Rev. F. Dillard Holman died at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, last Saturday night, Dec. 2d, of kidney trouble, at the age of 68 years. He was a native of Missouri, and had lived in various parts of Oregon and California since coming west. Last fall he returned to McMinnville from the Sound to make his home with his brother D. S., near this city. On the day of his arrival he called at this office, and was then suffering severe pain from his ailment, and stopped for a brief rest on his journey. He remained with his brother until a few weeks ago, when it was thought best to remove him to the hospital. Mr. Holman came to Oregon in 1845. He was twice married and twice divorced, and leaves a son and daughter grown. The burial was from the Christian church on Wednesday.

The services at the M. E. church next Sunday will be held morning and evening as usual. The subject of the evening sermon will be, "Why am I a Methodist?" These evening services are preceded by the Epworth league prayer and song service, which begins promptly at 6:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to all the services at this church.

Elihu Roberts, son of Phineas Roberts, who lives five miles west of North Yamhill, was arrested early in the week on a charge of shooting a valuable shepherd dog belonging to E. D. Sitton near Panther creek, on the public highway, on the previous Saturday. He was tried before Justice Snyder on Monday, a number of persons being examined as witnesses. There was no eye witness. The strongest testimony was given by A. Anderson, who met young Roberts on the highway as he was rapidly galloping his horse. The gait at which he was traveling excited Anderson's curiosity, and going a little further down the road he came upon the dog, still bleeding from his wound. This pointed sufficiently toward the boy's guilt, the justice thought, to justify him in binding the boy over to circuit court in the sum of $200, and the bond was readily given. The lowest penalty for the offense is a fine of $50, and the highest penalty is the penitentiary for three years. C. W. Talmage appeared for the prosecution, and Irvine & Vinton for the defense.

A seven-year-old pupil of the public schools, son of Mr. Ferguson, the blacksmith, recently received a severe whipping at the hands of the principal. The proof of the severity was ten welts remaining on the boy's back for several days, from some of which blood was brought. The principal's peculiar weapon of punishment is a piece of rubber hose about five feet in length and about a half-inch in diameter, with a small hollow center. Attached to this is an iron handle. The boy's offense was swearing upon the school grounds. Naturally, Mr. Ferguson, the father, was incensed to the fighting point, at this treatment of his own flesh and blood, and called upon the principal. He says he told him he believed in his boy being punished in a reasonable way, but not in the manner of negro slave driving, and that if the occurrence was repeated, he would have to take a hand in the whipping. The principal expressed his sorrow that the punishment had proved so severe, and excused it by saying that he did not know the boy's clothing was so thin. It is a serious question at this age of the world whether punishment of pupils by teachers beyond the practice of expulsion, standing upon the floor, keeping in at recess, and like light methods, is justifiable from any standpoint of reason or any humanitarian rule governing the great brotherhood of mankind. It is even becoming a question whether parents should resort to severe bodily punishment in any great degree.

J. B. Clark, Peoria, Ill., says, "Surgeons wanted to operate on me for piles, but I cured them with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve." It is infallible for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Rogers Bros.
Having removed from Lafayette to McMinnville, Dr. J. C. Michaux is permanently located here for the practice of his profession, and will cheerfully attend any calls from the country. His office rooms are 7 and 8 in Union block.

A petition from a number of the city residents near the waterworks for an arc light in their neighborhood came before the city council Tuesday evening. The people over there are entitled to a light, and there isn't much doubt of their getting it.
The city council decided Tuesday evening to suspend the new arc lights diagonally at cross streets from 45-foot poles, instead of using the brackets from a pole on the corner. This will be much better than the bracket, and will afford an unobstructed light down four streets.

There will be a Christmas sale and oyster supper given by the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church, Saturday afternoon and evening, December 16th, in the vacant store room in Union block. 51-2
Mr. J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., saved his child's life by One Minute Cough Cure. Doctors had given her up to die with croup. It's an infallible cure for coughs, colds, grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis and throat and lung troubles. Relieves at once. Rogers Bros.

Mrs. Amelia Fisher, believed to have been the oldest lady in Oregon, died near Albany Nov. 29th, at the age of 97 years, four months and 13 days. She was the mother of Mrs. A. E. Latourette of this city. Mrs. Fisher's mother was a lineal descendant of Peregrine White, who was honored as the first white child born in Massachusetts, though born on board the ship Mayflower off the coast of that state.
Alfred Holman, editor of the daily San Jose, Calif. Mercury, formerly of the Oregonian staff, was in the city on Wednesday, to attend the burial of his father, Rev. Dillard Holman. He is a native Oregonian, and a nephew of Senator McBride, both being born on the McBride farm in this county, and in the same room. Mr. Holman is doing well at San Jose, but has not forgotten the charms of Oregon's all-the-year-round genial climate.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. Rogers Bros.
