OUR COLLEGE THE WINNER.

Enthusiasm Unbounded On Return of the Delegation from Monmouth.

Matters and things are coming our way, and the fact that McMinnville is yearly becoming more and more a factor in the affairs of the state, is apparent to the most unobserving. The college is concerned in the latest achievement, and the winning of the oratorical medal by W. Lair Thompson at Monmouth was the occasion for the most unbounded enthusiasm on his return home. He was given a free ride from the depot to the postoffice on the shoulders of his fellow-students. The Baptist church was well filled Monday evening at the public reception and college rally which was held in honor of the victor. Much enthusiasm was manifested and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. The program, which of necessity was extended to a great extent, was an honor to the college and all who took part. Just before the opening of the program the students of the college marched in and occupied seats reserved for them, and with the college colors and yells did honor to the new victor. President Boardman presided at the meeting. The program opened with a piano duet by Mrs. Annie Evenden and Miss Maud Hobbs, which met with hearty applause. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. Hoberg. Mayor Maloney was then introduced, and in behalf of the city of McMinnville expressed in a forcible and humorous way his faith in the college. Rev. A. J. Hunsaker spoke in behalf of the board of trustees, and expressed his pride in the honor just won by a grandson of the founder of the institution. Mr. Lyman Latourette, of the class of 1894, spoke in behalf of the alumni, in congratulating the college and Mr. Thompson on the victory. Mr. Chas. Galloway, who won the same honor for the college in February, 1896, shed tears in sympathy for the University of Oregon, his alma mater, in its defeat, but expressed his pride in the victory as an old student of the college and a resident of McMinnville. A beautiful piano quartet was played by Mrs. Evenden, Miss Crawford, Miss Latourette and Miss Hobbs. Mr. Jamie McKillop recited a parody on Tennyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade," which did honor to the occasion.

The principal attraction of the evening was the prize oration delivered by Mr. Thompson. It was listened to with marked attention. Mr. Thompson's thoughts are quite clear, expressed in good language, and uttered with force. He began by referring to our late war with Spain and to the fact that the world is rife with war. This led to a consideration of our national policy, which has ever been expansion. He met the argument that our policy has been moulded by accident by referring to our past history with special stress on the days of the revolution. Of course our policy has changed as it applies to details, but not in its main objects of attainment. Our nation has been developed on the principle of expansion. Expansion is not imperialism. Imperialism is despotism, while expansion is the expression of the rule of the people. Our country has never taken a forward step except as the people led in the movement. This has always been our policy, and now we must either advance or retreat. To advance we must leave the continent. A call comes from God and from an enslaved people, demanding that we carry our civilization to others. This call we must obey. Expansion is it is now discussed applies to the Philippine islands. Several reasons were given showing why we should keep these islands. It will give us the means of maintaining our position among the nations. We must have a doorway to the orient. Our commercial interests make the same demand. Morality demands retention also. If we abandon them, they will become the seat of a contention which shall last for years, and which will result in a worse state than they were when under the rule of Spain. We must eliminate the present evils and give them our civilization. Our policy has always been expansion and must always continue so if we are to develop and be of greatest service to the world.

At the close of the oration President Boardman spoke of the advantages of such a victory to the college and city, and appealed for aid from the people to foster the oratorical spirit in the college by raising $500 for a permanent fund, and the president hopes to raise the remainder by private subscription. During the evening two original poems were sung. These were understood to be the composition of two or three of the college students. The one following, entitled "Thompson's Victory," and sung to the air of "We Won't Go Home Till Morning," was given after Mayor Maloney's speech:

The colleges made a grand mistake,
As they went bragging around and around
To think that they could down old Mc,
As they went bragging around.

Lair Thompson won the honored prize,
As they for glory strove and bled,
He bore it off before their eyes,
With the purple and the red.

The road was hard and very steep,
As they so madly waded their hands,
Old Mc left them behind to weep,
Bound fast with purple bands.

He helped increase the fame of Mc,
As he the prize so surely won,
And now we strive to pay him back
For all that he has done.

"McMinnville, the Gem of the Valley," was given after the president's appeal. It was sung to the air of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," and was as follows:

Old McMinnville, the gem of the valley,
The shrine of the brave and the free,
The cause of tonight's joyous rally,
A state offers homage to thee:
Thy students with gladness assemble,
When victor's palm is in view,
Thy banner makes colleges tremble,
When borne by our Thompson so true.

Our college, our college forever,
Our glorious college's hymn,
May the wreath it has won never wither,
Nor the star of its glory grow dim,
May the students united ne'er sever,
But they to their colors prove true!
Old McMinnville College forever,
Three cheers for our Thompson so true.

Chorus.—Then cheer for McMinnville anew,
Then cheer for McMinnville anew,
Our banner makes colleges tremble
When borne by our Thompson so true.

The meeting closed with benediction by Rev. A. J. Hunsaker.

Brown Bros. have sold their butcher shop to J. M. Bunn.

W. C. Miller and wife of McMinnville were in our city Monday last.

Mose Johnson, the populist chief, was in our city Monday last. Guess he has got the "bee" in his car again.

Hon. Lee Laughlin visited Portland Tuesday last.

