Reports from the principal fruit districts of the state show the prospects for a good crop much better than was surmised after the freeze in February. The wheat, too, is coming out splendidly. Reports from the country at large on wheat, show the prospect poor, on account of the severe winter.

The 17th U. S. regulars relieved the Oregon boys of their provost duty on March 11th. One of our boys writes: "All of our stuff is stowed away in a building at the Quartel, and we will likely go to the line tomorrow. This is what we have been looking for for the last ten months, and the boys are happy. I have no idea how long we will be out there, but presume it will be until the trouble is settled."

There can be no complaint in future from Manila over the quality of food furnished the troops. Menus picked up at random show that the volunteers had at one meal beef soup with dampings and rice, peach sauce, and tea and coffee. Another menu shows for dinner one day roast beef, sweet potatoes, apple sauce, radishes, bread and tea. Another menu shows one company eating apple pie at breakfast with pancakes, fried potatoes and bacon. This is better than seventy out of a hundred people get who stay at home.

Wm. A. Hill, a resident of this city, but employed at Middleton, whose serious illness was mentioned last week, died at that place on Thursday, April 6th, at the age of 50 years. He was married to Ada Adams, daughter of O. H. Adams, in 1877, and leaves a widow and five children. A funeral service, conducted by Chas. Grissen, was held at Mr. Adams' residence Saturday afternoon, and burial was held at Masonic cemetery. The family has the sincere sympathy of friends in their sudden and sad bereavement.

The subjects for consideration at the Cumb. Presbyterian church next Sunday will be of interest to all. "Conscience, a Moral Guide," will be considered at 11 a. m., and "The Teachings of the book of Jonah," at 7:30 p. m. Everyone invited.

The state board of agriculture has placed the dates for the state fair this year at Oct. 6-13th. The number of horse races is cut in two, the territory is districted for exhibits, to be in charge of men named by the county judges, and everybody, even the governor of the state, must pay his way into the fair. This looks like reform.

The St. Charles store is establishing a reputation for selling clean, bright and good groceries at less price than they have been sold in McMinnville. We give no baits, but aim to make a small profit on all goods. Good customers don't have to pay for what we lose on "dead beats;" everybody pays at the St. Charles store. Your trade solicited. N. E. KEOG.

An estimate of Uncle Sam's strength in the Philippines is posted at the post-office which seems to be decidedly in error. It gives the total fighting strength at 27,000. Gen. Otis has 20,000 regulars, and 26,000 volunteers, which makes a total considerably larger than the bulletin gives. The war department has just made up a report showing that the regular army has been recruited to 62,000 men. Aguinaldo's army is placed at 38,000, but is probably much larger.
