or Nearly Two Years Unable to Lay in Bed

"In my capacity as druggist, in Buffalo, N. Y., I have the best opportunity to judge of the merits of many different remedies. I am in close touch with the sick, who come into my store for medicines, and most of them tell me how they are getting along. Of all the hundreds of preparations which I sell, not a single one begins to give as much satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pleurisy and Consumption. I sell it on a distinct guarantee that it will cure, or the purchaser's money will be returned. This is a perfectly safe guarantee, because the remedy does cure. Nobody wants his money returned. Its cures are nothing short of marvelous. Take the case of Mr. A. H. Gilbert, for instance. He lives at No. 5 Carey street, Buffalo, N. Y. For more than three years he had a bad case of asthma, and had been unable to lie down in bed for nearly two years. He came to my store and asked me what to do. I said: 'Take Acker's English Remedy.' He said he had tried other remedies and didn't think this would help him. But he thinks differently now. Three bottles fixed his asthma all right. He could sleep and eat after taking them, as well as when a boy. He was cured several months ago, and is well yet, so I am certain his trouble is gone for good. You can write to Mr. Gilbert himself, if you doubt my word. He will go further than me in praising Acker's English Remedy." (Signed) S. B. THORNE, druggist, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

We Haven't Killed Many Bears

But we have hammered away night and day for 16 consecutive years at the prescription counter with the result of having attained the largest prescription file in the county. There's a reason for this. Anyone can dish out patent medicines, but when it comes to filling prescriptions you want a competent man at the tiller, so to speak, with a clear eye and a clear head—in fact, a man who realizes that a human life hangs in the balance. We do this; it's our specialty.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Wednesday morning was the coldest of the season at this place.

The dance given here Saturday night was well attended and all report having a good time.

Mrs. H. F. Bedwell left for California last Monday, where she goes for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. B. C. Reed of Spokane, Washington, is visiting her brother A. E. McKern, during this week.

Orlando Turner, one of our public school students, left Thursday for Pilot Rock, where he goes to take a position in a general merchandise store.

Rev. Leach, pastor of the M. E. church, is holding revival meetings this week and seems to be causing quite an interest, as he has a good attendance every night.

So far there have been but very few registered at this place, and there seems to be quite a lot of kicking about the law, as some of our old residents that have voted here for the last 15 or 20 years cannot register, having been born in foreign countries, and having no copy of their father's citizen papers, which is required by the law.

NEWBERG.

Mrs. Lena Ballard of Portland is in town, a guest of Mrs. F. X. McAtee.

Last Tuesday Miss Bird Nelson returned home, after visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Porter were in Portland last week, buying goods for the spring trade.

Dr. Rossiter, who was taken so suddenly ill one day last week, is considered to be out of danger.

The funeral services conducted by Rev. Levi Barr, over the remains of Mrs. Canby Heston, were held at Friends church on Sunday. Mrs. Heston died at her home near Dundee on Friday, and leaves a husband and eight children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

The musical and spectacular entertainment given last Friday night was well attended. The proceeds amounted to over sixty dollars. The following program was given:

Overture, Zethus, orchestra.
Vocal solo, Hannah's at the Window Binding Shoes, Mrs. S. Snyder.
Quartet, The Sea, Wondrous Sea; Mesdames Barrie and Turner, Messrs. Robertson and Littlefield.
Spectacular taper drill, The Vestal Virgins.
Image of the Rose, orchestra.

Death of Mrs. Brumback.

Harriet Maria Brumback died at the college in this city at 11 p. m. Sunday, Jan. 21st, of pneumonia, after a brief illness. She was the mother of Prof. A. M. Brumback, of the chair of sciences, and with whom she had lived in this city the past three years.

