flat lands where the water stood upon the surface it is probable there has been more or less damage.

The Quaker Botanical Herbs have certainly established an enviable reputation throughout the state of Oregon during the past six months. It seems that such diseases as rheumatism, lame or weak back, liver difficulties, and some female irregularities are bound to succumb to a constitutional treatment of this rare combination of medicinal herbs.

Custer Post No. 9 G. A. R. of this city elected the following officers last Saturday: Rev. G. W. Grannis, commander; Wm. Weas, senior vice commander; J. C. Cooper, junior vice commander; J. B. Gardner, surgeon; G. W. Keen, chaplain; J. A. Peckham, officer of the day, and E. F. Manning, quartermaster. These officers are recognized as par excellence each for his place, and the state encampment next June will be properly engineered.

The Evenden-Norelli recital will take place Friday, Dec. 18th, at the opera house. This will be the treat of the season to all lovers of fine music. Madame Norelli has a lovely soprano voice of world-wide reputation. She will be assisted by a pupil, who is a fine baritone. Mrs. Evenden and her Treble Clef club will take part, making a combination that is very seldom heard in our city. Seats reserved 50c, general admission 25c. 51-2

The offer made by the Quaker Medicine Co., viz: "Your money back if you want it," is certainly one that should be taken advantage of by those suffering with those chronic ailments which their remedies are said to cure.

Joseph Hoberg received from his son Charles at Manila on Wednesday a Spanish flag on which was inscribed the names of all the boys of Co. A., and scenes about Manila, by an artist of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thomas of San Francisco forward their compliments to the people in this neck 'o woods. Mrs. Thomas was formerly Miss Rebecca Perry of Lafayette.

The entertainment and basket social by the young ladies Saturday evening netted them money enough to pay their pro rata for the rosters, and place them out of debt. The attendance was good and the program first-class. 23 baskets were sold.

The Quaker doctors are in McMinnville, giving nightly entertainments at the opera house. A pleasing feature to crowds of people on the street is the jumping of a little spaniel dog from the top of a 50-foot ladder into a net, each evening before the show begins. The little fellow is greeted with cheers every time he lands. The first night the ladder was icy, and the dog slipped and fell, when half way up, but was saved from injury by falling against a man in the crowd. His courage was up all right for the next night's performance. The entertainment upon the inside is free, and of an amusing character. The entertainers get their remuneration by selling the Quaker remedies and diagnosing cases of ill health.

Extremely Weak
Deficient Blood Causes Loss of Appetite and Final Break Down—Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

"I lost my appetite and about all I lived on was food lemonade. My strength was all gone. I was so weak I could hardly cross the floor. At last I was taken very sick. One physician told me my blood was all gone and he gave me medicine but it did not help me. I had pretty much lost all faith in medicines, but thought I would get one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and try it. After taking that bottle I was much better, and so I got two more bottles and after taking them I was well, but to be sure of it, I kept on taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until I had used in all five bottles. It has done unspeakable good to me and I wish all my suffering sisters would try it." Mrs. A. EVENSEN, Wedderburn, Oregon. Remember

"Any Old Thing"

Suits some people, because it's cheap, while as a matter of fact, dirt cheap goods are usually dear at any cost, especially in our line of trade. We keep some cheap goods in order to please those who must have them, but we constantly preach as a business principle the wisdom of buying a good article tho it cost a trifle more. It's a saving in the long run of money and temper. Hence the quality of our goods, and the pleasant countenances of our customers.
