FRIDAY, DEC. 1, 1899.

The usual prediction from the old settler, based probably on long experience, is that a mild winter is in store for Oregonians.

Who would be the democratic candidate should Bryan die? This question has been asked, but the only logical answer is, that the party would die too.

The spread of the English language is not a mere sentimental dream or a figure of rhetoric. Witness an article in the treaty between Japan and China which provides that in case of any divergence in the interpretation between the Japanese and Chinese texts of the treaty, the difference shall be settled by reference to the English text.

The national republican committee will meet in Washington, D. C. on December 15th to select the time and place for holding the next national convention. The cities striving to secure the convention are Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, San Francisco, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Denver, Milwaukee and Buffalo. Present indications point to Chicago as the probable place for holding the convention.

Now the enthusiastic admirers of Admiral Schley are asking for subscriptions to purchase a home for him, just as if he were in need of their misapplied charity. This foolishness may not stop when all of the high-salaried officers have been provided for. Then, Corbett, Filzsimmons, Sharkey, and the other "fighters" will doubtless have their inning and each be presented with a house at the national capital.

EDITOR GAULT of the Hillsboro Independent sizes up the situation thus: The low price of wheat this year is not to affect politics. Three years ago it was claimed it did. The following year without a change in the currency laws we had dollar wheat in Washington county. Then the silver men admitted it was supply and demand that governed the market. Wheat was high here because other districts had a crop failure. Now then when we all have a good crop we are justified in supposing that the supply controls the market and that the coinage laws of the United States no more control the European market than they did in 1897-8. There is something gained.

The efficacy of the sword as a civilizer cannot be overestimated. For years and years good people have sent missionaries and bibles to the cannibals who roam the borders of the German holdings in West Africa. They devoured the good missionaries and chewed paper wads from the bibles. But the German punitive expedition recently sent against the cannibal bands carried something different in effect from bibles and Sunday school literature, and, it may be said, effectually prepared the way for the introduction of the necessary adjuncts to the higher civilization to which the remaining cannibals can now aspire. To the missionary who may hereafter visit him he is likely to say: "Write me as one who loves his fellow man," though local circumstances forbid him from giving the most conclusive testimony of it.

The death of Vice President Hobart has brought out a number of suggestions relative to the probable choice for President McKinley's running mate next year. Secretary of War Root is understood to be willing to accept the second place and is believed to be President McKinley's choice. Mr. Root is a lawyer of acknowledged attainments, and was recommended for the war portfolio, because of his legal ability. But his availability for the vice-presidential nomination is somewhat shadowed by the preference of Senators Platt and Depew of Mr. Root's state, New York, for Lieut. Gov. Woodruff, who is the choice of the republican organization of New York state, and unless Senator Platt interferes in behalf of Secretary Root, Mr. Woodruff will have the 72 delegates in the next republican national convention.

LET Dewey turn his Washington residence into a home for childish men. He could soon fill it with recruits from the ranks of the Dewey home contributors.

UMATILLA county farmers are not discouraged at the low prices of wheat. On the contrary, the farmers are confident that prices of grain will advance, and are proving their belief by cropping all lands tillable in the county. Their sublime faith in the old adage that the darkest hour is just before the dawn, will be rewarded should the price of wheat advance next year as they anticipate.

PROOF that there is profit in dairying is found in the case of C. L. Shaw who resides near Albany. The Herald says that Mr. Shaw milks 14 cows, taking the milk to the Albany creamery. Lately, he received a check for $104.40 for returns from the 14 cows for the past 30 days. This is an excellent showing, and illustrating that a profit can be made from creameries and dairying when properly conducted. Mr. Shaw grows clover, grain and hay besides corn for ensilage. He feeds his cows plentifully and keeps a fine herd of well bred Jerseys.

CHINA is feeling the influence of modern enlightenment and progress, and has just appointed Li Hung Chang to the important office of minister of commerce. Li is China's greatest man, because greatness like everything else, goes by comparison, affecting individuals and nations alike. Great men are not numerous in China, hence Li has no competitors. He has mingled with the outside world and imbibed modern ideas, and through the influence of his education the Chinese empire will be modernized and will become one of the great nations. At the present time, considering his environments, Li Hung Chang's greatness rests on the same basis as that of the foremost man of Rome, at a stage of Roman history when it was said: "He were no lion, were not Romans hind!"