Harriet Maria Graves was born in Sunderland, Mass., Dec. 10th, 1833. From there she removed to Granville, Ohio, where she completed her education and was converted to the christian faith at the age of 15 years. At this place she was a teacher for the period of four years, and in 1856 was married to Prof. J. Brumback, and with him went to Frankland, Ind., where he taught eight years in a college, until the opening of the civil war, when the college closed to permit the young men to enter the volunteer service. Mr. and Mrs. Brumback afterwards moved to Indianapolis, where he was admitted to the bar and practiced until 1866, when he removed to Boise, Idaho, for the benefit of his wife's health. After practicing his profession for five years, he abandoned it for the good of his own health, and invested in mines, being now engaged as mining superintendent. Another son is living, and resides in northern Idaho.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church, Tuesday, at 1 p. m. The sermon was by Pastor R. W. King from the text Luke 22:42: "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will but thine be done." President Boardman assisted in the service. The attendance was large. The college held no sessions on Monday and Tuesday, and the students attended the funeral in a body, and accompanied the funeral procession to the train, which was taken by the husband and Prof. Brumback and family, who accompanied the body of deceased to Boise for interment. The pall bearers were, A. C. Chandler, Profs. Boardman, Northrup, Storey and Converse, and E. W. Wallace.

J. B. Clark, Peoria, Ill., says, "Surgons wanted to operate on me for piles, but I cured them with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve." It is infallible for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Rogers Bros.

Gone Into Bankruptcy.

The Reporter learns with regret that one of Yamhill county's best citizens has been forced to the wall through an unfortunate business venture. The Sheridan Sun of last week tells in the following language why D. W. Ralston of that place was forced to take advantage of the bankrupt act:

"About eighteen months ago Mr. Ralston built an expensive fruit dryer at this place for the purpose of saving the product of his own orchard and also that of his neighbors. This was an unfortunate venture, as through the rashness of men to whom the fruit was consigned in the east he lost the entire amount of the season's output. Since then he has been struggling against fate, finding himself unable to contend with the forces against him, has turned all his property into the hands of the court, and like the honorable man that he has always proved himself to be, retains no exemptions or anything for himself, but will start anew in the battle of life and strive for a competence, though he has passed the noonday meridian of life."

Preacher and Parent Both Deceived

A short time ago, not a hundred miles from McMinnville, a funny circumstance in the marriage line occurred. A certain preacher was met on the street by two gentlemen, the elder of which accosted the preacher, "This is Mr. —, who has secured his marriage license, and desires you to marry him." The time of the wedding was set for the next day, and the preacher kindly volunteered to prepare a dinner, as the weather was cold for long riding. The wedding hour came and passed, but with it no candidates for marriage. The preacher was called to the telephone and told: "We'll not be up to get married, today." He replied: "Then you won't be up today?" "No, we'll not be up today." "Won't there be any wedding?" "No, I guess not, today." "Then there won't be any wedding at all?" "No, there won't be any wedding." The preacher went back to his cottage and broke the sad news to a few invited guests that there would be no bridal party, and they would have to eat their dinner alone. But a happy thought struck him. Some good-natured neighbors were invited in to fill the void, and a season of good cheer followed. The preacher doesn't know to this day with whom he talked over the phone, but it has since been learned that there was a wedding that day, and that the services of a minister living in the opposite direction were enlisted. What turned the tide is left to conjecture.

"I Want My Photograph."

