We Haven't Killed Many Bears

But we have hammered away night and day for 19 consecutive years at the prescription counter with the result of having attained the largest prescription file in the county. There's a reason for this. Anyone can dish out patent medicines, but when it comes to filling prescriptions you want a competent man at the tiller, so to speak, with a clear eye and a clear head—in fact, a man who realizes that a human life hangs in the balance. We do this: it's our specialty.

Prosperity in California.

Crescent City, Calif., Oct. 8th, 1899.
 EDITOR REPORTER: Thinking that a few items from this part might be of interest to some of your readers, while I am seated on the wharf three-fourths of a mile from land, while the old Pacific is roaring beneath me, and the whistling boys like mad bulls are roaring on my right and left hand, I will try to note some of my observations since leaving McMinnville Oct. 2d. Arriving at Grant's Pass Oct. 3d, too late for the Crescent City stage, we spent the day taking in the sights. This place is about three-fourths the size of McMinnville, and is quite lively. The smoke is still rising from the $150,000 fire, with only about $25,000 insurance, which falls heavy on the town, completely breaking several of the business men up. There are seven sawmills within a radius of 30 miles, cutting on an average 30,000 feet each daily of sugar pine, which is quite plentiful here, giving employment to a large number of teams and men. It is hauled by teams to Grant's Pass, where the factories use it for boxes and various other things. Fifty gold mines and six quartz mills are within a radius of 25 miles. Copper mines are also being worked at present. There is great excitement here at present about the Gold Hill mines, 18 miles distant. A large Portland company has completed the survey, and expect to commence immediately to build a ditch or canal nine feet in the clear at the bottom and 15 feet at the top, 90 miles long, tapping Rogue river, to work the Gold Hill mines. Arriving at Crescent City Oct. 6th, I found quite a change since the first time I landed here 33 years ago this fall. After a pleasant greeting of old friends and relations we note some of the changes here. Hobbs, Wall & Co. have just completed their new and extensive latest improved band-saw mills, capacity about 100,000 feet per day, employing daily over 200 men in their camps and mills. Wenger & Co. come next, with 60,000 feet daily capacity, and employing about 120 men. There are various other smaller mills and mines, 60 dairies employing about 500 men, so you see times are good, and we say, Hurrah for McKinley! Enough for the present.
 T. D. HENDERSON.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by S. Howorth & Co., druggists.

Weddings at The Exposition.
 Monday evening was wedding night at the Portland exposition, and it proved a great attraction.

The names of the contracting parties were:
 H. J. Staley, of Portland, and Miss Mabel Hitchman, of Marion county.
 Peter Anderson and Miss Augusta E. Carlson, of Portland.

W. A. White, of Portland, and Miss Kate A. Manning, of Clackamas county.
 Rev. T. D. Lewis, of University Park, tied the knots. He officiated in the same capacity last year, and, as far as heard from, those ties have not been untied.

Besides a free steamboat excursion to Astoria and return, the bridal pairs were well remembered with substantial presents. There were three sets of furniture from the H. C. Breeden Company; two cockstoves from Mr. Kadlerly, and one from the Hunt Hardware Company; several boxes of fruit from Louis M. Spiegl; a dozen brooms from Zan Bros.; three hams from the Union Meat Company; fancy crackers from Bishop & Co., and mush, mush, mush! enough packages of patent mush to last through many months.

Hamilton Clark, of Chauncey, Ga., says he suffered with itching piles twenty years before trying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, two boxes of which completely cured him. Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits. Rogers Bros.

Mrs. Morgan, a county charge, died at Whiteson, Oct. 11th, aged 63 years.

Mrs. Lucinda Simmons died in upper Happy valley on the 11th inst., of inflammation of the bowels. She was 76 years old. Burial was made at Oregon City.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hewitt of the Wheatland neighborhood, relict of Henry H. Hewitt, died Saturday, Oct. 14th, of dropsy, aged 76 years. The funeral occurred on Sunday at Hopewell, conducted by Rev. C. E. Crandall of the Dayton M. E. church. All the living children of the Hewitt family are believed to have been present at the funeral. The family consisted of ten children, one daughter and nine sons, the former having died, and the sons are all living. They are: Judge H. H. Hewitt, of the circuit court, Albany; Dr. J. L. Hewitt, Portland; D. M. Hewitt, Polk county; A. W., J. A., J. C., H. W. and L. L. Hewitt, Yamhill; M. C. Hewitt, Sacramento, Cal. The daughter, who died several years ago, was the mother of Drs. E. H. and L. M. and Carl Thornton, of Portland. It is claimed that Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt came through with the first wagon train, and that Mr. Hewitt drove the first wagon down the western slopes of the Blue mountains, and the second wagon into The Dalles. He would have driven the first wagon into The Dalles, but another man happened to get ahead of him. Before this train of immigrants came with wagons it is claimed that the running gears of a wagon were brought across the Rocky mountains, but that was all.

Death of Otto Pape.

The Oregonian of Tuesday gives the following account of the death of a young man reared in this county in the West Chehalen neighborhood. The brother August, of whom mention is made, was formerly in the stationery business in this city:

Otto Pape, the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. B. Pape, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after an illness of three weeks. The boy was 15 years old, and has been at the home of his uncle for the past six years, his parents having died some years ago. He was an estimable boy. He entered school at the opening this year, and attended two days, when taken sick. His ailment was very peculiar, being what is called consumption of the bones. The bones soon commenced to soften and so continued in spite of every effort to arrest the progress of the disease. Drs. Flinn and Wilson had the case in hand, but nothing could be done. The boy suffered very intensely. He has a brother—August Pape—who lives in Albina.
