CHICAGO STORE

Clothing.

We're doing a great Clothing business these days. The reason is plain; we've got the goods to do it with. They are all new, this season's stuff. No old shop-worn suits here. The cleanest and brightest line of Men's Tailor-made Suits you ever looked at; our prices are moderate too, good all wool suits, $6.50, $7.50, $10, $12 and $15.

Shoes.

We've opened up that nobby line of Men's Shoes, in black and tans, made by Snow—and the prices aren't any higher than the poor-made kind. If you want a nobby pair, boys, come in and see them.

Silks.

Ladies, you should see those new patterns in Waist Silks just opened—over 100 of them—no two alike. If you want something that will be exclusive, better look them over before the line is broken.

Organdies.

We have just opened up a case of Imported Organdies, the sweetest and daintiest patterns you ever saw; some in the gold and silver effects; prices only 12½ and 15 cents.

New Lines.

In all departments. The Chicago Store always has something new for your attention.

CHICAGO STORE.

Sheep-killing dogs are all the rage in Gopher. One of the sheep owners succeeded in destroying one of the offenders last week.

The district school clerk was around posting notices, calling a special school meeting for the purpose of electing a director to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Agee moving out of the district.

Mr. Lambright and Mr. Taylor visited at the county recorder's last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Lambright has marketed his goat wool, realizing quite a little sum from the sale. Some of his goats sheared 9 pounds each.

Neighbor Lambright has in his possession a one-eyed gobbler. He expects to raise a fine brood of one-eyed turkeys this summer, being under the impression that they would be less apt to find his neighbor Thompson's grain field.

There was a very good attendance at church Sunday. Rev. Nash filled the appointment of Rev. Pigett, who will come back the second Sunday in May. The people will meet together next Sunday for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Charley Smith moved his family up to the mill on Wednesday, for the summer.

Mrs. E. S. Morris left on Monday morning for the east, on a visit to relatives and friends.

The new city dads were duly installed into their respective offices Monday evening. The marshal elect and one of the councilmen refused to qualify, so the new council will have the pleasure of filling the vacancies by appointment.

Monday afternoon, in the absence of B. Wilsey and family, their house was burglarized by some one, supposed to be a tramp. Their daughter had only been away from the house a short time, when a neighbor called, and as she approached the front door the burglar rushed out of the house past her and ran down the street leading to the station, carrying with him $7.00 for his trouble.

Judge Burnett and District Attorney Hayden passed through our town Saturday last on their way to Tillamook, to hold a term of court, and on Tuesday they returned on their way home, having held a term of court lasting two hours, and winding up all business brought before them, so it would seem that Tillamook county is badly in need of this extra term, which they can well afford, as the cost of the two hours was only about $300.

LAFAYETTE.

The Evangelical conference is in session this week.

Miss Boone made a business trip to Portland last Friday.

Prof. Kantner visited his parents in Salem a few days this week.

The new telephone line running from Dayton to Wheatland has been completed and is now ready for "Hello, Wheatland."

Prof. Gimm of Salem is here and willing to help the young people improve their vocal powers. He has organized a class of 20 pupils, and expects more.

A needed improvement was made last week by putting down a new sidewalk in front of Powell's property, 60 feet long and 20 wide. Soldiers were doing the work, and it seemed by the number of people who were always present making remarks, how it should be done, that all Dayton was interested in the work.

The graduating class of '99 of the Dayton public school, have organized their class association, naming it the "Alumni Association of '99," selected their colors, lavender and white, and their class motto, "Begun, not Finished." Five of the class, consisting of nine, were chosen to write orations. Eddie Senn was elected historian of the class and Lulu Martin, prophet.

Master Earl Breeding came up from Portland Saturday, to spend a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harpole.

Quite a number of our farmers are remarking that the cold snap killed all of their berry vines, so it is safe to say berries will be at a premium this year.

Mrs. Buffum returned from Portland Saturday evening, where she has been on an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Mills.

Miss Pearl Meekins, who has a position in Portland, came up last week and spent a few days with her parents, returning Monday.

The school is contemplating giving a short program some evening in the near future. Judging from past exercises we are safe in saying it will be a success.

W. G. Robbins has discontinued his store. It is to be regretted that Mr. Robbins was not so he could continue, for this is a desirable place for a store.

Improvements are still going on in town, and if some energetic person wants a good place in which to locate, Whiteson is the place. There is a chance to rustle here.

A number of our town people attended the meeting of the Order of Washington held in McMinnville last Saturday. They report an interesting meeting and excellent dinner.

Milt Kneidler returned last week from eastern Oregon, where he has been working. He says the climate around Whiteson suits him about as well as any he could wish for.
