The New Grocery Firm of Warren & Son

Has succeeded that of Bettman & Warren, and is doing business at the old stand. We are treating our old friends the best we know how, and we want to make the acquaintance of many new ones.

OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT!

Scan our market every morning for Fruits and Vegetables. We are pushing a hot campaign in these articles, and they are always choice.

Full and Fresh Lines of Staple Groceries.

We Haven't Killed Many Bears

But we have hammered away night and day for 16 consecutive years at the prescription counter with the result of having attained the largest prescription file in the county. There's a reason for this. Anyone can dish out patent medicines, but when it comes to filling prescriptions you want a competent man at the tiller, so to speak, with a clear eye and a clear head—in fact, a man who realizes that a human life hangs in the balance. We do this; it's our speciality.

New Fall Stock

Already Arriving.

I have ordered a Large Stock of New Furniture for the Fall trade, much of it being already here, and more yet to arrive. A specially large supply of Bedroom Suits. The stock is more than will go in my store room, and I am placing them on display over the Racket store. Come and see us.

Yours Truly,

THE SETTLER ON PEAVINE RIDGE.

(Not Mr. Pague.)

When the fog lies low on Peavine ridge,
When the mist comes creeping o'er
The bald gray peaks of Tillamook
From Nestor's wooded shore;
When o'er the mountains, far and wide,
A stillness broods profound;
When in the dismal forest depths
Is heard no voice nor sound
Save, where adown some canyon deep
A cataraet leaping falls,
Or now and then, among the pines
A woodpeck shrilly calls,
'Tis then the settler opens the door
Of his humble mountain home,
And with his hands thrust down his pants,
And hat back on his dome,
He scans the skies like a mariner,
And with his nose on high,
Turns east and west, and north and south,
His criticising eye.
"By gum," says he, "it's goin' to rain,
I've never known it to fall."
When the fog lies low on Peavine ridge
And the mist creeps up the trail."
Well satisfied, the settler turns
Toward his cabin door,
And, looking at his garden spot,
Says he, "Well, let it pour;
And, as for shakes, there's lots of time,
Some other day will do;
So, let it rain, I'll go inside
And read my papers through."
Nor rain, nor shine, nor peace, nor war,
Nor all the gold men find,
Nor dreams of fame or wealth disturb
The settler's peace of mind.
When the fog lies low on Peavine ridge
And the mist creeps up the trail,
The settler says, "It's goin' to rain,
I've never known it to fall."
But whether it rains or whether it shines,
The settler's a man and true;
At his humble home and modest board,
There's a "welcome, sir," for you.
His is the hand that clears the way
From the valley to the sea;
So, long live the settler on Peavine ridge,
A hero of peace is he.
—MURIEL GRAY.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Ghalibe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by S. Howorth & Co., Druggists.

Death of J. A. Sutherland.

After a ten days' illness of dysentery, Mr. J. A. Sutherland died at his residence, corner of D and Second, on Friday, Nov. 10th, at 11:40 a. m., at the age of 72 years, lacking three days. He was the father of E. F. Sutherland, blacksmith of this city, with whom he had been employed for some time. He leaves a widow, a son, E. F., and four daughters in California. Mr. Sutherland came to the Pacific coast from the state of New York in 1851, and had resided in Oregon for the past ten years. He was a man upright in his living, and of industrious habits. The funeral was held from the Christian church on Saturday afternoon, with burial in Masonic cemetery.

Football.

Next Saturday, Nov. 18, the people of McMinnville will be treated to their first game of football this season. Dallas Academy and McMinnville College will struggle for the supremacy on the gridiron. The academy team is strong, having this season defeated Monmouth 15 to 0, and is confident of winning the game. Saturday, the home boys are determined that this shall not be, hence the game promises to be hotly contested and interesting. The game will take place on the college campus, and will be called promptly at 2:30 p. m. The admission will be 25c. Come out and see a good clean game of football.

AN OREGON BOY IN THE QUAKER CITY.

Arthur S. Cooper, who was recently reported ill with yellow fever at Tampa, Fla., is now a student in a dental college in Philadelphia. Among other matters of interest, he writes to his father as follows:

"I am getting along very well since my experience at Port Tampa, Fla.; my left leg is still abscessed and bothering me a little. We are up against the hardest winter's work I ever tackled, but as we have most of it to look forward to, I guess it looks larger on that account. I can go to the bottom of any one study, but an anatomy, (hard and soft) chemistry, pathology, therapeutics, bacteria, oral surgery mixture, goes against the grain, especially when one has side issues of comparative anatomy, (animal) metallurgy, materia medica and several more to keep up to the top notch and considerable mechanical work to do. Our knowledge in all these lines is not to be limited to what we are put to practical use professionally, as you may judge from the fact that the second year men were asked in examination: "What is the blood and nerve supply of the foot?" Operations on hare-lips, cleft palates, removal of upper and lower jaw, or portions thereof, removal of tonsils, opening of windpipe, etc., are in the line of today's dentistry, while opening up and working in the antrum we are to (and every dentist should) know as well as treating a tooth. The dentist of to-day is far better prepared to treat fractured jaw, upper or lower, and remedy the damage done by syphilis in the mouth, than the physician.

