A cruel and thoughtless practice prevails among some of the youth of shooting innocent birds with air guns. Boys, you like the liberty you enjoy, don't you? So do the birds, and they are doing quite as much as you to make life a pleasure, to say nothing of their usefulness as pest destroyers. Save the innocent birds.

Erastus Smith, who left McMinnville college last year to go to Manila to fight the Spanish, has sent to Profs. Northrup and Brumback two handsome canes. Prof. Northrup's is a fine ebony stick, while Prof. Brumback's is more on the novelty order, and is wrapped with a snake's skin, presumably that of a rattlesnake. When varnished and placed on a cane a snake's skin becomes very tough, and in a position to be better appreciated by most people than in its primordial state.

A building boom seems to be on among the farmers up the valley. John T. A couple of years ago Mr. Carter was inclined to take a pessimistic view of the outlook for the farmer, but he seems to have fully recovered. Guide by the Past.
You who do not know this store need not accept what we say as gospel truth. Guide by the past. Look up our record. See how we have kept faith with the people. See if we have ever sold any thing but faultless footwear. Some dealers do a deal of talking; their rainbow of promise is a big one, but it is a rainbow sure enough. You follow it only to find that it disappears when you reach the store. Here we endeavor to perform all that we promise. If we say a shoe is so and so, it is so and so, or we take it back at the price you paid us. No guessing at qualities. No risks.
We still have a small lot of those ladies' button shoes at 40 per cent off. This is a rare offer. Take advantage of it.