This was the desire of a good many hearts in McMinnville the past week, after the town had been canvassed by a half-dozen representatives of the Rex Portrait Co. of Chicago. It was the old "enlarged picture and frame" scheme. The company had contracted with Wallace & Walker to furnish enlarged oilographs to each customer who would buy $20 worth of groceries of them, the picture to be furnished when the complete purchase was made, but the contract did not specify that customers should take frames also. The town was hurriedly canvassed in a day or two, on all sorts of misrepresentations, such as that the pictures should be made at once, and could be secured before the entire $20 had been traded out; that they could be secured on cash or time purchases, and it would be entirely optional whether the customer took a frame or not. Nearly 100 orders were secured, and would you believe it, that in intelligent McMinnville, this number of people signed an agreement containing a clause requesting "Please reserve for me one of your magnificent frames," when the desire of every one was simply to have the oilograph? Well, they did it. But something else occurred the following day that saved them from these bonds. The "main guy" of fakirs called at the grocery in a great hurry to settle up for a consignment of one hundred frames, costing $150, just unloaded at the depot, that he might proceed to the next town. Mr. Walker was not in so much of a hurry, as frames had not been nominated in the bond, and informed the agent that he would be arrested if he attempted to leave town under the circumstances. The misrepresentations made on the orders taken were beginning to come to the ears of the grocers. The manager failed to get a settlement, and left after a sojourn of a day or two at the hotel. Wallace & Walker hold the frames in their warehouse as indemnity against a bill of freight paid by them, and the signers of orders are voicing the desire expressed at the head of this article.

Columbus School Notes.

Miss Hope Sully entered the 8th grade one day last week.

Four months have passed and we will soon be half through our school year's work.

This is the only month that remains that pupils may enter the 1st and 2d grades.

The 10th grade has taken up English literature and physical geography in the place of algebra and rhetoric.

The reviews seem to be somewhat better this month than before. Perhaps some of the pupils realize that the end is not far away, and if they want to make their grades they must "dig."

The roll of honor for the 8th, 9th and 10th grades will be published next week. Here is the 3d and 4th and 5th: 3d grade: Jennie Paulus, Clara Arthur, Emma Small, Claud Brower, Clarence Reynolds, Bertha Long, Nora Cockerham, Edna Rash, Roy Johnson, and Mattie Small. Emma Greene, teacher.

4th grade: Walter Potter, Arnold Johnson, Floris Derby, Roger Colliard, Ethel Ford.

4th and 5th grades: Clair Reid, Fred Schenk, Raymond Derby, Elmer Cantonwine, Georgie Irvine, Ethel Clark, Bessie Luelling, Mary Maurer, Leonora Miller. Fernie F. Bentley, teacher.

Cook School Notes.

Mr. Grissen was a visitor Tuesday morning.

Several scholars are out of school on account of sickness. George Bodle entered school Monday.

Four months of school gone and what have we accomplished? Anything? Each scholar will have to answer for himself or herself.

We hope to see more visitors in the next five months than we had in the last four.

It takes but a minute to overcome tickling in the throat and to stop a cough by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. This remedy quickly cures all forms of throat and lung troubles. Harmless and pleasant to take. It prevents consumption. A famous specific for gripple and its after effects. Rogers Bros.

Registration of Voters.

Up to Wednesday, Jan. 24th, the county clerk's books showed the following registration by precincts:

Amity 9, Baker Creek 23, Bellevue 11, Carlton 10, Checowa 12, Dundee 1, East Dayton 17, West Dayton 8, Fairlawn 25, Lafayette 3, North McMinnville 38, South McMinnville 42, North Newberg 9, South Newberg 19, North Yamhill 6, North Sheridan 4, South Sheridan 2, Whiteson 5, Willamette 5, Willamina 0, West Chehalis 8, total 257. The last total vote of the county was 3,323. This leaves about 3,000 voters yet to register in the next 95 days, or an average of about 30 names a day. As the limit of time draws to a close the clerk is likely to need extra help to enroll the names. The Reporter can see only one merit about this law in a county like Yamhill—it will make people familiar with the block or section of land on which they live and thus improve their geography. The law was clearly designed to prevent election frauds in Portland, and its scope should have been limited to that city, the only place where they occur. Our North Yamhill correspondent points out one of the objectionable features that will rise to the surface with aggravating force a little later on, and lots of people well entitled to vote are likely to be cut out through failure to register, as well as inability to meet the requirements of the law regarding naturalization papers. The next legislature is likely to be asked to confine the operations of the law to Portland, where it belongs.
