Inspired by the Waterfall.

Twenty-one McMinnvilleites Started for Haskins' to witness the sights: The day at first was oh, so fine, But alas, what a decided change at nine. Our chaperon was about alright, And the leaders they were out of sight, With Paddy in his trousers white Acted the clown as best he might. The crowd was slow, the day was blue, And we were lost for what to do, Some sat around the dreary fire, While others did the falls admire. At last came time for lunch so fine, And round the spread we dropped in line: There was no one to say the grace, But each one looked it on his face. Of the delicious food we need not speak, For it disappeared as a lightning streak: Sandwiches, pickles, eggs and beans, Cakes, pies, coffee and cream. Then came the picture so sublime Taken by amateurs quite fine: Some held sandwiches, a kettle, one, Others held cakes, and coffee, some. While the table then the girls did clear, And for the evening lunch, we shed a tear, As everyone so heartily ate That nothing was left but a radish for bait. Then a few to the hacks retired; Others to stay by the fire desired; The lunch exposed the rain did soak While the boys enjoyed a hearty smoke. At last came time to say goodbye, And for the homeward march we heaved a sigh, As the rain had played havoc with robes and coats, And someone suggested we better take boats, The prominent features of the homeward ride Were cakewalks and snapshots along the road side: Some were drowsy, others were gay, While a few sang songs in their jolly way. But we'll visit old Haskins some future day, When the clouds roll by and the snow melts away: Then we'll gather together our party so blithe— We'll have a rousing old time in the sweet bye and bye.

—BY TWO OF THE PARTY.

NEWBERG.

Miss Ben Wiley is at home after a six weeks' stay in Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Kinyon and daughter Minnie visited in Butteville last week. After a two weeks' visit in Portland Mrs. Verona Nelson returned to her home near town. Mrs. Mary E. Myers is enjoying a needed rest in Portland with friends, having attended the pioneer reunion. Mrs. Clara Speak, and mother, Mrs. Winters of Portland, are visiting the family of J. L. Davis in West Chehalis. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Watters, of Corvallis, are visiting relatives in town. Mr. Watters is recorder of Benton county. Nineteen members of the circle, Women of Woodcraft, instituted a circle in Dayton, on Thursday last. The new circle starts with thirty-eight charter members. The Friends' yearly meeting is in progress in Newberg, and is largely attended. On Sunday Rev. Levi D. Barr of Kansas, preached a very powerful sermon in Friends church, and other Friends ministers occupied the pulpits of the M. E. and Baptist churches. Runaways are in order. On Friday two teams of W. W. Nelson's took a spin. No damage much. On Saturday Ed. Fendal's team started from Porter's store and circled around a few blocks, then started a team belonging to Livengood, and the two struck out the West Chehalis road, but separated west of town. Fendal's team kept the valley road and were stopped after demolishing the survey to which they were hitched. The other team did no damage except to scatter stove lids, etc., along the way.

Card of Thanks.

The members of the first department convention, ladies of the G. A. R., wish to extend thanks to the citizens and press of McMinnville for having so courteously greeted the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters. Mrs. Florence Quimby, Mrs. Frances Evans and Mrs. Rebecca Small, Committee.

HOPEWELL.

Our merchant, Mr. Bull, has sold his property in Hopewell, and is soon to make his home in Portland.

After six months of successful teaching Mrs. Walling closed her school at Hopewell, Friday, the 23d, with a reception for her scholars. Ice cream and cake were served.

The picnic given in the Hopewell grove Wednesday, June 14th, under the auspices of the ladies' guild was quite well attended, and a success both socially and financially. The solo rendered by Prof. Ginn of Salem was highly appreciated by all, and received the applause for an encore as usual. The audience showed their appreciation of the young ladies' hoop drill, under the training of Mrs. Christenson, by requesting it repeated in the afternoon. After all expenses the guild showed a profit of $33.95 from their ice cream stand.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Mrs. English near Lafayette, has been quite sick, but is about again and we hope will recover soon.

Rev. Scott of Lafayette has an appointment to preach for us on the fifth Sunday of July at 3 o'clock p. m.

When on the way home from church through that hard shower of rain Sunday night, about a half mile from the school house, a horse driven to a buggy by an aged gentleman with two small boys was frightened by something by the roadside and shied, almost upsetting the buggy. The next carriage with two ladies and two boys was accosted with "ketch 'em!" out of the darkness, but not knowing the fate of the old man ahead, of course the ladies only supposed it to be a neighbor boy returning home also.

