NORTH YAMHILL.

Calvin Welch has boxed up his stock of general merchandise and will seek pastures new.

Quite a number of our people visited McMinnville last Sunday, most of them being wheelmen.

Miss Eva Martin was in our city Tuesday, looking after her millinery department at this place.

We are informed that North Yamhill is to have a new store. A Mr. Edwards of Lafayette is to be the proprietor.

The farmers in this part of the county are getting pretty well through with their seeding, and from the present outlook we will have splendid crops. The fall wheat especially looks fine.

We have a baseball team now, and after they get in good practice and in running order we think that they will be able to open the eyes of some of the crack teams. J. F. Bunn is their manager.

Mrs. Harriet Balmer, at one time landlady of our hotel at this place, died in San Francisco last week, and was taken to Tillamook for burial, her daughter passing through our town with the corpse on Saturday.

Everyone around here can find plenty of work now, as the hop men are working with their hops, and it keeps them rustling to keep up with the hops, as these warm days cause them to grow quite rapidly. The prospects are good for a large yield.

The bicycle tax collector at this place has collected taxes on 72 wheels, and as quite a number paid in McMinnville before it was known they could pay here, it is estimated that there are about 100 wheels in this vicinity. This would make $100 for the building of a path.

LAFAYETTE.

L. M. Duncan and wife were in Portland Tuesday.

Mr. Edwards is moving his store to North Yamhill.

Mr. Elmer Johnson and wife went to Forest Grove last week.

Miss Edna Belcher of Portland is visiting relatives here.

Thos. and Ben Huston started for their old home in Illinois on a visit Monday.

Ed Stuart went to Forest Grove last week. His brother is not expected to live.

Rev. C. C. Poling, who has been living in Portland for the last two years, moved back to this place last week.

GOPHER.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kirby were visitors at Mrs. Cronin's Sunday.

James Lough moved his family to the Daniels mill during the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stow of Bellevue were in our valley Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Jennie Flynn returned to her home Sunday, after a long stay in Portland.

Mr. John Wortman and Mr. Booth of McMinnville spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Lambright's.

The attendance at Sunday school was unusually large Sunday. This is very encouraging to the workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and daughter, with Mrs. Tawney, visited with the family of E. H. Taylor, last Sunday.

Everyone is enjoying the good weather. The farmers are taking the opportunity to finish putting in their spring crops, and everyone is lively.

O. A. Olsen of Anity was trying a bicycle on our roads a few days ago. He grew tired of going at such a slow rate, so he tried flying; at any rate he was seen to take a "header" down a hill.

On the Death of a Loved One.

Resolved, That we, the ladies of the guild do extend to the family of our deceased sister, Myrtle Campbell, our love and deepest sympathy in their dark hour of bereavement. By order of the president of Hopewell Ladies' Guild. May 8th, 1899.

Sweet Myrtle, thou art gone;
Death has broken our circle,
Our hearts are all forlorn,
Since thou art gone, my Myrtle:
Cold are the busy hands,
Closed are the loving eyes so brown,
Thou hast joined the angel bands,
And we are all alone, my own,
My brown-eyed Myrtle,
Mother's darling, husband's pride,
Thou hast folded thy gentle hands and calmly died.

Sunbeam of home, though we bewail,
Sweet be thy sleep in the grave so deep,
Wrapped in thy bridal veil.

STRUCK BY OFFICIAL LIGHTNING.

As a thunderclap out of a clear sky came the announcement on the 4th inst. by telephone that Hon. A. J. Apperson of this city had been appointed to the receivership of the U. S. land office at Sitka, Alaska. The opinion has been quite generally expressed that the position has been creditably bestowed. Mr. Apperson has been one of the war horses in the campaigns of the republican party in Yamhill and other counties of Oregon, and has never before personally held or seriously sought office. Even his political opponents, who have in past years recognized in him a foe man worthy of their steel, freely admit that from the standpoint of party fealty, Mr. Apperson is among the first to deserve recognition. The receivership pays a salary varying according to the business done, in this case ranging from $2,000 to $2,250, but with clerkships allowed the place is worth to the holder near $3,000 per year. The appointee has until July 1st to enter upon the discharge of his duties. He will remove his family to Sitka.

Mr. Apperson was born in Missouri in 1830. By ancestral claim he would be reckoned a Virginian, his father having emigrated from the Old Dominion, but by nurture, education and force of habit he is an Oregonian of pronounced stripe. He was a boy of eight years when in 1847 his parents set out on the perilous overland journey that brought him to Oregon City in the fall of that year. The loss of his father on the journey and the circumstances which surrounded the pioneers of that early date brought him face to face with the earnest affairs of life from the beginning and contributed no doubt to the development of the character which marks the man in all his dealings with people. He was a volunteer soldier in a bloodless war against the Indians in 1856, then engaged in mining, and later steaming on the Willamette and Yamhill rivers, and milling at Oregon City. He became a McMinnville citizen 17 years ago, engaging in general merchandise until 1898. The indefatigable efforts of Mr. Apperson to secure the building of the Yamhill locks are well-known to Yamhill people, and now that they are nearly realized he leaves his neighbors and friends to reap where he has sown. Here's hoping that his new work may be both pleasant and profitable.

THE SCHOOLS.

COOK BUILDING.
We have a holiday May 30th. The reviews last week were much better in most grades.

Our school closes the 23 of June. This is the first year in quite a while that we have had full nine months.

There are to be no written reviews this last month, but the pupils will be graded upon their daily recitations, and then if they are not satisfied with their standing they have the privilege of taking a final examination on the whole grade work.

Much in Demand.

Prof. Barzee, of the college, is another of McMinnville's busy men. He will go to Moro, Sherman county, on the 19th inst. to speak before the graduating class of the public schools, whose principal is Prof. E. C. Peery, a nephew of A. M. Peery of this city. About the 17th inst. he will officiate in a similar capacity at North Yamhill, and about June 1st, before the public school graduates of this city. He is one of the instructors for the Yamhill county annual institute to be held about the middle of June, and during the session he will give his lecture on "The Greatest Need of the Greatest Nation." He is engaged for other county institutes during the summer. The professor is a very useful man in educational circles.

Celebrated Her 81st Birthday.

On Wednesday, May 3d, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grover celebrated the 81st birthday of his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Grover, at their home in McMinnville college. This was one of the happiest and most pleasant events of the season. A number of guests consisting of Rev. A. J. Hunsaker and wife, Mrs. S. Burnett, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. Brumback, Mrs. Latourette, with the regular boarders, and Mr. and Mrs. Grover's family.

The ages of the invited guests, including Mother Grover, averaged 67 years, the oldest 82, youngest 55. It was evident on this occasion that mother was regarded as queen of the home, for all honor was paid to the dear old one, whose eyes has grown somewhat dim, yet she is active and always busy in doing that which is helpful to others. Mrs. R. H. Grover gave unmistakable proof that she knew how to prepare a good dinner for so worthy an occasion. She also showed the same good judgment in the invitations sent out, for all present knew how to do justice to the subject before them while at the table. Let us have more such celebrations, and old age will be clothed in youth once more. It is the earnest wish of all that Grandma Grover may enjoy many more such anniversaries.

GUESTS.
