

If a person is ill and needs a medi-cine is it not wise to get one that has stood the test of time and has hun-dreds of thousands of cures to its credit ?

A great many women who are ill try everything they hear of in the way of medicine, and this experimenting with unknown drugs is a constant menace to their already impaired health.

This seems to us very unwise, for there are remedies which are no ex-periments and have been known years and years to be doing only good. Take for instance Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound; for thirty years its record has been one unbroken chain of success. No medicine for female ills the world has ever known has such a record for cures.

It seems so strange that some people will take medicines about which they really know nothing, some of which might be, and are, really harmful; while on the other hand it is easily proved that over one million women have been restored to health by Lydia

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. We have published in the news-papers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine.

All this should, and does, produce a spirit of confidence in the hearts of women which is difficult to dislodge, and when they are asked to take something else they say, "No, we want Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has been tried, and never found wanting, whose reliability is established far beyond the experimental stage." We have thousands of letters like the following addressed to Mrs. Pinkham, showing that

Monthly Suffering is Always Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also Backache and Bearing-down pains,

"I suffered untold agony every month and could get no relief until I tried your medicine; your letter of ad-vice and a few bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have made me the happiest woman alive. shall bless you as long as I live."-MISS JOIE SAUL, Dover, Mich.

"Four years ago I had almost given ap hope of ever being well again. I was afflicted with those dreadful headache spells which would sometimes last three or four days. Also had backache, bearing-down pains, leucorrhœa, dizziness, and terrible pains at monthly periods, confining me to my bed. After reading so many testi-monials for your medicine, I concluded to try it. I began to pick up after taking the first bottle, and have con-tinued to gain rapidly, and now feel like a different woman. I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the highest terms to all ROSA HELDEN 126 W. Cleveland Ave., Canton, O.

WAS A WOMAN OF RESOURCES.

Possession of a Black Eye Opened Her Husband's Pocketbook. One of the children called, and she went to see what was the matter. The hall was dark, the child's bedroom was dark, the door to the room stood partly open and the result was that she ran into the door. In spite of the usual applications for injuries of that nature the bruise just over her eye was painfully in evidence in a very short time and her husband was sympathetic. "Yes, it does hurt," she said in reply to his question. "It pains me a great deal. 1 think I ought to get $50 for that."

"Fifty dollars," he exclaimed. "From whom ?"

"From you." she replied.

"But I didn't push you into the door." he protested, "and neither did I leave the door ajar." "Nevertheless," she ass ried.

self," he said, "but I don't see why it should cost me $50." "Because I need it to get that gown spoke to you about," she exp'a ned. "Oho! So that's it," he returned. You want to work on my sympathies to get the gown I have already refused to buy for you. Well, it won't do."

"You won't let me have it?"

"No." "Suppose I should knock over a few chairs, rush around the flat noisily for five or ten minutes and then tip over a table," she suggested.

"I'd think it very foolish of you, but it wouldn't change my determination," he answered.

"Then suppose, after making such a racket as that, which could not fail to arouse the curiosity of the neighbors, I should go out on the street to-morrow with this swollen and discolored eye," she persisted.

"What's that?" he demanded.

"Suppose when I was asked how it happened I should appear ill at ease, augh in a constrained sort of way, and after some hesitation say that I ran against a door."

"You wouldn't do that!" he exclaim ed in alarm.

"What would be the inference drawn by those who heard the racket up here to-night?"

"Oh, come, now! Don't be silly!" he protested nervously.

"What would they think of you?" she went on. "What kind of reputation would you get in this neighborbood?" "But-but surely you wouldn't do it!"

he insisted.

"Do I get that gown?" she asked, as she pulled a chair over until it was almost ready to fall.

"But you know I never did a brutal act in my life," he pleaded. "I never treated you other than kindly."

"Will you be able to convince the neighbors of that?" "I'll bet," he said as he reached for his pocket-book, "that you ran into that door purposely." But she got the gown. A resourceful woman can profit even by her misfortune .- New York Sun.

Walking Warily.

A man who walks circumspectly has his eyes open and his wits about him. If you ask him where he is going he can tell you instantly. He has a rule of conduct, and a distinct object in view, and carries with him a certain sense of danger that some one or something will interfere with the object he has in view. Such a man will be more likely to accomplish his purpose than a mere wanderer. If it is worth while to walk circumspectly, for the sake of success in business and the accomplishment of our earthly schemes, how much more is it worth while, for the sake of our spiritual welfare and growth in grace?-United Presbyterian.

Cas of Liquor in the Army. The Evangelical alliance at Cincinnati listened to two addresses on "Temperance." Rev. F. M. Wells, former chaplain of the First Tennessee regiment at Manila, spoke of intoxication among the soldiers. He said that there were 300 traveling liquor salesmen in the Philippines and that liquor is sold on many transports, as well as on the battleship Indiana. He cited names of officers whom he said he had seen drunk, and said 90 per cent of the illness among the soldiers is caused by liquor. He was followed by Clinton N. Howard, the temperance orator and retormer, who outlined his work in Rochester.

The following story is told in the life of the late Archbishop Benson by his son about the archbishop's favorite dog, Watch: "My father was reading the lesson, which was the thirteenth chapter of St. Mark, in which the word 'watch' occurs several times. The dog, who had been slumbering peacefully, became very restless, and, as the bishop ended with the words: 'What I say unto you, I say unto all, watch,' in a very imperious voice, there followed a great scuffling and scratching, and Watch emerged hastily from his place and proceeded to the door of my father's stall."-Troy Times.