"This is very much of a city—compared with Baltimore, even; 238 passenger trains leave the Pennsylvania R. R. station daily, to say nothing of the other important railroads. The University of Pennsylvania is simply grand with its numerous buildings and variety of architecture, which is a picture and study in itself, to say nothing of their contents. Have a good letter of introduction to Mr. Muhl, Cramps' head man, which I expect to use, much to my satisfaction this week, and will get to see to my heart's content one of the very interesting places in the United States to one of a mechanical turn of mind. The Baldwin Locomotive works, which are now running day and night, are on my visiting list, too.
"Have just learned with much satisfaction of Ex-Governor Lord's appointment to Argentine. Should you see him, tell him that we have Buenos Ayres down on our list of possibilities for the future, and should we go there, it will not be as tenderfeet or amateurs.
"Politics are beginning to boil here now. There does not seem to be enough Americanism in politics to suit my taste. I expect to register as a voter in New York for presidential election.
"The big exposition here is just a multiple of Oregon's yearly production at Portland, but minus the fine agricultural display and plus a "midway." It is very common to meet an easterner who has been through Oregon, and to hear them rave over the beautiful complexion of Oregon's pretty girls, and the beauty of Oregon and Portland in general, and rate the Hotel Portland second to but the Waldorf-Astoria, and comment on the better qualities of the Oregonians in general. It sounds like fiction to unacquainted ones, and I'm asked how I came to leave such a country, and my only reply is that I didn't know it until I left. Oregon's reputation doesn't suffer any at my hands, but I don't make it a business to talk it, as the above-described class can so far outdo me that there is nothing left for me to do but grunt my approval and explain why I'm not there."

WHITESON.

J. H. Frazier made a business trip to Salem last Saturday.

Revival services at the Presbyterian church closed Sunday evening with two additions.

David Waddle, who is attending school at the University of Oregon at Eugene, was visiting at his home Sunday.

W. E. Robbins bought the homes of Will Forest and Robert Putman recently. Whiteson loses two good citizens when they move away.

Thanksgiving services will be held here on the 30th.

Norval Atkins still retains his position as station agent here and is a general favorite with all. It is to be hoped he will be placed here permanently.

J. Frank Fouch, dramatic artist, will give an entertainment in the church Monday evening. He comes well recommended and the program promises to be very interesting.

Mrs. John Campbell of Ballston visited her son Roderic Campbell of this place. Mr. Oliver Newton of Canton, Illinois, who has been visiting his brother John Newton for some time, returned home last Monday. Mr. Alfred Munce accompanied him for a short visit at his old home.

Last Wednesday Mr. Will Lacy of Whiteson, and Miss Bessie Holmes of McCoy, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents in Polk county. The correspondent extends hearty congratulations and wishes them a long and prosperous voyage across life's tempestuous sea.

GOPHER.

I. Price of Sheridan passed through the valley Sunday.

Wm. Mace spent Saturday in Sheridan. Mr. Grobe made a business trip to McMinnville Monday.

Miss Mamie Casey is in McMinnville visiting with relatives and friends.

Messrs Tawney and Lawrence of the Highlands were visitors at E. H. Taylor's Saturday last.

Miss Mary Cronin has returned to Portland after a long visit with her mother and brother.

I. Lambright, J. Stowe, E. H. Taylor and D. and Wm. Evans, all of this place, attended the sale at Graves' near Sheridan, Nov. 7th.

Misses Louella and Annie Agee and their brother Cleve visited with the family of Mr. Slagger Sunday.

Mrs. I. D. Daniel and son Fred visited in McMinnville and Bellevue last Monday and Tuesday.

A bear has been doing great damage among the goats. Hunters have been out after him but have failed to be successful in their chase.

Owing to the wet weather, there is very little grain sown in Gopher this fall.

Milton Potter is having some work done on his barn. Mr. Long is the carpenter.

Mr. Alfred Flynn of Sheridan spent Sunday at Mr. Thompson's.

W. E. Jones and wife visited at Mrs. Flynn's the last of the week, returning home Sunday.

Mr. I. Daugherty, Sheridan's rustling real estate man, was in the valley Monday.

CASTORIA

Bears the signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER.
In use for more than thirty years, and
The Kind You Have Always Bought.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's cough remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by S. Howorth & Co., Druggists.

Mr. Stump is Progressive.

When it comes to sheep and goats, John Stump, of Monmouth, probably takes the lead in Polk county. His sheep have green feed the year round, rape in summer and growing wheat during the winter, besides plenty of clover hay. His 600 goats live only partly on brush and fern. They eat hay of any kind, preferring rye. His summer fallow never lies bare, but always produces some green crop. Many a farmer could profit by seeing his way of doing business.—Dallas Itemizer.

Sick Headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 & 50c. Rogers Bros.

Thanksgiving service at the Christian church. Sermon by the pastor, Arnold Lindsey, from Psalms 147:20.—"He hath not dealt so with any nation." The choir will have a special program. Miss Jennie Snyder will sing a solo, "The Pilgrim Fathers."

The bankrupt store. A. J. Apperson's old stand.
