Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilme & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

THE SETTLER'S THANKSGIVING.

Out in the hills where the morning sun kisses The honeysuckle over the door; Where the mountains paint pictures Titanic at sunset, And Nature lies dreaming on slumberland's shore; Where the stillness of peace broods over the valley, And the breath of the breeze brings the odor of pines; There the cottage of the settler on the hillside reposes, Its windows entangled with evergreen vines. The dinner is ready, the turkey is roasted, The settler's good wife set the table for three; "Come, John, in to dinner," she calls from the kitchen, "There likely won't be any company." The settler stands outside his cottage, reviewing The scenes that have grown so familiar and dear; The voice of his wife awakened his dreaming, And he answered, "Yes, yes, I am coming, my dear." They sat themselves down at the table and waited, In silence they waited ere they offered up prayer. They waited, and waited, for footsteps familiar, But no one sat down in the vacant chair. With look that gave token of love undiminished, With look of fond mother who cannot forget, She spoke: "I set the table for Frank, a thinkin' That sometime, he might come back to us yet." The settler in silence inclined his gray head, And reverently offered a blessing and prayer: "O God, we did need him, but he died for his country, And thou wilt take care of our boy over there." One year ago today, he wrote to his mother: "Just think that I'm with you, put the cane-bottomed chair In my place, when you're eating your Thanksgiving dinner, I'll be thinking of you, for I'd like to be there." In silence they ate their Thanksgiving dinner, "How empty and lonely is the cottage today!" Then they took up his letters and read them all over, The letters he wrote from the isles far away. But there came the one by a strange hand written, "He died like a hero, and we laid him in rest." The tears flowed anew—"but God who hath given, Hath taken," she murmured, "and God knoweth best." MURIEL GRAY.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks' Almanac.

There is no comparison between former editions, and this splendid almanac for 1900, now ready. Printed in beautiful colors, on much finer paper, its 196 pages are packed with invaluable information on storms, astronomy and meteorology. It is illustrated with nearly 200 finest half tones and other engravings. This superb book will sell anywhere for 50 cents, but it costs only 25 cents a copy, and every subscriber to Rev. Irl R. Hicks' now famous paper, Word and Works, at $1.00 a year, receives this elegant almanac as a premium. Word and Works is a recognized leader among the best family and scientific journals, while nothing of its kind can compare with the Hicks almanac. One dollar a year is a nominal price for such unique and useful publications. Professor Hicks has justly, and of necessity, withdrawn his storm and weather forecasts from all free almanacs, having generously given his time and labor free for nearly twenty years. Word and Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo. We have made arrangements with Word and Works, whereby we are able to furnish that publication and The Reporter one year, and a copy of the 1900 almanac for $1.75 in advance.

The local manager of the Salem flouring mills shows that there was in the mill and elevator destroyed by fire the morning of September 23d, last, 122,534 bushels and six pounds of wheat belonging to storers. Of this, only 17,612 bushels and 22 pounds was saved uninjured, making the total amount damaged by fire, 104,922 bushels and 32 pounds. The total amount of salvage was $10,340.90, being the revenue derived from the sale of 26,633 sacks of damaged grain. The expense of handling was $4479.54, so the net salvage to be divided pro rata among storers is $5861.36.

S. S. S. GOES TO THE BOTTOM.

Promptly Reaches the Seat of all Blood Diseases and Cures the Worst Cases. In every test made S. S. S. easily demonstrates its superiority over other blood remedies. It matters not how obstinate the case, nor what other treatment or remedies have failed, S. S. S. always promptly reaches and cures any disease where the blood is in any way involved. Everyone who has had experience with blood diseases knows that there are no ailments or troubles so obstinate and difficult to cure. Very few remedies claim to cure such real, deep-seated blood diseases as S. S. S. cures, and none can offer such incontrovertible evidence of merit. S. S. S. is not merely a tonic—it is a cure! It goes down to the very seat of all blood diseases, and gets at the foundation of the very worst cases, and routs the poison from the system. It does not, like other remedies, dry up the poison and hide it from view temporarily, only to break forth again more violently than ever; S. S. S. forces out every trace of taint, and rids the system of it forever. Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and in my great extremity I prayed to die. Several prominent physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash which they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. I improved from the start, as the medicine seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble and force the poison out. Twenty bottles cured me completely." Swift's Specific—S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD —is the only remedy that is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no mercury, potash, arsenic, or any other mineral or chemical. It never fails to cure Cancer, Eczema, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, etc. Valuable books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

A SURE CURE FOR COUGP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure. The first indication of cough is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

RESUME SUNSET LIMITED.

Southern Pacific's Famous Flyer Starts from San Francisco, December 15th. The Sunset Limited, the Southern Pacific's famous train of the Sunset route, will commence its service for the winter season on Friday, December, 15th. The schedule for this year is considered rather superior to any previous season, affording as it will opportunity for favorable view of points of interest along the line, and making agreeable connections at New Orleans with limited trains of other lines to and from the important centers of the east. The train will leave San Francisco at 5 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays, passing Los Angeles about 7 o'clock the following morning, thus giving a daylight view of the orange belt of southern California. Its connections at El Paso with through cars of the Texas & Pacific for St. Louis, will place California passengers in that city from 10 to 12 hours ahead of all other lines. The trip from Houston to New Orleans, will also be by daylight, and the arrival in the gulf city just in time to connect with the fast trains for Washington, New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and other points. The Sunset Limited equipment and service is up to its well-known high standard. It is worthy of remark that the distance of 3000 miles from San Francisco to New York is traversed by the sunset limited in 114 hours, only 12 hours longer than by the fastest trains through Chicago, a distance of 3300 miles. The sunset is an ideal winter route, the traveler not being subjected to any of the discomforts incident to inclement weather conditions of the more northern routes. Yours truly, C. H. MARKHAM.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. E. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and paining me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me." For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.
