NEWBERG.

The Schley dancing club gave a pleasant dancing party on Saturday last.

Leon Kenworthy and Mr. Jewett will enjoy their vacation at the home of the latter in Washington.

President Newlin is not expected home until February. Mrs. Newlin and Miss Edna will return for the holidays.

The musicale to be given at the college on Wednesday evening, promises to be a rare treat to music lovers.

Word from John Conlee, who went to Oysterville for his health, is that he is improving and has gained wonderfully in weight.

Fred McDonald is at home, having been honorably discharged from the Kansas volunteers, making glad the hearts of his parents.

If the attendance increases at the M. E. church, as it has under the ministrations of Rev. W. C. Waltz, the church building will certainly need enlarging.

C. H. Christenson passed through town Friday morning on his way to Oregon City to attend the funeral of I. Allison, who was killed by falling on a wood saw.

At the last meeting of Newberg chapter of Newberg, O. E. S., two new members were initiated, a dainty luncheon was served, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Matron, Maggie Littlefield; associate matron, Adella F. Story; patron, J. C. Sawyer; secretary, Frank Story; treasurer, H. D. Fox; conductress, Nellie Larkin; associate conductress, Mrs. Nellie McCulley.

WHITESON.

Merry Christmas to all.

Whiteson is to have a Christmas tree.

The Presbyterian minister will preach in this chapel next Sunday.

Rev. Turner filled his regular appointment in Whiteson last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Linden spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Happy valley.

Mrs. M. M. Bennett is in Benton county with a sister who is not expected to live.

Notices are up calling a meeting of the voters of this school district to vote a tax to build a new school house.

The weather bureau at Portland doesn't know any more about Yamhill weather than a hog does about good behavior.

Miss Percival and assistant, Miss Linden, are making extensive preparations for a grand entertainment at the school house Friday night; admission ten cents.

Quite a number of our citizens are engaged with a small portable mill, saving lumber to repair the sidewalks and build a new one to the church, a much needed improvement.

Colonel Bryan has resigned his commission in the army and retired to private life. In other words, he is beginning to cross the boundary line into the land of obscurity where rolls the distant salt creek, and hears no sound save that of its own dashing.

Peace on earth, good will to men, forgiveness, hope, charity, was the anthem sung by the angel choir nineteen hundred years ago. Christmas bells tell the same old story. Hard must be the heart that does not soften to all mankind on Christmas day.

Gleaned from Amity Valley Times.

Miss Effie Sanders left for Seattle Monday afternoon.

T. B. Ladd left for Tacoma Monday where he will spend the winter.

T. H. Blair and family have gone to Centerville, Calif., to spend the winter.

C. G. LeMasters started for Tillamook Thursday. Mrs. LeMasters will remain here for a while.

A bad accident was caused by a broken fork one day last week. J. A. Likens had the misfortune to run one of the times through his thumb, making a very painful wound.

It is reported that there will be at least one more saloon in town in the near future.

A shooting match will be given here Dec. 23d and 24th. Cash prizes will be given each day.

We understand that Miss Jessie Martin has secured a school east of the mountains at $40 per month.

THE SCHOOLS.

COLUMBUS BUILDING.

Prof. Barzee visited the 7th and 8th grades.

Prof. Holman offered us a prize to the one receiving the highest grade in U. S. history, one of his books, "Colum (bia) and Me." Vernon Derby and Mary Jones having received the same grades, Miss Redmond agreed to buy one book in order that each might have a book.

Enrollment on the roll of honor in the 7th and 8th grades now requires an average scholarship of 80 per cent with a minimum standing of not less than 70 per cent, correct deportment and attendance every day without tardiness. The roll for Columbus school is: Vernon Derby, Stella Webster, Anna Johnson, Pearl Robinson, Florence Bryan, Mintie McCutcheon, Villa Brown and Dena Reynolds.

Roll of honor, 5th and 6th grades: Daisy Cockerham, Pauline Adams, Nellie Turner, Bert Rohr, James Hutchings, Meta Matthies, Laura Siebert, Tressa Booth, Lena Henry, Mary Robinson, Lillie Cockerham, June Patten, Wreath McDonald, Arthur Bogue, Everette Lafolette, Kenyon Talmage. 3d grade: Roger Collard, Freddie Smith, Arnold Johnson, Linsey Wheeler, Louie Kenworthy, Josie Owens, Naomi Carlin, Floris Derby, Eva Hayes, Mary Maurer, Alta Kiyver, Lenora Miller, Ethel Clark, Bessie Llewelling, Willa Morris. 4th, F. Jones, Frank Easter, Samuel Babcock, Ethel Paulus, Lora Fletcher, Helen Robinson, Archie Seibert, Rudolph Miller, Beth Northup, Gracie Collard, Adaline Fay, Bessie Clark.

COOK BUILDING.

Miss Julia Prentiss was a visitor in the 1st and 2d grades last Tuesday.

The 1st and 2d grades will have their Christmas exercises in the Columbus building this Friday, at 10:30 a. m.

Our new flag has arrived, but we will not raise it until after the holidays.

Miss Josie Gardner was a visitor to Miss Mann's room this week.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by S. Howorth & Co.

