Eggs taken in trade at Miss Eva Martin's.
Full line of field and garden seeds at Daniels' produce market as cheap as anywhere in the valley.

John A. Jeffery, the union nominee for district attorney, was in the city during the week.

The best field and highway fencing, manufactured at McMinnville Fence Works, 50 cents per rod on orders in May for May and June deliveries. 20-4

Dr. Lowe the oculo-optician will be in McMinnville on June 7th, 8th and 9th. The "roses rare" in McMinnville gardens, are said to be more lovely this year than usual, perhaps owing to their scarcity last year.

For sale—1½ acres land, with good 7-room, two-story house. On College side near bridge. Enquire at Reporter office.

W. C. T. U. county executive committee will meet in Dayton May 25th. Members will please attend.

Mrs. Grover Co. Pres.
The patent leather ladies' shoes, French heel, have arrived at Mr. Dielschneider's.

Do not wait till the stock is all picked over to buy your trimmed hats. They are already marked down at Miss Eva Martin's.

For sale—100 acre farm, nearly all in cultivation. Good location. Best bargain in the county. Enquire at this office for owner. 19tf

Owing to repairs being made, the county bridge across the Yamhill at Dayton has been closed to traffic.

Subjects at the Christian church next Lord's day: Morning, "The Hidden Treasures." Evening, "The Gospel Net." Everybody cordially invited.

F. W. Spencer has the Rambler bicycle, in several different models. These wheels have the best pneumatic tire ever made. Call and see them. 7tf

A cleansing crusade has been inaugurated at Astoria; cleaning up the town in order to guard against a spread of bubonic plague should it by chance be brought to that port.

The demand for evaporated potatoes for the Cape Nome trade has stimulated business down at the Dayton fruit and vegetable dryer, and business was resumed there last Monday on a run of potatoes.

The Reporter office is showing a fine line of commencement samples for schools and colleges. Prices were never cheaper. Call and see them.

The Nome rush is on! Almost every train from the East brings dozens of men to Portland and Seattle, and every steamer that leaves for the north is loaded with these men and their outfits. Most all seem to be going to Nome rather than Klondike.

Mr. Overholt, who was a McMinnville visitor last week, left Saturday for Astoria, accompanied by Mrs. Asbury and Miss Lillie Overholt, he being a delegate to the Odd Fellows' grand lodge. From there he will return to his home, with his daughter Miss Lillie.

The contractors for the construction of the Yamhill locks say they are determined to complete the job this summer. It is a righteous decision, and one that the farmers in this section will heartily endorse.

There will be no preaching service at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Sunday. The morning service is dismissed for the union memorial service and the pastor will dismiss the evening service and remain at Albany in attendance at the State C. E. Convention. The S. S. and C. E. Societies will hold their services as usual.

In the turmoil and tribulation of politics and war, Elsie Wright, the harness maker, has not been lost sight of. He is still doing business at the same old stand and is as ready now to give customers the best articles for the least money as he ever was. Among the latest invoice in his line will be found some very fine buggy robes and fancy bridles. His riding and buggy whips are good persuaders.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demoniac enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds will bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth its cost. For sale by S. Howorth & Co., druggists.

After having devoted nearly 10 years of the best part of his life to the work of building up Pacific College, at Newberg, President Thomas Newlin has tendered his resignation as president of the college. He resigns to accept the vice-presidency of the Wilmington (O.) College, and will leave with his family early in July. President Newlin is one of the best educators and most devoted men that ever lived within the confines of Yamhill county, and we are sorry to see him leave the great and growing Pacific coast. His place will be exceedingly hard to fill.

G. S. Wright, dentist.
Miss Lelah Davis is visiting with friends at Franklin, Oregon.
For Sale—380 acre farm 2½ miles west of McMinnville. Inquire at county clerk's office. 15tf

Mrs. A. E. Latourette is visiting relatives in Oregon City this week.
Another evidence of prosperity is the fact that the price of barbed wire is down $1 per hundred pounds, and all wire and fencing in proportion.

3¼ wide tire wagon with double box, and spring seat, only $85, at O. O. Hodson's.

A learned scientist says the earth is shrinking at the rate of three inches a year. Acting on this suggestion a great many people are anxious to get possession of the earth before it dwindles away.

You will find an A 1 tinner and plumber at Hodson's. Work the best and prices the cheapest.

Mr. S. D. Crawford, who lately bought a home in this city, has been having the premises neatly fixed up and beautified.

Mrs. A. J. Apperson and daughter Elva left Portland yesterday for the sound, and will take the steamer today for their home at Sitka.

B. L. Eddy, republican candidate for joint representative of Yamhill and Tillamook, will speak at Sheridan at 8 o'clock Monday evening next; Amity Tuesday evening at 8; Lafayette Thursday evening at 8, and North Yamhill Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Next Sunday evening the pastor of the M. E. church will preach as usual. His subject will be, "The Peace of God." In the morning this church will join with the others in the union memorial service which will be held at the court house at 11 o'clock.

