The ideal weather and of fireworks in the evening. the stirring music by the home band, which is a very creditable combination of players, kept everybody in just the humor to enjoy the program. This was carried out as published. The parade formed and marched through town headed by W. T. Macy on a black charger as marshal of the day. He was sent for solely to lend dignity to the occasion. The parade was not large, but highly creditable, particularly the load of little girls in the liberty car, drawn by four gray horses driven by Mr. Hutchcroft. In the second inning a regular head-to-head collision occurred. Tallman, catcher, and Morgan, short-stop, were both after a fly ball, and apparently didn't see each other, and the captain said nothing. The result was a severe bump that floored them both, and Tallman went down like a log ber. and failed to rise. MISDIRECTED ZEAL.

This is what may fittingly be applied to the action taken last Sunday in three of the churches of this city regarding the visit of the editors as scheduled for next Sunday morning. The petition as it went in to the reception committee at Portland was as follows:

At a regular meeting of the church, and that they refrain from visiting Mo Minnville on July 9, 1899.

The petition was signed by pastors Grannis, King and Fender, and repre sented that a total of 300 members voted for it in the three churches. "We have been received with great hospitality, and eve ry one has been most kind and cordial," said Mr. Londoner, editor of the Denver Republican. Deosn't it make you weep to think that we shall be singled out now as the only town, probably, in the whole circuit to send word to these visitors that you need not visit us if it must be on Sunday?