Regarding Bicycle Paths.

As the law authorizing the levying of a special tax for the construction of bicycle paths provides a penalty also for any injury to the paths so constructed, the following excerpt from the law may not come amiss. Up to Sec. 10 the act instructs as to the method of collecting the tax, etc. Sections 10, 11 and 12 are as follows:

Such paths shall be constructed in such a manner that they will not materially interfere with any road, street or crossing, and when so constructed it shall be deemed a misdemeanor for any person or persons to in any manner injure or deface said path, to place tacks, glass, wire, iron, sticks, stones or any other object or substance upon said path whereby the safety of the path is imperiled or injury to the bicycle or any part thereof, or to the rider, or to a pedestrian, result or is liable to result. This provision is not to prevent ingress or egress to any field, yard, lot or other place, to road crossings or the driving of loose stock; providing the loose stock is not wantonly driven upon said path and due care is taken to prevent injury to paths by loose stock being driven along highways. Any person injuring any path provided for by this act shall, upon trial and conviction, be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) or be imprisoned for not less than five (5) days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

These paths when so constructed shall be exclusively for pedestrians and bicyclists, it being the object and intent of this act to provide for pedestrians and bicyclists a highway separate from that used by teams and horsemen.

Bicycles, as used in this act, shall be deemed to include bicycles, tandems, quads, etc. A bicycle is a vehicle propelled by a rider by foot power.

To Make a Record.

On Wednesday Eugene Leeper created quite a stir up the West Side in his race against time. T. H. Rogers and R. A. Harris employed him at his usual charge for ordinary labor—20 cents an hour—to run from McMinnville to Corvallis, a distance of very nearly 50 miles by rail. The object of this race was to leave this city at 7 a. m., run to Corvallis and return to this city on the afternoon train, which leaves Corvallis at 1:20 p. m., and incidentally to break the world's record for a long distance swing trot, which in sporting circles is classed as walking. His attire was knee pants, sweater, cap and bicycle shoes. Herein was the mistake. The shoes were too light to stand the strain, and running on the gravel bed of the railroad forced the tacks up into his feet, and he was compelled to stop when he had reached Independence. With the excitability characteristic of human kind, people had gathered at all stations along the route to see the "human engine" pass by. The distance and time made by Leeper was as follows:

Hour	Distance
McMinnville.....	7:00
Whiteson.....	7:32 4 1/2 m
Amity.....	7:52 7 m
McCoy.....	8:35 12 m
Derry.....	9:58 20 m
Independence.....	11:12 26 m

Leeper and his friends are confident that he can perform the feat under more favorable circumstances, and will try again some time. Leeper says the track is pretty good until beyond Amity, where the weeds bothered his progress somewhat. The train caught him about the middle of the long culvert near Independence, and he was obliged to get down and cling to the side until the train passed.

No Change Until January.

A Salem dispatch to the Oregonian says: It has been decided by the board of trustees of the state insane asylum to make no change in the superintendency of the institution until January. The four-year term of Superintendent Paine will expire in August, but in view of the new wing now under process of construction, and the need of a man acquainted with the details, the board deems it advisable to make no change until the work is completed.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. W. Wilson, liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction. We feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Doty, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

Notice to Creditors.

I desire to make settlement of all accounts now due me. Those knowing themselves indebted to me will please make immediate settlement, and avoid making further costs necessary. ELSA WRIGHT.

Thanks, Brethren.

The Encampment Souvenir issued by The Reporter folks is a neat little book of about 100 pages. Typographically it is creditable and is a handy compendium of men and events in Yamhill—Valley Transcript.

J. G. Eckman of The Reporter office has the thanks of the Graphic for a copy of the G. A. R. souvenir, a "Military History of Yamhill County," written by J. C. Cooper and published by The Reporter company. It contains matter well worth preserving.—Newberg Graphic.

Del Norte, the guideless pacer, owned by Burrows Bros., has been giving exhibition races at Salem this week. He recently went a mile at Walla Walla in 2:04, making the last half in one minute flat. His owners expect to take him east and exhibit him on all the noted race courses. He is a full brother of Chehalis, now owned by an eastern horse-lover, who purchased him for $7000 from Frank Frazier, the fellow who owned and drove him on the state fair track in 1897, when he broke the world's two-mile pacing record. "Del." gives promise of going a mile in two minutes before the end of the 1899 racing season.

Dr. G. W. Grannis of this city is down on the bills for an oration at Woodburg on July 4th.
