A Christmas Wedding.
December 25th was a festive day at the residence of Mr. Duncan Ross. Assembled was his whole family to partake of his sumptuous Christmas banquet and share in the happiness of the great event of the day—namely, the marriage of his eldest daughter to Mr. James Cruikshank. The ceremony performed by Rev. Mr. Hoberg was exceedingly impressive, and all the invited guests appeared to very much appreciate the solemn occasion. The young couple were married and joined in holy wedlock in the presence of Mrs. Fred McKicken, sister of the bride, Mr. Isaac Burns and wife, Mr. Rosner and daughter, Prof. Taylor and wife, and Mr. Dave Cruikshank of Portland, brother of the fortunate young gentleman who secured a most deserving partner in life. We wish them all joy and happiness in every year and Christmas to come.
May flowers around your path be spread,
Their sweetest perfume may they shed.
May blessings all mid toil and strife
Surround and keep you e'er through life.

Drowned at Sheridan.
Geo. Lebold, a butcher and cattle buyer of Sheridan, was found drowned in the little branch emptying into the river just below the Sheridan bridge early Thursday morning. As near as we can learn it is a case of accidental drowning. Coroner Chapman is holding an inquest. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Henry Gee of this city, and a partner in business with J. W. Bones.
Burglar Arrested.
Constable Turner, of Dayton, arrested a man named Feeks at Newburg on Wednesday, who had been eluding his pursuit for several days. He is charged with burglarizing the residence of Morris Fletcher. He waived examination and was lodged in the county jail last evening.
Severely Hurt.
Frank Sully is suffering from a severe cut on his head, the result of a runaway last Saturday. Mr. Sully was thrown from his cart and dragged a distance of over a block, his foot having caught in the cart when he fell, and his head struck a wagon wheel. The accident occurred at Mrs. Babcock's stable in this city. His condition was serious for a time, but he is now reported out of danger.
How to Cure Croup.
Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Duchesne county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Howorth & Co.

Merle Martin, who was sick with diphtheria is now better and out of danger.
Mrs. Chas. Chaney, who has been visiting in Missouri the last two months, returned home last Saturday.
There was a tree and exercises at the Methodist church Monday night, and we learn it was an enjoyable affair to both old and young.
Those having private trees at home as far as we know, were R. O. Jones, Mrs. Sanders, Mr. Broadwell, Mr. Lawson, Mr. Stenstroms, Dr. Woods, G. V. Querner and Howard Ellston.
Frank Roth and Maude Smith were married Wednesday evening of last week by Elder Cane. They will live on the Robinson farm west of town. A long life, happiness and prosperity is the wish of their many friends.
Raymond, the eight-months old son of Elder Arthur Cane, died of membranous croup, last Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. The funeral was at the residence on Monday at 2 p. m. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.
The Christmas tree and exercises at the Christian church last Monday night was one of the most pleasant affairs ever held in Amity. The pantomimes and tableaux given by the children were very nice, as was also the song by the primary class. The exercises were all good but that part of the exercises which attracted the most attention were the solos sung by Misses Leota Holmes, Nina Durant and Norma Kinman.

A Union Week of Prayer.
At the meeting of the McMinnville ministerial association last Monday it was determined to hold union services during the week of prayer, which will be the second week in January. Arrangements for the meeting will probably be completed in time to permit their publication next week.

New Store! New Firm!
The New Firm of C. F. Mills & Co.

Will assume all the assets and liabilities of the old firm of H. Mills & Son, known as the Racket Store. The change is on account of the decease, about three years ago, of H. Mills, and we thought the beginning of the new century was a good time to change the name. You will find us just across the street from the old stand, better prepared than ever to meet our increasing trade.
C. F. MILLS, Manager.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?
Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamspton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