IN MEMORIAM.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, memorial services in memory of the late Frank W. Hibbs were held at the court house in this city under the auspices of McMinnville Camp No. 128, Woodmen of the World. The large auditorium was filled to overflowing, scores of people going away, unable to get even standing room. The procession formed at Woodmen hall, led by McMinnville band. Next came the Manila Guards, under command of Capt. Nellie Cooper and her aids, who, with the society of the Red Cross, who came next in the procession, had accepted invitations to participate in the exercises. Then came the Woodmen, 120 strong, led by Consul Commander W. T. Macy and President H. L. Boardman. Then to the sweet strains of martial music the column moved slowly and silently up Third street to F. thence north to the east entrance of the court house, where the Manila Guards and Red Cross society opened ranks and the Woodmen filed through, following the band into the hall. The meeting was presided over by Consul Commander W. T. Macy, and the following program rendered: Music by McMinnville band. A choir of 16 male voices sang "We Shall Meet Bye and Bye." Prayer by Neighbor R. W. King. A solo by Miss Jeannie Snyder. Neighbor H. L. Boardman was then introduced, and after presenting a brief sketch of the life of Neighbor Hibbs, in which he touchingly referred to the fact that only one short year ago he was a student at the college, he took as a text, Hebrews, 11:4—"He being dead yet speaketh." His theme was "The voiceless dead," and for 40 minutes held the large audience's attention in an earnest and eloquent address, and, as with tender words and pathetic voice, he paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the dead soldier boy who had laid his life on his country's altar in far away Manila, mothers and sisters wept, and strong men brushed away the tear of sympathy. The choir sang "Carried by the Angels," and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Hoberg.

NEWS FROM MANILA.

Another Yamhill Boy's Death Announced by Frank Hibbs, Since Deceased.

The difference between the telegraph and mail service was pathetically illustrated on Wednesday, when The Reporter received a letter from Frank Hibbs, announcing the death of Elmer Miller of this county, which occurred just one month previous to Mr. Hibbs' demise. Under date of Nov. 8th, Frank writes as follows of his dead comrade:

"To The Reporter. Dear Sir: I would like for you to notify the people of Yamhill county that one more of their boys in blue has passed away. Elmer Miller, son of John Miller of Happy valley, died this morning, November 8th, 1898, with typhoid fever. We gave him a first-class soldier's burial. I wish to say that he has been a good soldier and always did his duty, and we, the members of company A, will share the grief with his many friends and relatives. FRANK HIBBS."

A letter written by Charley Hoberg to his father stated that "Lieut. Young is in the hospital, but is getting all right now. The boys say they are getting the best of treatment in the hospital since the ladies came. Everything is done for them that can be done under the circumstances. A cablegram announced the blowing up of Washington, D. C. with dynamite. It came from Hong Kong."

DISTANCE NO OBSTACLE.

A Yamhill Young Man Secures the Lady of His Choice.

One of those weddings characterized by a sincerity of purpose which leaves no doubt as to the stability of the contract, was enacted in this county on the 19th inst., when Ira Munding and Miss Sadie Fletcher pledged fidelity to each other for life, at the home of Jacob Munding in Muddy valley. The bride arrived in Oregon last Saturday from her home at Parkersburg, Iowa, where she and the groom were once schoolmates together. The groom met his betrothed at Portland, and accompanied her to her future home. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of a number of guests, by Rev. E. Estes, of this city.

Those present were: Rev. E. Estes, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thurber, Mr. and Mrs. Loban, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Davis, Miss Ida Skinner, Miss Lizzie Dodson, Miss Lena Ross, Miss Annie Laughlin, Miss Bessie Cook, Miss May Winegar, Miss Ina Sherman, Miss Berta Ross, Misses Lois and Naomi Davis, Messrs. H. M. Davis, Lynn Cook, F. W. Bigelow, Wm. Dodson, Allen Davis, A. F. Arthur and John Munding, the latter being an uncle of the groom, and a member of the 9th California heavy artillery, now visiting in Oregon on a furlough.

Numerous wedding gifts from various sources were received as follows:

From McMinnville guests: A pig, a kitchen table, rocking chair, glass set, set silver teaspoons, 3 fruit dishes, 2 jelly dishes, 2 vases, 2 toothpick holders and toothpicks, water pitcher, cakeplate, set and iron, lamp, broom and dust pan, pickle dish, bon bon dish and soap dish. From Beaver, Tillamook county: A lamp.

From Parkersburg, Iowa: Broad plate, card table, berry dish, mustard dish, set silver teaspoons, tidy, pair pillows.

From Monticello, Iowa: Silver butter knife and sugar spoon, pair towels, linen table cloth.

After the ceremony, a sumptuous turkey dinner was served, which was the climax of an occasion of rare enjoyment indeed. Mr. and Mrs. Munding will begin housekeeping on the H. M. Davis place.

Resolutions of Fellow Collegians.

WHEREAS, our friend and schoolmate, Frank Hibbs, has answered to the last long roll call on this earth and joined the ranks of the great army of the redeemed on the shore of the great beyond, and

WHEREAS, he was a student of our college and a member of our class, the class of 1902; be it

Resolved, That in the death of our brave classmate volunteer our college has sustained the loss of one of its best students, one universally honored and respected, and our class of one of its best and most loyal members; fully realizing that his place in our college, in our class, and in our hearts can never be filled as he filled it, but that in the hearts of his classmates and schoolmates there shall ever linger sweet memories of our brave classmate, who so willingly gave his all for his country, on a far, strange shore; who died without a murmur a death requiring far more heroism than is needed to die amid the dash and thunder of battle, and with thoughts of possible glory in mind; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as a class, offer condolence and extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones, as a token of our regard for them and for the departed one; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be inscribed in the records of this class, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family. Signed,

ETHEL HARRIS,
NANNA UNGERMAN,
FRED BOARDMAN,
Committee.
