Our First Annual Clearance Sale

Tuesday, Jan. 3d, 1899, we shall inaugurate our First Great Annual Clearance Sale—a money-losing proposition for us, a money-saving one for you. This sale will commence on January 3d, and positively close on Saturday, January 28th. You all know that the Chicago Store has done a phenomenal business this fall. We are making great preparations for Spring, and have purchased a very heavy stock, and must positively clear out our present stock to make room for goods to arrive Feb. 1st. With this end in view we shall make the most Marked Reductions throughout the entire stock ever shown in Yamhill County. Monday, Jan. 2d, our store will close all day, to mark down goods. Tuesday morning bright and early our doors will be thrown open and the Slaughter will begin.