CERTAIN of the American people who made fools of themselves and trampled reason under foot in their efforts to buy a house to present to Admiral Dewey, have been sinking deeper into the bog of fooldom in attempting to dictate to Dewey what he shall do with the present, and when the admiral married and deeded the property to his wife some of the most enthusiastic contributors became almost frantic. These persons who gave Dewey a present with a string on it have disgraced the nation. Generosity should be spontaneous and enduring, and those who pose as philanthropists should be liberal and broad-minded as well. Dewey was not an object of charity, and would have earned the applause of the whole nation had he declined the proffered gift. But, having accepted it, those who had bestowed it reasonably had no more interest in it, and should have quietly submitted if Dewey had even gone so far as to present the house to his mother-in-law. The hero of Manila bay became the idol of the nation. Then the people wanted to see the idol. It was brought home to be broken by those who courted notoriety in having their names enrolled as contributors to the Dewey home.

NEWBERG.

The meetings that have been in progress at the Baptist church for three weeks, will close Tuesday.

Presiding Elder D. A. Watters held quarterly conference at the M. E. church on Sunday evening. Rev. Watters was accompanied by his wife.

The many friends of Mrs. S. P. Kinyon, who is spending the winter in California for her health, will be glad to know that she, and also her daughter Winnie, are very well. Winnie has started to school.

The Hotel Newberg is all right, and a long felt want in our town is supplied. Mr. McAtee is an ideal landlord, and Mrs. McAtee is a hostess in herself.

The chicken pie supper given by the ladies of the M. E. church on last Friday night, was a success in every sense of the word. The sum of thirty-one dollars was realized.

Word has just been received of the sudden death of the old gentleman Cummins, from a stroke of paralysis on Sunday night. He will be buried from the M. E. church on Tuesday, at 10 a. m. Mr. Spaulding, father of C. K. Spaulding, also had a stroke of paralysis on Sunday, and is quite low at present.

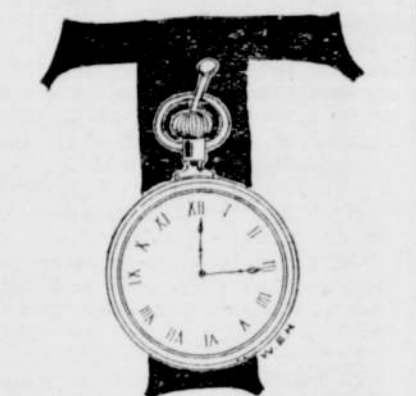

Pimples

Are more than a disfigurement of the skin; they are a handicap to a young man, alike in love and business. The pimply face looks dissipated and both merchant and maiden look askance at the unfortunate fellow whose face is his misfortune. An almost certain cure for pimples and similar disfiguring eruptions is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood of the corrupting cause of ordinary eruptive diseases, cleanses the skin and builds up the body with sound wholesome flesh. "Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I am well pleased with your medicine," writes John A. Callaway, Esq., of No. 218 24th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two of Doctor Pierce's Peppermint Cure, and I do believe that I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines but received no benefit. Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and now I weigh one hundred and forty-five. Please accept my thanks. I am so glad I found the right kind of medicine."

An After Christmas Verdict

"Suited to a 'T'."

Will be the hearty verdict of the individual who gets a Watch for Christmas. Nothing so exactly fills the bill for a Christmas gift as does the Watch. Always in style, always in the best of taste, always a welcome present.

In buying an article for yourself, YOU only are concerned; in buying a present, OTHERS are concerned with you.

In present buying, you should be positive you are buying just what you want, and getting just what you buy. Here, you take no risk. My guarantees, backed by those of the manufacturers, go with each and every Watch I sell.

As to prices, it stands to reason that the Jeweler of the smaller towns, like myself, can undersell the city Jeweler, who are laboring under enormous rentals and varied city expenses of city merchandising.

This year I offer the people of McMinnville and vicinity the choicest line of watches it has ever been my pleasure to show. In variety and range of price, I can suit every taste and purse. If you want something special, I can get it for you on short notice.

I guarantee and keep in order for one year every Watch I sell. I give you a HOME guarantee—a guarantee that guarantees to you no further expense.

We are going to give away several nice presents this year, as we have in former years. Particulars next week.

My son had been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.
