

D. I. ASHURY, Editor & Prop.

Subscription $1.00 Per Year.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Reading notices in local columns 10 cents per line for first week and 5 cents per line thereafter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1899.

Judging from the immense cargoes of whiskey shipped into the Klondike there seems to be more money in piats than quartz in that country.

It is rather early to mention Fourth of July celebrations, but after the G. A. R. encampment adjourns we shall need something to keep our pride and patriotism at the boiling point.

FILIPINOS at Santa Cruz, the city lately captured by Gen. Lawton, were commanded by a Chinaman named Pao Wash.

U. S. Revenue Collector Dunne holds that the occasional purchase of county or city warrants does not necessarily make one a broker.

The idea that a civilized man can be manufactured out of an Indian, even through the costly process employed by the United States government for that purpose, is disproved in the life of Sultash Kastra.

The alleged "crime of '73," to which was attributed the low prices during past campaigns, is not heard much of these days.

good deeds and beneficial influences is still piling up.

LOCAL NEWS.

Woodmen Circle fair at Wright's hall, April 24th. Free to all.

Mr. Rodney, late of Portland, and formerly of Louisville, Ky., has taken a clerkship with R. Jacobson & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Campbell spent Sunday with Mrs. C.'s parents in Sheridan, where something of a family reunion was held.

O. O. Hodson has received the appointment of correspondence representative of the grand lodge of Oregon to the grand lodge of Maryland, which is a position of honor.

The Colorado Midland railroad over Hagerman pass, which was blocked for sixty days, is now clear.

The Oregon Fire Relief Association held its quarterly meeting on Tuesday. The report of Secretary Martin shows a net gain of insurance during the quarter of $445,652.

The endeavor society of the Cumb. Presbyterian church elected new officers last week, as follows: President, W. T. Macy; vice president, Miss Allie Link; recording secretary, Miss Minnie Schenk; corresponding secretary, Miss Mattie Fink; treasurer, F. E. Rogers; librarian, Miss Nannie Maloney; organist, Miss Josie Gardner; chorister, Miss Louisa Maloney.

F. E. Hobson, who has been a clerk several months at R. Jacobson & Co.'s, will leave this week for Lewiston, Idaho, and will be accompanied by his brother, O. J., who has well filled the position of stenographer and typewriter in the office of the Oregon Fire Relief Association.

On Friday night, the 21st of April, there will be presented at Howe's Hall, Carlton, that laughable comedy, "A Family Affair." The proceeds of the entertainment will be used in purchasing books for the school library.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoberg were agreeably surprised on Saturday, when their children came home to celebrate with them the 71st anniversary of Mr. Hoberg's birth.

White, the restaurant man, has had a sample of grape fruit sent him by his father from Redlands, Calif., on exhibition in his window, which has kept a good many people guessing what it was.

Rev. F. A. Powell handed in his resignation as pastor of the Christian church last Sunday, the same to take effect the first of next September.

Capt. Heath and his soldiers raided the office of the Independencia, an insurgent newspaper at Manila, recently, and secured a number of trophies of war.

Wheat 48c, oats 35c, baled hay, oats and cheat $7, poultry $2 to $3.00 per doz, pork, dressed 5c, live 3 1/2c, bran 55c per 100 lbs, flour 80c a sack, potatoes $1 a sack, prunes, beef $2.25 to $3.25 per 100; butter 30c, eggs 12 1/2c.

Horse literature printed at this office in the best style of the art, and at most reasonable prices.

The dread and foreboding which almost invariably comes over a young wife, just ere the advent of the first little darling who shall call her mother, is one of the unnatural burdens which civilization has imposed upon the privilege of motherhood.

Parents of Soldiers Call a Meeting.

A meeting of citizens is hereby called to meet at the opera house at 3 p. m. Saturday next, to give public expression concerning the detention of volunteers now in the Philippines who enlisted for the Spanish-American war.

Signed: T. J. Hayes, Joe Williams, A. D. Hoskins, Mrs. A. J. Baker, W. A. Benedict, R. P. Ungerman, W. L. Warren, J. C. Cooper, Joseph Hoberg, Wyatt Harris, Thos. White, Jerry Cochlin, A. V. R. Snyder.

CASTORIA

Bears the signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER. In use for more than thirty years, and The Kind You Have Always Bought.

The U. S. Army captured Santiago and Hodson captured U. S. A. axe, the best and cheapest warranted axe in the market.

A FARMER of LINN county, who came from Iowa, where creameries are very numerous, thinks that a creamery would be the best and most profitable enterprise that the farmers could engage in.

The farmers continue to be the chief beneficiaries in our wonderful export trade. More than five hundred million dollars' worth of their products were exported in the seven months ending with January, thus putting into their hands and pockets more money contributed by foreign consumers than in the corresponding months in any year in our history.

Advertisement for R. Jacobson & Co., McMinnville's Greatest Store. Features 'Grand Seven Days Special Sale' and 'Discount of 10 per Ct' on spring and summer dress goods.

Advertisement for MICA AXLE GREASE, highlighting its benefits for shortening the road and helping the team.

Advertisement for a cure for colds in one day, using Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets.

Advertisement for Rambler Bicycles $40, Wall Paper, and Alabastine, featuring O. O. Hodson.

Advertisement for Spring Opening in Footwear, featuring a variety of ladies' shoes and boots.

Large advertisement for S. S. S. (Swiss Specific) as 'THE ONLY ONE CURE FOR SCROFULA', detailing its effectiveness for various ailments.

Advertisement for Columbia, Hartford, and Vedette Bicycles, highlighting their status as leaders for 1899.

Advertisement for White's Restaurant, featuring a new dining room and a variety of food and services.