DAYTON.
A special school meeting of district No. 28. The board called to order, Mr. Bertram in the chair. Mr. Hadley was sworn in as director, and Mr. Henry Bertram as clerk. Mr. F. Bertram resigned, Mr. Alderman takes his place. The bonds of the clerk were approved. It was moved by Mr. Bertram that the thanks of the board be extended to the principal and teachers for the care they have taken of school property the past term. It was moved that the contract for furnishing thirty cords of wood be given to John Starr, he being the lowest bidder, according to contract. The old teachers were accepted for the next term.
March 9. We had a change today from our usual weather. About noon a genuine hailstorm came down our little valley and the ground was soon covered with a carpet of white lumps about the size of a pea. Presto, and it was gone.
Died - March 11th, of whooping-cough, the only child of L. Gould and wife, aged three years.
Rev. A. Leroy lectured at the Woodmen hall, March 9th, on "fraternity, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. A large crowd was in attendance. Mr. Leroy is a pleasant speaker and held his audience in strict attention. Miss Bernice Corner favored the audience with a song, and Miss Mamie McCann, being called upon, recited "Lady Clara" in a very able manner. The audience went home well pleased with the evening's entertainment.
