Mrs. Christina O'Brian, sister of Mrs. J. F. Taylor, is here on a month's visit, during a vacation from her duties as hospital nurse in Manila. She was recently married to Mr. O'Brian, who is high in the government employ as steward in the Philippines. Mrs. O'Brian brought with her a rare collection of curios from those islands.

The fruit season is now on and you will want sugar and fruit jars; we are headquarters for them. Just received a carload of sugar; also have big stock of fruit jars, and as long as our present stock lasts will sell quart jars for 85 cents per dozen, half-gallon jars at $1.15. M. E. Hendrick.

Contractors have begun work on a contract to furnish poles to be used by the Oregon telephone company, in the extension of the line to Nehalem. The poles will be delivered along the old toll road from North Yamhill across the Coast Range of mountains, to Tillamook City, thence to Nehalem. The poles are to be of cedar. The company will continue the line on to Seaside, which will furnish direct connection between Tillamook and Astoria.

In the turmoil and tribulation of politics and war, Elsie Wright, the harness maker, has not been lost sight of. He is still doing business at the same old stand and is as ready now to give customers the best articles for the least money as he ever was. Among the latest invoice in his line will be found some very fine buggy robes and fancy bridles. His riding and buggy whips are good persuaders.

M. T. Henderson is effecting the sale of his store in this city today as we go to press. Leonard brothers of Portland are the buyers. At a meeting of the board of directors of this school district held a few days since, C. C. Linden was elected principal of the Sheridan schools for the coming year. Miss Bessie Linden and Miss Mildred Dugherty were re-elected to the positions held by them last year. The teacher for the sixth and seventh grades has not yet been selected, and the board will consider applications for that position later. This will be the sixth year that Prof. Linden has had charge of the public schools of this city. We announced last week that arrangements were being perfected to have a grand celebration at this place the 4th of July, and such was the program at that time; but it has been learned since that McMinnville proposes to celebrate, and in view of the fact that she has always done the fair thing by Sheridan, in this as well as in other respects, the committee has concluded to withdraw its announcement and there will be no celebration here this year. Let everybody assist the county seat to put on the biggest celebration ever held on the west side—Sheridan Sun.

G. S. Wright, dentist.

Judge Wm. Galloway was up from Oregon City to vote.

Emerson, Milton, Lakeside and Prince pianos at C. Grissen's.

Lee Collard came over from Salem to vote.

The census takers are in the field. They must hand in their reports on July 1st, and sometime before the end of the month of July it is probable that the actual population of the country can be summed up.

The Reporter is appreciated as an advertising medium. A petroleum company of California has chosen it as one of 100 Pacific coast papers in which to advertise its business, and pays a fair price for the work.

While engaged in painting at W. D. McDonald's residence Wednesday afternoon, Pleas Cosine was thrown to the ground, a distance of 21 feet, by the giving way of a scaffold. Fortunately he was not seriously injured.

The C. K. Spaulding Co., of Newberg have purchased the steamer City of Eugene, for which they paid $4,000. They will use the boat for towing logs to their mill at Newberg, and the pulp and paper mills at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Baker will go soon to Whatcom, Wash., where they will take up their residence. Mr. Baker has Henry and Ed Schenk and James Fletcher building a number of houses in that city, which he purposes to keep for rent.

W. W. Nickell of Amity left on Tuesday for Portland, to take a position as machinist with the J. I. Case & Co. Thresher Co. Nick starts out at good wages, and nobly wishes more than The Reporter that he may advance to the top round of salary and efficiency, and we believe he will.

A. Truett, who is operating the Smith lumber mill northwest of North Yamhill, has a contract to furnish the Ladd & Reed stock farm with 150,000 feet of lumber for a barn, 40,000 feet of which he has to deliver within a few days. The haulers will have some bad mountain road to combat, but these lumbermen can overcome wonderful obstacles in that line.

Prof. Lewis Alderman, late principal of the Brownville public schools, and a Dayton boy, born in Yamhill county, has been chosen by the school board of this city as vice-principal for the coming year. People generally, who know this young man, will regard this as an excellent choice, and congratulate the school board on its excellent judgment. The principal has not yet been selected, but will be some new man outside of Yamhill county.

Death of Charles Palmer.

This excellent citizen, formerly of this city, departed this life at Ashland, Ore., June 4th, after an illness of several years from calculous condition of the bladder. An operation was sustained a few months ago, from which he never fully recovered.

Mr. Palmer was born in the state of New York 66 years ago. While a small boy his parents removed to Ohio, and from there they went to Wisconsin, where he was married to Miss Meriam Smith. Their home was in Wisconsin until the year 1875, when they removed to Oregon, residing in Yamhill county until five years ago, when he removed to Ashland in the hope of benefiting his health.

The body was brought to this city on Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Etta Palmer, a daughter, and the funeral service was held at Wright's hall on Wednesday, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W., of which deceased was a member. Mr. Palmer was a man of strict integrity, and respected by a large number of friends.

Good Policy to Pursue.

At the high school commencement tonight all expenses for graduating exercises will be borne by the board, and there will be no admission charged.

Pentecostal Convention.

The quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church south will be held at Wheatland, at the Pentecostal camp grounds June 9th and 10th, 1900. There will also be quite a number of baptisms on Sunday, the 10th, at 1 p. m. Rev. F. A. Perry one of Michigan's most successful pastor evangelists, is in charge. The convention will continue till the last of June. Already the camp ground is glorious with revival fire, and many souls have been brought into the experience of a personal pentecost.

W. H. Logan is building an addition to his residence.

A McMinnville family ate new potatoes of their own raising on June 1st.
