The report was adopted.

Committee on resolutions reported as follows:

To the Yamhill County Democratic convention: We, the undersigned, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to submit the accompanying resolutions, and recommend that they be adopted by the convention:

1. Resolved, That we hereby reaffirm our adherence to the Chicago platform adopted by the democratic national convention of 1896.

2. That we most heartily endorse our bold and fearless leader, Hon. W. J. Bryan for president.

3. That we condemn the present republican administration for the disgraceful manner in which it is treating the Puerto Ricans in withholding the benefits of free trade with the states.

4. Resolved, That we favor the adoption of the initiative and referendum so far as they may be practicable in legislation.

5. Resolved, That we favor the adoption and enforcement of such legislation national and state as shall be necessary to destroy the trusts formed for the purpose of controlling the business of the country to the detriment of the consumers.

6. Resolved, That we demand an amendment to the constitution of the that neither house of the legislature should have to exceed 18 clerks, including clerks of committees. The republican party has frequently promised the people retrenchment and economy in public expenditures and has as often failed in those promises, showing that it is incapable of reforming itself.

9. Resolved, That we call the attention of the people to the fact that our taxes are very high, notwithstanding that nearly all that the farmers have to sell brings a very low price. With wheat at a very low figure and hops worth less than the price of harvesting them, the people are in poor condition to pay the heavy taxes imposed upon them by the state and county; that it is the duty of the county court to retrench in expenditures and not permit the drains on the treasury to grow. We call their attention to the English parliament—imposing taxes on the American colonies without their consent.

7. Resolved, That the democrats of Yamhill county denounce the action of Senator McBride and Representatives Tongue and Moody in voting to impose tariff taxes on the trade between Puerto Rico and the United States as an act of injustice and of imperialism, and we declare the action of congress on this subject to be similar in character and injustice to the acts of the English parliament—imposing taxes on the American colonies without their consent.

Resolved, That we favor honesty, and economy in the transaction of the business of the state and of this county, and we denounce the profligacy and extravagance of recent republican legislatures of this state, and we demand retrenchment and economy in state expenditures, and we specially denounce the employment of hordes of useless clerks, by the state legislature, and we declare to the fact that the moneys which they expend are paid by the taxpayers, and that the taxpayers have some rights which the county court is bound to respect. We denounce the action of certain republican politicians of this county in attempting to have the salary of the county judge increased.

10. Resolved, That while we favor good roads, we denounce the payment of extravagant sums to road supervisors for their services.

Whereas, the American Book Co. has for many years enjoyed an almost exclusive monopoly in school text-books in this state, and whereas, the people of the state by reason of said monopoly have been paying prices much in excess of a similar class of books; and whereas, the said company's contract with the state expires in 1901, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we protest against the continuation or renewal of the contract of the said company with the state.

Resolved, That we urge upon the representatives elect to use every influence with the governor of the state to appoint a non-political commission who shall select a new series of text-books with an eye single to benefit the schools and the people of the state, and not the corporation.

The resolution referring to Mr. Bryan called forth considerable applause.

Hendrick moved adoption of report, and motion carried unanimously.

Gee moved that chair appoint four tellers; motion carried, and Gee, Corrigan, Payne, F. Wright and Nelson were appointed.

Motion carried to vote for delegates by ballot and that majority of votes elect.

At this point Raleigh referred back to the resolutions and wanted them to say something about the partiality of the county court in registering voters.

Lafe Hall thought it was the duty of the clerk to register the voters instead of the court. The chair seemed to ignore the complaint as without foundation, and the matter was dropped.

Here the chair erred in the order of business, and the election of a central committeeman for the state was first disposed of. M. B. Hendrick was nominated. He withdrew and named Capt. H. L. Heath. W. M. Ramsey was nominated, but explained that he would not be here long. Hendrick wanted Heath declared the unanimous nominee, but the balloting proceeded and resulted in 78 votes for Heath out of a total of 86.

Nomination of delegates was next in order, and the following gentlemen were named: J. S. Allison, H. C. Burns, John Versteeg, F. H. Caldwell, C. G. Payne, C. G. Scott, C. C. Ferguson, Dr. Matthis, J. C. Sawyer, Fred Hess, C. P. Nelson, J. F. Simpson, H. Bertram, Paul Fundman and W. C. Arthur. Morin wanted to know if all precincts were now represented. Twenty ballots were taken to secure eleven delegates, the vote running as high as 103. Those elected are as follows: H. C. Burns, C. R. Matthis, F. H. Caldwell, C. G. Scott, J. F. Simpson, H. A. Bertram, C. J. Payne, Claude Ferguson, C. P. Nelson, Paul Fundman and Lee Jones.

J. C. Cooper moved that the chair appoint a committee of seven to confer with the advisory committee appointed by the populists to pass upon the question of fusion for the coming campaign. The vote stood 46 for and 7 against the motion. Just what the wishes are of the other 47 who did not vote, is a matter of conjecture, but it is a fair presumption that they are not in favor of it.

Mr. Burns appointed M. B. Hendrick, J. C. Sawyer, J. F. Allison, C. Loder, W. F. Raleigh, Frank Wright and E. J. Wood. Mr. Ferguson asked what this committee is expected to do. Mr. Burns replied that he didn't know, it wasn't his committee. Cooper said the committee could report at the next conference.

Central committeemen were named by the various precincts as follows:

Amity, Frank Wright; Baker Creek, M. B. Hendrick; Bellevue, C. J. Payne; Chechewen, J. A. Simmons; East Dayton, John Versteeg; West Dayton, Henry Bertram; West Chehalum, W. W. Walker; Fairlawn, W. C. Arthur; North McMinnville, James Henry; South McMinnville, L. G. Saitor; North Newberg, L. F. Hall; South Newberg, R. L. Jones; North Sheridan, W. Raleigh; South Sheridan, D. C. Coleman; North Yamhill, Luke Kuykendall; Willamette, J. T. Wood; Lafayette, H. Johnson; Whiteson, Ernest Broadwell; Dundee, Fred Hess; Carlton, W. C. Haggerty.

On motion of J. C. Cooper, convention adjourned.

THE BRAVE SOLDIER BOY.

It's just before the battle, Mother, In the midnight's chilly dew, Now the Boers are waiting for us— O, I wish I was home with you.

All my comrades have been crying, Wondering what their fate will be, They say they would desert the army, But they cannot swim the sea.

O, Dear Mother, why did England Ever send us to this shore? I would rather fight with lightning Than to risk it with a Boer.

When I said good-bye Dear Mother, O, what fun I thought 't would be To whip the Boers and get a gold mine, Then come proudly home to thee.

But the Boers are such good shooters They have most my comrades slain, And I know we'll never conquer— Can't you get me home again?

So farewell, Mother, I can never Bring those diamonds home to you, For well I know before the sunrise, I will bite the morning dew. —VENEN.

To The Public.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine.