Dean Cook's team ran away Saturday night. After circling around the college they brought up against the section of American fence put up by Reed along the Charley Holman property. The fence was uninjured, but you ought to have seen the wagon.

There will be no preaching services at the Baptist church next Sunday on account of the memorial service at the court house. In the evening the juniors will have charge of the services and will give a good program setting forth the work they have done during the year.

The Cape Nome argonauts from this city, consisting of Elder and Mrs. Lindsay, W. L. Thos. and Dell Warren, Thos. Rogers, Henry Oliver, and Ernest Henderson are all in Portland, and expect to sail tomorrow for the golden shores of Nome, if the ship, which is in quarantine at Astoria, should be released.

Populists have secured the court house for tomorrow, Saturday, when ex-Senator W. M. Howard of Alabama will address the people from a true populist standpoint. Mr. Howard has a national reputation as an orator. The time of his address as announced will be 1:30 in the afternoon.

It is now reported as true that the bubonic plague has reached San Francisco, and the port of Astoria is quarantined until the truth is definitely ascertained. The government has authority under the interstate commerce act to quarantine all trains entering the state from San Francisco, and, if found necessary, this will be done.

The Ball place in north McMinnville is near the line of the Southern Pacific, and people passing through seldom fail to see it. Mr. Butchers, who purchased the place last fall, has been improving the grounds and building in a manner creditable to the appearance of our city, and to his suburban home.

During Wednesday's windstorm Arthur Smith had his home blocked up and was engaged in putting a firm foundation underneath, when the building suddenly moved for a reconsideration. The motion prevailed, and Mr. Smith and the workmen narrowly escaped being crushed beneath the timbers. The house will be straightened up.

The veterans of the civil war will be joined by the veterans of the Spanish war in the observance of Memorial day in this city. A short and appropriate service will be held at the cemetery at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and at 2 p. m. a memorial service will be held at the court house. Erastus Smith, who served with Co. I, Second Oregon, will deliver an address. The musical program will be under direction of Mrs. Evenden.

Yamhill lodge No. 10 D. of H. at their ice cream social and art gallery Saturday afternoon and evening had gross receipts to the amount of $81. The art gallery contained about 43 specimens, which proved highly interesting in the manner in which high-sounding titles of art productions could be illustrated without the use of much paint. The ice cream was first-class, and so was the gallery—as a parody on fakery.

R. L. Conner returned home Wednesday evening from a business trip to Portland.

F. W. Fenton has been able between showers to have his dwelling painted white.

Mrs. M. J. Michaux leaves this morning for Ashland, North Carolina, which will be her future home.

Hon. W. L. Tooez is billed to speak at North Yamhill Tuesday evening next, upon political issues.

N. E. Kegg returned from Salem on Tuesday, and is attending to business behind his counters again.

W. Lair Thompson intends starting today for Seattle, where he will take part in the interstate oratorical contest.

Hon. C. W. Fulton will be in McMinnville next Friday, June 1st, and will deliver an address in the evening.

Mrs. C. F. Daniels, Mrs. W. S. Wright, and Mrs. R. P. Ungerman are in Astoria this week, attending the Rebekah grand assembly.

The heavy wind of Wednesday shook about a bushel of green cherries from the trees at the David Wallace home west of town.

Delos Underwood has suffered a relapse, from getting out too early, and has been lower than ever the past week. There is still hope of his recovery.

Married, May 16, 1900, Mrs. Sarah Goodrich and Judson Smith. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. J. A. Frisbie by Prof. E. Northup.

The town of Lakeview was wiped out by fire Tuesday evening. Only one business house escaping. That was the drug store of Dr. Daly, candidate for congress.

F. H. Johnson the jeweler has effected a conditional sale of his business in this city, to J. A. Richards late of Montana. Possession will be given June 1st, if the terms of sale are completed.

John G. Woolley, the prohibition orator, had a good audience at the court house Friday evening, but the impression he made as a speaker seemed to be disappointing to most of the people who heard him. He did not take kindly to the western habit people have of going in and out during a speech, and whenever any one rose to leave the room, he would pause to remark that "small vessels are soon filled." So there was lack of good breeding on both sides.

Lafayette Seminary Commencement.

The interesting program will begin this, Friday evening, and end on Wednesday of next week.

Friday, at 7:30, a piano recital by the graduating class of the musical department.

Sunday—11 a. m., Baccalaureate sermon by D. M. Metzger, principal; 7:30 p. m., sermon to the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., by Rev. S. J. Lindsay of Portland.

Must Get Up Early.

Persons who desire to witness the eclipse of the sun next Monday must not oversleep. It will be necessary to rise with the sun in order to be in at the entire performance. The schedule time for the eclipse to begin, in Yamhill, will be 5:03 in the morning, and it will end at 6:35. Eight digits, or two-thirds of the sun's disc will be obscured here. The path of the total eclipse will be only 60 miles wide, and covers the United States from New Orleans to Cape Henry and Charles. The further away from this path one is at the time the smaller the eclipse will appear.

For Sale.
