Thousands of them, are suffering from lingering diseases induced by life in poisonous southern camps, the result of changes of climate, or of imperfect nutrition caused by improper and badly cooked food. Sleeping on the ground has doubtless developed rheumatism in hundreds who were predisposed to the disease. In such cases the Boys of '98 may take a lesson from the experience of the

Heroes of the Civil War.

Hundreds of the Boys of '63 have testified to the efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in driving out malaria, rheumatism and other diseases contracted during their days of hardship and privation in the army. These pills are the best tonic in the world.

As Robinson, of Mt. Sterling, Ill., is a veteran of the Civil war, having served in the 3rd Kansas Volunteer Infantry, he writes to the editor of the Oregonian: "I had not taken more than half a box when I received a letter from my wife, who had been laid up with rheumatism. Most of the time he was unable for manual labor of any kind, and his sufferings were at all times intense. He says: 'Nothing seemed to give me permanent relief until three years ago, when my attention was called to some of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had not taken more than half a box when I received a letter from my wife, who had been laid up with rheumatism and other diseases contracted during their days of hardship and privation in the army. These pills are the best tonic in the world.'"

At all drug stores, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cts. per box. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, 205 V. Schenectady, N. Y.

"Proprietor gone home, sick with the grip," was the bulletin on the door of A. D. Hoskins' harness shop this week.

J. N. Wisecarver is home from California where he has been for his health since last fall. He seems to be all right again.

The annual school meeting will be held in Columbus building on the first Monday of March, at 2:30 p. m. The term of Director Irvine will expire on that date.

Joab P. Beiler of Amity died of inflammation of the bladder on Monday, the 13th inst., and was buried the following day, Rev. Baldwin of Independence conducting the funeral service. Deceased was an old settler in that section, and was 68 years old. H. C. Burns of this city officiated as undertaker.

The Salem Statesman cautions hop growers as follows: "We advise our hop growing friends to not contract their hops at 10 cts; but to not speculate with their product after it is in the bales. Get your hops already, picked clean, cured well and baled neatly, and then sell them for cash in hand. Don't contract; don't speculate; don't speculate."

St. Valentine was the most lovable saint that ever lived, and it is said he lit the torch of love that has been burning brightly ever since. Lads and lassies of McMinnville sent to their sweethearts loving remembrances of St. Valentine last Tuesday, the anniversary of the date upon which the good saint died a martyr to the tender passion.

The pupils in the Columbus building assembled in Prof. Reynolds' room on Monday and held a little observance of Lincoln's birthday. Dr. Grannis and Director John Evenden spoke very entertainingly of the great and martyred president and gave some amusing anecdotes whose authorship President Lincoln is credited with. The pupils were much pleased with the observance.

Drs. Wright and Lewis of this city were successful in their mission to Salem last week, in securing the modification of a bill affecting the interests of dentists. The particular sections they desired to have amended were those which provided that no student of dentistry was eligible to a diploma who had not served an apprenticeship of three years, and that no one could assist a dentist without ultimately making application for a diploma.

Deputy Revenue Collector John Hobbs in his travels last week came across an amusing letterhead from Dyea, Alaska. It contained the following: "Chilcott Pass Hotel, 222 Icelele street. Rates $8 per day in advance. Black Jack, Crap and Stud Poker games run by the management. Dogs bought and sold. Insect Powder for sale at the bar. Rules and regulations: Guests will be provided with bunk, breakfast and supper, but must furnish their own lunch. Hot water, soap, towels and candles charged extra. Spiked boots must be removed at night before retiring. No dogs allowed in the bunks."

G. N. Reynolds, of the D street meat market, was within three hundred miles of the Klondike river as early as 1878. With others he invaded the Cassiar district. They found some gold almost everywhere they went, but the drawback then, as Mr. Reynolds believes is still the case, was that the three months of suitable weather for mining was too short a time to get returns adequate to compensate for the time and labor expended. Mr. Reynolds does not believe that gold is found in that country in the enormous quantities that some are claiming. While on Dofot creek in '78 he picked up a fine nugget of gold which he still has in his possession.

Phil. Withycombe, the extensive file manufacturer of North Yamhill, is taking steps to inaugurate a big trade in his line during 1899 by the liberal use of printers' ink. Where Mr. Withycombe's product is once introduced its merit recommends it. The difficulty is to impress land owners with the great benefit of tile drainage. Wherever tried, advantages of drain tile have been commensurate with the outlay and trouble. There are thousands of acres in the Willamette valley unprofitable for the lack of drainage, which in time must come under the ameliorating influence of tile, as the owners are led to see its benefits.

W. D. Wright is reported quite ill with the grip.

A new line of tobacco and cigars just received at Bettman & Warren's.

A commemorative Willard meeting will be held in the Baptist church Friday, the 17th, at half past seven o'clock. The Treble Clef club will furnish music for the evening. All pastors of the city are invited to take part. A welcome to all.

At the Baptist church next Sunday morning the subject of the sermon will be "Is Jesus Christ Divine?" and in the evening a continuation of the theme under the subject "If so, what then?" All persons who may be in any doubt, or to whom the question is not clear, are cordially invited to be present at both services.

S. H. Maris, the gardener, reports considerable damage from the cold weather of last week. It destroyed his winter cabbage, and what is more unusual, all his rose bushes are killed, even the hardy Hermosa. Mercury went one degree below zero at his place at 3 a. m., Feb. 4th. The high and exposed spots in the wheat fields are damaged, and it was very fortunate that snow covered the earth, or the country would have suffered damage equal to that sustained in 1881, when winter grain was all killed. Mr. Maris observed that the cold in this country goes in streaks. One neighborhood may be considerable colder than the one a mile or half-mile distant.

After a close examination of his fruit trees he finds that all his peaches are killed, as well as most of last year's growth. Cherries are about one-third killed. Blackberry vines are killed. Other fruits seem to be all right, with no sign of sun scald on south side of apple trees, which is so common after a hard freeze. The extent of damage done fruit in Marion and Polk counties seems to be considerable. A Salem paper says that in the vicinity of Eola the peach buds are all killed, and in many instances the trees are badly frozen. The cherry and pear buds have also suffered a similar fate, and the trees of the thrifty growing varieties such as Royal Ann cherries and Bartlett pears have also suffered. In the case of hardier trees, such as Duke cherries, the tree is not affected. In the Garden Road district the fruit is all killed and the trees have suffered a similar fate, the bark on the bodies of many of them being loose from freezing. In the Red Hill district the fruit is only injured in the low and unexpected places. Some places the tops of the trees are badly frozen, but not enough to injure the tree. At "The Willows" Mr. Wallace reports the pear crop all killed, but the apple buds uninjured, while the prunes will probably have all that they can bear to perfection. The trees on the prairies suffered most, as they were wholly without protection. The smaller fruits, excepting the strawberries, are also badly injured, the plants being all killed. Growers say that the best thing to do for the trees that are frozen and the bark becoming loose is to let them alone, and a new bark will form under the old and be ready to protect the tree by the time the old one comes off.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

MRS. S. S. MARRY, 300 Elm St., Macon, Ga.

For real blood troubles, it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. The Blood

reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.