Chas. Smith of Trask was in our city during the week. He is out in the interest of the Bell Telephone Co., who are thinking of running a line from this place to Tillamook.

Miss Grace Fox went to Astoria Tuesday to attend the funeral of her uncle, James Fox.

J. W. Redd shipped a carload of hogs from this place to Portland Tuesday.

J. M. Bunn sheared his goats last week and had 16 nannies and 2 billies that sheared 7 1/2 pounds each, on an average. This, we think, is a record breaker. The clip from these goats at the present price would be about $2.60 each, which is the next thing to a claim in Alaska.

H. F. Bedwell has sold his fine Shire stallion, True Briton, to parties near Newberg.

The entertainment and luncheon given at the M. E. church Saturday evening, was well attended and greatly enjoyed by all. Miss Ethel Harris of McMinnville treated the audience to one of her recitations, which was complimented by everybody present.

Mrs. Sarah Hutchcroft, wife of Robert T. Hutchcroft, died at her home two miles west of this place, on Sunday evening, and was buried Tuesday at the Pike cemetery. Rev. Leach preaching the funeral. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn her loss. The husband and family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

Miss Zola Lantis, aged 22 years, died at her home in Pike on Monday, March 12th, of consumption, and was buried at the Pike cemetery on Wednesday, Rev. Leach preaching the funeral.

AMITY.

A new sidewalk has been built in front of the Odd Fellows hall. Now then, why not put in seats and a good stage, and those who rent the hall will be much accommodated. Besides, all the citizens will rise up and call you blessed.

Mrs. M. E. Holmes is spending the week in Portland, working in a wholesale millinery house.

Mr. Geo. Elerman of Ohio, a nephew to P. P. Durrant, is stopping here, and is highly pleased with our climate and beautiful scenery.

Quite a large number of the young people from here went out to the home of Miss Stella Kinman last Saturday night and spent the evening very pleasantly.

Dr. Woods is happy over the advent into his house of a baby girl.

Many tales are going the rounds these days and some events of rather an exciting nature are taking place. Whether these tales are true and events continue, time alone will tell, and the prophet who would dare foretell the outcome would be looked upon with suspicion.

NEWBERG.

On Sunday last Prof. A. Bittner of Lafayette seminary occupied the pulpit of the Evangelical church here.

Dr. E. W. Rossiter and son left for their new home at Forest Grove on Saturday and on Monday Mrs. Rossiter went by way of Portland.

Saturday evening about thirty young friends of Miss Edith McRea gave her a surprise party at her home near the river. A jolly time was had by them.

Mr. A. P. Fletcher and family from Lafayette visited over Sunday with Mrs. Fletcher's parents, Hon. J. C. Nelson and wife.

The concert given by the Wilder harp and string quartet of Portland for the benefit of the Baptist church of Newberg was fine, and a success financially.

C. E. Smith and wife are away from town for a few days.

A number of persons have had telephones put in their houses, and Newberg now assumes metropolitan airs.

Columbus School Notes.

Since the fine weather set in we are marching into the building.

FRUIT MEN ARE ORGANIZED.

Another Lightning Bolt Struck Yamhill County in Choice of President.

The Cured Fruit Association of the Pacific northwest came into legal existence in Portland last week. It was fully incorporated, electors chosen, stock subscribed and plans for work formulated. Its final success now depends entirely upon support given by the many small growers. Many large prune orchardists are represented in the organization, and are almost a unit for co-operation. While the Cured Fruit Association of the Pacific northwest is organized, absolutely and completely, its present existence is in a measure an experiment. The electors and officers now chosen are not expected to perform the vast work of marketing the crop, should the association be in shape for the coming season. They are instructed to organize the campaign to get the growers into line, and when all the districts are fully represented and time has been spent in deliberating over the capacity of officers, the executive force of the association, who are to handle its business affairs, will be named. Fourteen of the 15 directors have been named, and these directors have all power in their keeping; but when the annual meeting in June is called, it is the purpose to name a new set of officers throughout, that the fullest opportunity may be given all growers to have a voice.

Hon. Wm. Galloway of this county was chosen president, than whom fruit-growers could have found no greater enthusiast or harder worker in the cause. He is also chairman of the board of directors. J. H. Fletcher, of Vancouver is first vice-president, J. P. McMinn of Walla Walla is second vice-president, Henry E. Dosh of Portland is secretary, Wilbur K. Newell of Dillie is treasurer, W. W. Cotton of Portland is consulting attorney, and C. E. Stuart of Medford, A. C. Churchill of Newberg, and C. R. Smead of Blalock, Wash., together with the first vice-president and president, constitute the executive committee.

The convention resolved itself into a stockholders' meeting, and subscriptions progressed so well that more than enough members were down to take up 50 per cent of the $500 capital stock fixed. Those subscribing from this county and the districts they represent, were as follows: R. O. Jones, Amity; A. C. Churchill, Newberg; Schneider Bros., North Yamhill; W. K. Allen, Newberg; E. M. Arthur, Newberg; J. W. Smith, Newberg; E. L. French, Newberg; H. F. Allen, Newberg; E. C. Craven, Newberg; L. C. Miles, Newberg; A. M. Fanning, Sheridan; Z. T. Davis, Dundee; Louis Wambagan, Dayton. A. C. Churchill was chosen director for this county.
